Christmas Cheer From City Dispensary

The Public Dispensary on Pownall Street in Charlottetown is again dispensing Christmas cheer in addition to their other duties. This year Mrs. Dorothy Goldie states that they will have shipped out seventy boxes containing food by this evening. The boxes are a complete dinner with extras, and include chicken, Christmas pudding, fruit, vegetables, and an extra meat dish. With each of these boxes going to a home where there are children, the Public Dispensary sends a large bag of toys, books, candy, fruit and stockings. Also enclosed are mittens which have been knit by supporters of the Dispensary. A number of well known business men have again made contributions which have assisted greatly in filling the boxes, and the Rotary Club of Charlottetown has again generously donated a cheque for one hundred and fifty dollars to help defray expenses.
