No Negro in South Africa.

The word "negro" is not heard in South Africa excepting as a term of opprobrium. Over and over again have Afrikaner Englishmen stopped me when speaking of Zulus, Basutos, Matabele and so on as negroes. "You in America only know the blacks who come over as slaves. Our blacks are not to be confused with the material found on the Guinea coast."—"White Man's Africa," by Poulney Bigelow.

A Boston newspaper complains that the famous Bunker Hill monument, which when first erected was the tallest creation of man in this country, has now become quite insignificant in height. It is 220 feet high, or 327 feet shorter than city hall tower in Philadelphia.

Greater Glasgow, with a population of 853,000, has only 494 medical men, or one doctor to 1,726 of the population. It must be a healthy place.

There are silver penholders that simulate gold sticks and inkstands that take on the form of a golf ball.

The true lover's knot, which reigns supreme in other departments, has made its appearance as a decoration of many tasteful pieces of silver.

New things in leather are jewel cases and other boxes for the dressing table in various shades of green, with gilt decorations. The novelty consists in a glazed surface.—Jewelers' Circular.

CHARLOTTETOWN Business College

Writing Academy

Let the searchlight of practice illuminate the dark places of Theory.

A THOROUGHLY Progressive Practical Institution, in which young men and women are not only taught Book-keeping (in all its applications to commerce) both by single and double entry, but are trained how to do business, by actual business transactions. The students act as buyers, sellers, traders, bankers, book-keepers and accountants, in actual business operations, and the currency issued by the College Bank and the notes issued in the Emorium, are used in bona fide business transactions, just the same as in mercantile and banking houses. Book-keeping in itself may be learned at home, but a knowledge of how to transact business, cannot be thus acquired. That our course system of training is eminently practical write for testimonials from business men, and from students who are now holding lucrative and responsible positions.

SUBJECTS:

Book-keeping by single and double entry (theoretical and practical), Actual Business Practice, Business Penmanship, Business Correspondence, Commercial Arithmetic, Commercial Law, Railroading, Steamboating, Banking (actual practice in the College Bank), Typewriting, Shorthand and Navigation.

FACULTY:

L. R. Miller, Principal, Teacher of Book-keeping, Arithmetic, Business Practice, Business Correspondence, Typewriting and Navigation.
J. W. Coulson, (Vice Principal), Teacher of Railroading, Steamboating, Banking, Accounting and Actual Business Practice.
J. Harry Williams, Teacher of Business Penmanship.
Wm. Moran (licenced), Teacher of Shorthand.
George S. Inman Esq. (Law Firm McDonald & Inman) Lecturer on Commercial Law.
For circulars and full information, write or apply to
L. B. MILLER, Principal.

All interested are cordially invited to visit the college and inspect our system of teaching, and work in general.

She Had the Art, but Didn't Know It.
"Tell me," pleaded the artless maid, "wherein lies the secret of the art of conversation."

The sage assumed the attitude he was wont to assume when in the act of imparting wisdom and said:

"My child, listen."
"I am listening," breathlessly she answered.

"Well, my child," he rejoined, "that is all there is of the art of conversing agreeably."—Chicago Tribune.

For an Expert Opinion.

"There is one thing I wish to know in connection with trusts and pools," remarked the casual caller to the snake editor.

"What is that?"
"When a pool collapses does the water in the stocks dry up?"—Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.

A Gentle Reminder.

"Yes," remarked young Borem, "it is undoubtedly true that every dog has his day."

"Perhaps so," replied Miss Cutting, glancing at the clock and suppressing a yawn, "but he doesn't sit up all night waiting for it."—Chicago News.

The Humane Explanation.

"Kitty, I can have bird wings on my hat after all."

"Why, it is cruel."
"No, the milliner says these are the wings which the birds shed naturally every year."—Chicago Record.

It Was Imported.

"Josephine won't take any medicine for her dreadful cough."

"Why not?"
"She doesn't want to get rid of it, because she got it in Paris."—New York Journal.

Where Speed Was Needed.

Fair Customer—Is this a fast color? Clerk—Yes. It's warranted to be.

Fair Customer—All right, then; I'll take this piece. You see, I want it for a bicycle suit.—Chicago News.

Not an Enthusiastic Believer.

Jimson—Do you believe in heredity? Flimson—No, I can't say I do. My grandfather was hanged.—New York Journal.

The Philosophy of It.

"De worl is gittin better, en de worl is gettin wuss."

Dat's de way de-people talk it while dey frolic en day fuss.

But I tellin you, my brudder, dat it's good enough fer us,
So rise up early in de mawnin!

In de spring we gits de roses, en de seed is climbin high
En hintin 'bout de harvest dat's a-comin by en by.

En de rainbow like a ribbon is a-runnin round de sky,
So rise up early in de mawnin!

In de winter when de snowflake on de bitin blizzard rides,
De smokehouse pile wid plenty till it bulgin at de sides!

En we warmin at de fireplace dat Providence perwides,
So rise up early in de mawnin!

De way ter do, my brudder, is ter struggle 'gin de wrong.

Ter make de worl feel happy kase it rollin you along.

Ter keep de heart a-beatin ter a halleluiah song.
So rise up early in de mawnin!
