Important Discovery.

Toronto, Feb. 20.—Among the surprising strides made by medical science in the last decade perhaps none is of more importance to humanity than the discovery of a cure for Bright's Disease of the Kidneys. That this remedy completely masters this terrible disease as well as all the other diseases which the kidneys are subject to is now an established fact. Every day brings news of the most surprising cures resulting from its use.

Smith—I haven't been to the theatre in a dog's age. The last play I saw was "Uncle Tom's Cabin."

Jones—I think "Uncle Tom's Cabin" is the last play I should want to see.

That Pale Face. For Nervous Prostration and Anæmia there is no medicine that will so promptly and infallibly restore vigor and strength as Scott's Emulsion.

Mrs. Goodkind—There's only one trouble about poor Mr. Careless. He's generous to a fault.

Mr. Gruff—Humph! It's a pity he isn't generous to his family!

The Children's Enemy. Scrofula often shows itself in early life and is characterized by swellings, abscesses, hip disease, etc.

Mrs. Muscavado—The Newriches are the people who don't know who their grand parents were.

Mrs. Rickoil—Oh, yes, they do, but they hope no one else does.

USE SKODA'S DISCOVERY, the great blood and nerve remedy.

Boy—I want a cure on y'r winder wid "Boy Wanted" writ on it. Got one yet? Merchant—I have not found one to suit me. Have you had any experience in our business?

Boy—No-o, not much; but I s'pose you'll be around yourself some of the time.—Good News.

USE SKODA'S DISCOVERY, the great blood and nerve remedy.

"You are not a dwarf," said the museum manager to the applicant, "you are six feet tall."

"I look so, but really I feel very very small. I'm a Chicago man, and I'm married to a Boston woman."

USE SKODA'S DISCOVERY, the great blood and nerve remedy.

Hattie (at the play)—I see three days go by between the first and second acts.

Uncle Clover—Great Scott, Hattie! I thought it wouldn't be more an one night. I'll haae to go home and do the milkin' in the mornin' and come back.

HAWKER'S LIVER PILLS cure all stomach ills. They assist digestion, regulate the bowels and liver, tone the stomach and purify the blood.

"You were gone a good while," said the invalid to her husband, who had been to the druggist, "it must have taken the clerk a good while to put up the prescription."

HAWKER'S LIVER PILLS, contain no mercury, are purely vegetable, safe sure and effective. Do not grip, small, easy to take. Sold everywhere.

"No," said the editor, "women do not make good reporters. I've tried them."

"In what are they deficient?"

"When sent to interview a person they insist on doing all the talking."—Town Topics.

COD LIVER OIL has long been justly celebrated as a lung healer. Alone it is difficult to take, but combined with the Hypophosphates in Putner's Emulsion, it is agreeable to the taste, and unequalled by any other medicine for weak lungs.
