to push around when he mentions his cute neighbors. A few amusing anecdotes about school chums, particularly those he knows, a discussion of sports, movies, or something else of interest to him, will fill the bill nicely.

DEAR MISS DIX: Where can a single girl of 32 find a husband? I am told that Alaska has the greatest percentage of men to women but the prospect of going there seems forbidding. Are there any more desirable localities?

ANSWER: The West is still man's territory, girl, and consequently good huntin' ground for a lady intent on matrimony. If you'd like to give the land a try, why not spend a vacation on a guest ranch? That, at least, will give you some indication of available possibilities.

home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. MacKinnon, Murray River.

The C. A. Roland arrived in port at Murray River on December 18th and most likely it will be in for the winter months, giving the captain and crew a well deserved holiday.
