Browns Defeat Red Sox 6-1 As Cubs Down Brooklyn Dodgers 7-2

(By The Associated Press)

The upstart St. Louis Browns and Chicago Cubs, major baseball league tallenders in '51, knocked off the league leaders yesterday as they continued their headlong gallop.

The Browns got five-hit pitching from Duane Pillette to whip the Boston Red Sox, 6-1, moving within a game of the American League lead. Minus Ted Williams the Red Sox were shut out until the eighth. St. Louis ripped into Wait Masterson for single runs in the second and fourth and fanned him with a three-run blast in the fifth.

Hank Sauer unloaded the bases with a first-inning double as the Cubs smothered Brooklyn, 7-2, behind Johnny Kistner. The win actually put the Cubs a half game ahead of the Dodgers in the National League won-and-lost records but they still trail by 13 percentage points, 727 to 714.

Sauer's burst with the bat boosted his league-leading runs-batted-in total to 20 in 14 games. The Cubs blasted Ralph Brancaccio and three successors for 10 hits including triples by Roy Mazzetti and Toby Atwell and doubles by Roy Smalley and Sauer.

Jim Hearn found the revamped Pittsburgh Pirates in his game, "cousins" as he pitched the New York Giants to a 13-5 win. The giant righthander owns a 14-2 lifetime record against the Pirates.

Home runs by West Westrum and Hank Thompson and three singles by Whitey Lockman helped New York to a 10-4 victory over loser Mel Queen and four others. Ralph Kiner hit his second homer in the ninth inning.

Frank Smith came to the rescue of Herr Wehmeier in the ninth inning to save Cincinnati's 7-6 edge over the Boston Braves. Doubles by Sam Jethroe and Earl Torgerson with two gone in the ninth scored a run and left the tying run on second. Smith came in to make Sid Gordon fly out. It was Wehmeier's third straight victory.

In one of three American League night games, Joe Dobson, Chicago White Sox veteran righthander, held the Philadelphia Athletics hitless for 7 1/2 innings, then went on to turn in a two-hit, 3-0 victory.

Skeeter Kell, the A's speedster, beat out a slow roller for Philadelphia's first safety, while Dave Adair came through with the second, a ninth-inning single.

Gil Coan's double and Frank Campos' single in the 13th inning broke up a pitcher duel between Bob Lemon and Sid Hudson and gave Washington a 2-1 victory over Cleveland.

Coan started the Senators' 13th with a great deal. One thing that Ted never did was question an umpire's call. An American League umpire wrote something to this effect a short time ago. He admitted calling a couple of bad ones on Williams. The Boston player turned around and looked at the official but never debated the matter. He was one of the most gentlemanly players I ever worked with, stated the umpire.

We were pleased to see that Williams' parting shot to the American League was a two-run homer which won the game for the Sox. We hope that he can come back when his hour of duty is over but we don't think he will be the same and if he is not the same we wouldn't want to see him play. We know that his departure will make it a lot easier for fellows like Bob Feller when they come to Fenway Park but American League pitchers along with the rest of us would be a lot happier if Williams could keep on playing left field.

Expect 45 Entries In Quebec Marathon Event

ST. HYACINTHE, Que., May 1—(CP)—An international field of possibly 45 will set out Saturday on the Canadian Marathon championship, a grind of 26 miles, 385 yards over asphalt-paved roads in Quebec's flat, south shore country.

The race is expected to draw a dozen or more United States entrants and a flock of aspirants to a place on Canada's Olympic team that will go to Helsinki, Finland, this summer.

The marathon championship races as a trial for Olympic selection and at least the first three Canadian finishers will rate consideration.

Gerard Cole Canada's veteran marathon star, will be making another bid. Cole who lives in nearby Ste. Rosalie, has had his training interrupted by the demands made on him in helping with arrangements. The little marathoner is nearing 39, although he doesn't look it.

Cole a four-time winner of the famous Boston Marathon, did not enter this year so he could train and conserve his energy for the Canadian Marathon.

Cole said today that Paul Collins of Wolfville, N.S., should be the man—at least the Canadian runner—to beat.

Collins was expected to arrive tonight or tomorrow. He was second in the Canadian Marathon last year to Walter Federick of Hamilton and was first in 1949 and 1950.

Another top Canadian is Lloyd Evans of Montreal who overhauled Cole in the 1948 Olympic Marathon in London and finished 15th. Cole, suffering from cramps, took the next place.

Two runners from St. John's, Nfld., may turn in a surprise and upset the favorites. They are George Crane and George Hillier and have already arrived.

IN THIS CORNER

Among those who sat in on the Saint Dunstan's R.C.A.F. basketball game Wednesday night was Flying Officer Jack MacAndrew now radio officer with the R. C. A. F. but this time last year was a member of the Prince of Wales College basketball team. Jack, who enlisted upon completion of the College term last spring, was watching his first basketball game on the Island since the night a year ago when the Welshmen dined St. Dunstan's to win the Island title. MacAndrew scored 12 points that night in helping to bring P. W. C. its first Island basketball crown.

Actually Jack had just arrived back in the City Wednesday night about an hour before the game commenced. He has spent the past year in a flying school in Ontario and is making his first visit here since he entered the service. Several days ago he was transferred to the flying base at Greenwood, Nova Scotia, and is now spending a five-day leave in the Province.

Last year Jack combined with his brother Bill, Charlie Hine, Ian Ashford, Garth Crockett and a number of other players to bring P. W. C. the Island crown. At the end of the College year both the MacAndrew brothers and their father enlisted in the services. Bill joined the Army and is now stationed at Camp Bowden while their father is now Lieutenant Commander Jack MacAndrew of the Royal Canadian Navy. Quite a proud record for the MacAndrew family.

There could be an entertaining summer here for followers of the fight game. Forum Manager Bill Brown stated last night that negotiations are being made to open the fight season at the Forum on May 24 with Harry Poulton of Charlottetown and "Red" Graham of Halifax participating in the main event. Graham, who is claiming the Maritime Welterweight title, will fight off with Tommy Spencer of New Glasgow for the Maritime crown.

Graham is a seasoned campaigner from the Nova Scotia capital who already holds a decision over Poulton. Harry, who has spent the winter fighting out of Toronto, is anxious to meet him and as a matter of fact is ready to meet any fighter in the Dominion in his class. If Poulton can get past Graham and Spencer the way will be paved for several bouts with fighters from Upper Canada, two of whom already have been contacted.

The success of the fight game this summer depends upon both the fighters and the fans. The fans are the ones who keep the game going by their attendance and their enthusiasm is aroused only through the pleasing performance of the boxers. Poulton, we believe, can provide about as crowd pleasing a fight as most in his class. If sufficient support is given the first fight or two then fans can bank upon seeing some of the top ranking Canadian welterweights fight here before this summer is over.

One of the most colorful, probably one of the most misunderstood and certainly one of the greatest ball players of the modern era hung up his spikes the other day in Boston for at least seventeen months and perhaps forever. We refer of course to the "Splendid Splinter," Ted Williams who has a number of supporters in this town as ardent as any of the admirers he has in Boston. Williams has been one of the most controversial baseball figures for the past decade, controversial that is in all but one thing—his ability to play ball.

There was one thing which Williams wanted to accomplish in baseball. "When I hang them up I want to be remembered as a great hitter," he is quoted as saying. That he has succeeded in his ambition there can be little doubt as even those of us who sometimes got a kick out of watching the Red Sox stumble over themselves will admit. That life time batting average of .346, those 394 home runs and those countless walks tell too much truth.

Williams possessed one of the most complicated personalities of any player in the modern era. For years we have been reading stories about him and most of them were trying to explain the real Ted Williams. Numberless times he has been in the doghouse with the fans and the press. One thing he stoutly refused to do was to let his cap to the fans, a practise with all players just after they hit a home run.

But Wednesday afternoon in Boston, the last day he played, Williams departed from his custom while he was being honored as no other Boston ball player ever was. Williams stepped to the microphone with his cap in hand and
