Blanchard Corner

Here's the column you've been waiting for, Blanchard Hall Hockey Report 1981. All the relevant details are here, like what was Blanchard's longest winning streak? The answer is four games. Now you won't be embarrassed the next time somebody asks.

Another note of disinterest includes Dwight MacDonald's goals against average. Was it a) 1.89 b) 4.83 or c) over 10, under 21? For the solution, watch Dwight in warm-up some time!

More fascinating facts on the first half include Blanchard's won-lost record of 7 and 4. Room 222 led the team in goals scored, a total of 21. Room 210 was next with 15. 310 was last with 1. Forwards accounted for 67 goals, defenseman 6. Import Rickey Gallant led the team with 15 goals, Georgie Nelson had 12.

Highlight of the season was Stephen Guddings appearance. But when it was learned his marks had dropped, so was Stu.

At the award ceremonies held recently, the results were as follows: Best Performance as a Hockey Player - Kevin MacNeil. Loony toon Award - Wayne Murphy. And finally, the Eric Nesterinko Award to the player best exemplifying grace, charm, and a general lack of ability or, in other words, the Jim Whalen

Memorial Trophy - Jamie Campbell.

For more fascinating trivia on the 1981 season and a preview of the 1982 season send $9.95 to Blanchard Corner, Canada. Hurry as quantities are limited. And that's the way it is.
