OBITUARY

Inserted by friends and relatives as a tribute to the deceased.

JAMES EDWARD WATTS

"In the midst of life we are in death."

Shock and sorrow filled the whole community of Grand Tracadie and the surrounding area, when on the morning of October 1st, it was learned that James Edward Watts, son of Mrs. Edward Watts and the late Edward Watts, was critically injured in what proved to be a fatal accident.

The best of medical skill and hospital care was given to the youthful victim of forty-one years in the P.E.I. Hospital, where for twenty-six days, in an unconcious state, he waged a relentless battle between life and death. But the injuries sustained in the tragic accident proved far beyond the touch of medical skill and hospital attention and on October 26th he passed to his eternal reward.

James Edward Watts was born and lived at Grand Tracadie during the forty-one years of his life. A member of a family of eleven, all of whom are still living, he was the last remaining of the family in the homestead to be the sole source of comfort and assistance to his bereaved and aging mother with whom he lived. Time, the great healer, may soothe the aching heart of his sorrowing mother, but it will never dim the memory of a fond and loving son or bring back the voice that brought her cheer and solace in her declining years.

His sudden and unexpected passing, in the prime and vigor of life, leaves behind him fond and cherished memories of a carefree, fun-loving, good-natured young man whose genial disposition and ever good humor won for him a wide circle of friends. It leaves behind him, too, a grim reminder that death is no respecter of persons or of age and that "in the midst of life we are in death."

His father having predeceased him one year ago, he leaves to mourn the loss of a loving son and brother: his mother, three brothers and seven sisters: Alferd Russell and Frank all of Grand Tracadie; Gerda, Mrs. Hubert Bissett, Jamaica Plain, Mass., Mary, Mrs. Arthur Gorm Florida, U.S.A., Ida, Mrs. Haze Sheehan, Millcove, Gertrude, Mrs. Basil McQuaid, Millcove, Eleanor, Mrs. Lloyd Martin, Charlottetown, Olga, Mrs. Alfred MacDonald, St. John, N.B. and Pearle, Mrs. John Smith, Charlottetown.

His funeral, on October 28th, was held in St. Michael's Church Corran Ban, where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by his pastor, Rev. O.P. Wood Present in the sanctuary were Very Reverend P. F. MacDonald, and Rev. Clair MacDonald.

Pallbearers for his burial in the church cemetery were: Patrick Hughes, Jack MacDonald, Gordon Roberts, Michael Watts, Brenton Clow and Joseph Campbell.

CARD OF THANKS

The family of the late James E. Watts wish to thank most sincerely Rev. O.P. Wood, Corran Ban, Rev. Father Cunnerty of Redemptorist Fathers, Holy Redeemer, Dr. Paul Cudmore, Dr. M. J. Putnam, nurses and staff of the P.E.I. Hospital, and to all those who sent flowers, Mass cards, letters and cards of sympathy or who helped in any way in their sad bereavement, a very sincere thank you.

TORONTO

TORONTO (CP)—Losses far outnumbered gains on the stock market Tuesday during the heaviest trading in more than two months.

Slater Steel, after showing strength early in the day, went along with the downward trend, declining ¼ to 13¼ in fairly active turnover. The stock stole the show Monday with disclosure that Slater was behind the mystery offer to take over Foundation Company—an offer which proved successful.

Elsewhere on the industrial board, Steel Company of Canada and Bank of Montreal both dropped ¾ and Canadian Celanese, Interprovincial Pipe Line and BA Oil all ½.

Among the few gainers were Consumers' Gas, up ¼, Argus Corporation, up ½ and Algoma Steel, ahead ¾.

On the exchange index, industrials dropped 1.86 at 622.06, golds .71 to 86.08—their lowest since September, 1961 — base metals .21 at 205.03 and western oils 1.03 at 118.44.

In base metals, International Nickel fell ¾ and Noranda ⅜. Ventures rose ¼. Northgate rose 20 cents to $6.80 in speculatives.

Among western oils, Hudson's Bay dropped ¾, Calgary and Edmonton ¼ and Home B ⅛. Dome gained ¼ and Home A ⅛.

House Speaker, Deputies Kept Off Campaign Trail

By JAMES NELSON

OTTAWA (CP)—Three Conservative MPs, the prisoners of tradition, are sitting idly by while their fellow members stump for votes in the general election expected later this year.

The three are the presiding officers of the Commons—Speaker D. Roland Michener and his deputies, Paul Martineau and Gordon Chown. Tradition requires from them absolute impartiality on political questions. They can't set out on the campaign trail until the house is dissolved and an election called.

Mr. Michener, 61, first elected to the Commons in Toronto St. Paul's in 1953, will run for Parliament again and has a constituency organization working for him. But he has not yet been formally nominated and will not attend political meetings until the election is announced.

The Liberal and Social Credit parties have already nominated candidates to run against him. Liberal Ian Whan, 46, a Saskatchewan - born lawyer and Rhodes scholar has been campaigning actively for almost two years. Mr. Michener, incidentally, was secretary of the Rhodes scholarships committee for Canada when Mr. Whan won his in 1937.

NO PERMANENT SPEAKER

Mr. Martineau, MP for Pontiac-Temiscamingue in Quebec, and Mr. Chown, MP for Winnipeg South, also expect two or more candidates to oppose them.

The contest in St. Paul's appears to dim any chance that Mr. Michener may be named permanent Speaker of the Commons.

The Canadian practice has been to alternate the speakership with each new Parliament between English - and French-speaking MPs. The speaker is nominated by the government party and elected by the Commons.

The last Speaker to serve more than one normal term was one of the Commons' greats, Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, from March, 1922, to June, 1930. In addition to serving the present Parliament since 1958, Mr. Michener was Speaker for the one-session Parliament between the 1957 and 1958 general elections.

Prime Minister Diefenbaker had hoped to break with tradition and achieve the permanent speakership — an idea nearly everyone on Parliament Hill favors—by nominating an opposition member in 1957.

KNOWLES SAID NO

He offered the nomination to Stanley Knowles, then CCF MP for Winnipeg North Centre and generally regarded as the most expert member on Parliamentary procedure.

Mr. Knowles, however, declined on grounds he would have to leave CCF activity for the non-partisan post. He was defeated in 1958 and now is vice-president of the Canadian Labor Congress. He was one of the founding fathers of the New Democratic Party and has announced he will leave the CLC to stand for election to Parliament.

Mr. Diefenbaker's view was that if Mr. Knowles had accepted the precedent would have created a permanent speakership.

In the United Kingdom, the Speaker is customarily granted acclamation. He serves through several Parliaments, even if there is a change of government, until retirement to some senior diplomatic or vice-regal post.

Since they are prevented from active political campaigning and from expressing partisan viewpoints, how do the Speaker and his deputies in Canada keep their political records and names alive among the constittuents on whom they must depend for re-election?

WRITE LETTERS

All three men maintain a large volume of correspondence. They are not prevented from dealing with immigration, taxation, pensions and other problems referred to them by their constituents.

Mr. Michener has attended a large number of banquets and other functions in Toronto St. Paul's arranged by non-political but politically important groups, such as associations of various ethnic groups. He keeps in close but private touch with his constituency executive.

Mr. Martineau, 40, was appointed Deputy Speaker this session after serving more than two years as one of Mr. Diefenbaker's parliamentary secretaries. In his former capacity, he was active in partisan politics publicly on behalf of the prime minister and the Conservatives in not only his own riding but in other parts of Quebec and eastern Ontario.

He continues to make fortnightly broadcasts to his riding started when he was a backbencher. But now the broad casts are factual reports of parliamentary developments and he shies away from partisan remarks.

NEVER AT CAUCUSES

Mr. Martineau has two opponents already in the field against him, Liberal and Social Credit. There may be a third from the NDP.

Mr. Chown, who will be 40 in August, will probably also have two opponents, representing the Liberal party and the NDP, in Winnipeg South.
