To the Editor of the Examiner.

Alexandria is beautifully located, in the valley of the Big Sandy, and on the St. Joseph and Western R. R., 167 miles west of St. Joseph's Mo., and 60 miles east of Hastings, Neb. Population about 2,000. This town is surrounded by the choicest grain and stock raising sections of the United States. We have a graded school which is well attended and under good management. Manufacturers of various goods, are all thriving and making money, fine residences, and excellent sidewalks denote the enterprise, taste and refinement of our citizens. Nearly all branches of business are represented, still there is room for more. The Banks, Stores, Hotels, shops, Mechanics, Laborers, and Real Estate men are all busy, and doing well, supported by a rich surrounding country, peopled with live, enterprising and prosperous farmers. This is one of the best if not the best shipping points between Hastings and St. Joseph.
