The Telephone Company
—OF—
P. E. ISLAND.

PARTIES using the Telephones would find talking much more satisfactory if they would observe the following rules:—
1st. Speak with the mouth about four inches from the transmitter.
2nd. Speak in a moderate tone of voice, not too loud, and distinctly.
3rd. Place the telephone so as to cover the ear, just as if you wished to shut out all other sounds. Do not press too hard on the ear.
It is possible to talk and be heard when standing back two or three feet from the transmitter, if you shout loud enough, but it is not a pleasant mode of conversation, is entirely unnecessary, and is a useless waste of wind and lungs, besides being very annoying to all within range of your voice.

An Acrostic

ON THE LATE HON. ROBERT POORE HAYTHORNE.

Ready when his master called,
Overcome, though not appalled;
Bearing death's cold, chilly rod,
Earnest pleading with his God,
Resting faith on Him alone,
Trusting Him who did atone.
Peerless as a statesman, was
Often pleading noble cause;
On this Island much beloved,
Reasoned as his heart approved,
Each good work he foremost moved.
Honor was his watchword bright,
And it nobly kept in sight;
Yeoman of whom all were proud,
Think to-day how many are bowed.
Happy was he to the last,
Oft conversing of the past;
Really honest, frank and true,
Never keeping self in view,
Ever speaking fresh and new.
Seldom we such neighbors had,
Each acquaintance made him glad.
Nature's nobleman he was,
Armed for every generous cause;
Theories good he practised, too,
Of this many daily knew,
Render we what is his due.
Much he is lamented here,
And will be missed many a year.
Representative most true,
Selfishness was ne'er his cause;
Here his conduct won applause,
Fealty to the people's cause;
In public and in private life,
Exhorting all to banish strife;
Lowly now laid in the tomb,
Death for all is Heaven's doom.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

The Capes Route.

SIR,—Now that the winter is coming on again, I thought it would not be out of place to make a few remarks in your valuable journal setting forth the advantages the Capes route has over any other route to the travelling public, as well as a saving of money to the Government. If the Government would concentrate all their efforts on the Capes route, they would, without doubt, be able to carry out the terms of union so nearly that the people would have no reason to complain.

It is a certain fact that this route must be adopted for part of the winter for the conveyance of our mails, the length of time depending upon the severity of the winter and the prevailing winds.

To show some of the reasons why we claim that nature has formed these two points for the connecting link between Prince Edward Island and New Brunswick:

1. In summer it is only a ferry.
2. There have been other points tried, and failed.
3 That this has been the connecting point ever since the Island was first inhabited by the French. It was at these two points that the earliest settlers made their crossing.
4. We cannot doubt but nature formed this place for winter and summer connections, not only for small iceboats, but for a steamer. Just stop and consider the advantages nature has made here above any other place, and surely everyone will admit that the Government should concentrate all their efforts at this point.
5. Nature has caused the tides to flow and ebb to suit a steamer crossing here in winter; the tide flowing from the north-west and the tide flowing from the south-east meet here at these points. When the tide is half high, it is still water until the gulf fills, and then it starts to recede, carrying the ice with it each way, leaving lanes of water from shore to shore. I have crossed several times with Capt. Arthur Irving, and going over we had no water, but on coming back at the turn of the tide we had water all the way. Could the art of man accomplish anything equal to that? I trow not.

Let the Government build a pier here, the same as on the New Brunswick side, and place the S. S. Stanley on the route, and it is my opinion, and the opinion of men who have been in the service for over fifty years, that there is but a very few days that the Stanley would not be able to run from shore to shore; and when she could not cross there would be no trouble for the ice-boats to cross, so that there would not be a fine day but we would have a mail, and the terms of union so nearly carried out that there would be no room to complain. It will be impossible to carry out the terms of confederation to the letter except by a tunnel.

6 It would surely cost the government much less money to run the S. S. Stanley six miles than to run her forty miles as at present. If the S. S. Stanley was on this route all that the Captain would have to do would be to take his glass and he could see from shore to shore and could ascertain at once if his steamer could go or not, and if he decided that he would not go, the ice-boat could go at once.

7. The prevailing winds in February and March are from the north-east, which is sure to stick the S. S. Stanley on the Georgetown route, and here those winds clear the Gulf of ice; and if it blows hard it is almost impossible for the ice boats to cross where the Stanley could run every half hour if required.

8. And then consider the advantage to the travelling public, especially to a number of our farmers and fishermen who leave the Island in the fall and return in the spring. Let a passenger leave Ch'town for any point north, and it will cost him from Ch'town to Sackville, N. B.,—by the Georgetown route—not less than ten dollars, not counting his time. Let him come via the capes and it would not cost him over three dollars to arrive at Sackville, N. B.,—a saving of seven dollars.

9. Take our farmers and fishermen returning home in the month of March and April. They are told on the I C R. that the Stanley is making regular trips, and down to Pictou they go. Very often the SS. Stanley is stuck out in the ice. They stay there maybe for a week and then have to return via the Capes, very often taking every cent the poor fellows had after a hard winter's work in the woods. I would here advise all such to come straight via the Capes, where they are sure to get over, and it will not cost them over four dollars from Sackville, N. B, to Emerald Junction, on P. E. Island; when, if they have no delay on the Pictou route, it will cost them not less than eleven dollars.

And then take our mail service. In a short time the mails will be sent from Summerside to Charlottetown, stay there for a few days, and will have to be transferred to Georgetown route. They will stay there for a few weeks, and then, when all other routes are abandoned, the Capes route comes next, as the only route whereby we can get a daily mail.

I have had charge of the mails here for several winters and I have a little idea of the extra work, expense and delay of the mails making all those transfers. When, if the Capes route were adopted winter and summer, there would be no delays and no fooling of passengers, having them go to Pictou and causing them to spend from twenty to fifty dollars, when four dollars would take them home.

They Tried to Starve Us.

HENCE DR GRANT TELLS THEM THEY HAVE KILLED ANNEXATION IDEAS IN CANADA.

The Rev. Principal Grant, of Kingston, delivered the dedicatory services of the Jefferson avenue Presbyterian church in Detroit on the 4th inst. He was interviewed while there on the annexation question:

"How large a percentage of our people favor annexation? you ask. My answer is another question—how many men have ever been returned to an elective office in Canada who stood on that platform? Another question—has anyone dared to announce annexation as his platform? I do not know how near annexation we might have been had the pleasant reciprocal relations of 1863 5 6 been maintained, but since 1866 the policy of the United States has been to starve Canada, as some of the American statesmen say. Insuperable walls have been built by the United States and we were forced to find new markets. The United States is our natural market, but you have erected those walls and said: "We will starve you, we will drive you into this annexation scheme?" Can you drive annexation? Have we no self respect, no love of country? Are Americans afraid of Canada? That would hardly be possible—a nation of 65,000,000, and we have but 5,000,000—but why build up trade with the countries of South America by the enactment of reciprocity treaties and ignore Canada? Twenty-six years since the reciprocal relations were abandoned the breach is very wide now. If these pleasant relations had continued all those years the commerce of Canada would have been a part of Americans; naturally, the entwining of the commerce would have had an effect on the social and political. We might have been one nation in all save name."

THINKS HE KNOWS THEM.—The Rev. J. Edward Starr, of Toronto, preached on Sunday last on "Why lawyers are such poor church goers?" Here is one sentence from his discourse: "The trouble seems to be that lawyers too easily yield to temptation. Clients want them to carry their end at all hazards. About a thousand and one things are brough to them for help, and so intricate is the law and so familiarized are they with the idea that whatever is legal is right, that too often they yield to the terrible temptation and leave the path of rectitude. If you cannot be honest and succeed in your profession get out of it. It is better never to accept a brief than lose your integrity and perhaps your soul." The rev. gentleman admitted, however, that it is possible for a man to be a lawyer and a Christian.

IT is said that of all the pills in the market Everybody's Pills are the best. That is a high testimonial, but it is borne out by hundreds using this popular family medicine.

FOR THE WORLD'S FAIR.—The Central Experimental farm has shipped a large collection of roots and beets to Chicago, to be placed in cold storage for the World's Fair.

IS IT COAL?—Much excitement prevails at Marshalton, near Digby, owing to the alleged discovery of a coal mine. Went worth Marshall and son have taken up a number of acres and digging and blasting is going forward. Other parties are also staking off claims. Doubts as to its really being coal are entertained by persons having some knowledge of mining, they stating that the indications show merely a combination of bog iron and manganese.

Anything at a sudden, would cause me to start and jump. Could not rest nights. Lost flesh rapidly and became much emaciated. In addition to all this, a severe Rheumatic trouble from which I have suffered severely ever since my discharge, causing my limbs and joints to swell badly set in.
