Assistant Information Officer

Located in the University's gymnasium, the annual one-day event will consist of seventy scientific projects entered by school children in grades 4 to 12 from across the province.

PEI Science Fair Chairman, Professor Don MacEwen of the UPEI Department of Engineering notes the competition will be keen for the national prizes offered by agencies such as: Health and Welfare Canada, Department of Regional Industrial Expansion (DRIE), Environment Canada, SUNCOR, Heritage '85 Conservation Award, IBM and the Canadian International Development Agency (CIDA).

Competition for $1800. in provincial prizes falls into three categories: Senior (grades 10, 11, 12), Intermediate (grades 7,8,9,) and Junior (grades 4,5,6,). Judging will be on scientific thought, originality, skill, dramatic value and project description. Speciality prizes are provided for projects related to: Air Pollution, Chemistry, Agriculture, Energy and Natural History.

The Magic of VIA's Youth Canrailpass. The More you Travel. The More you Save.

If you want to see a lot of Canada for as little as possible, a VIA Youth Canrailpass is just the ticket, because the more you use it, the more you'll save! And with VIA Rail, you just sit back, relax and soak up the scenery, while we do all the driving!

Youth Canrailpasses are available for anybody aged 12-24 for travel on all VIA routes. But you can buy one just for the West, the East, for the area between Québec City and Windsor, as well as for coast-to-coast. A choice for any budget.

You can travel as often as you like, whenever you like, and stop-over wherever you like. Simply pay for your pass before your first departure, then all your tickets are issued at no extra cost while your pass is valid. You need a ticket for all trains and reservations are required for reserved seats...but there's no extra charge.

With your Youth Canrailpass, you know exactly what your trip will cost before you set off. It's the smart, low-cost way to see Canada...on your own or with friends.

With VIA, you're in a special world of comfort and calm. The train. The perfect way to start a trip and the most rewarding way to get there.

To get going, see your Travel Agent or call VIA Rail to obtain your Youth Canrailpass.
