

LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL ELECTION.

Liberal-Conservative Candidate for Charlottetown, HENRY LONGWORTH, ESQ.

THE DAILY EXAMINER. NOVEMBER 12, 1878.

Speech by Sir Stafford Northcote.

SIR STAFFORD NORTHCOTE recently visited the Birmingham Reformatory Schools, on the occasion of the annual meeting, and moved the first resolution, expressing approval of the principles upon which the institution had carried on its operations during the past twenty-five years.

Canada as a Model.

The recent political crisis in Canada has attracted the attention, and by the effectiveness of procedure won the approbation of people in the United States.

"What most impresses Americans in the recent events in Canada is the directness of the control which the Canadian people exert over their Government. Our President has a fixed tenure of four years, and no change of majorities in one or both Houses of Congress can shorten the duration of his authority."

At the Stipendiary Magistrate's Court this forenoon, James Monaghan, arrested on complaint of Catherine Parks, for being drunk and using abusive language towards her, was sent up for 14 days.

MASONIC.—Regular communication of St. John's Lodge, A. F. & A. M., will be held this evening in Masonic Hall, Water Street at 8 o'clock.

His Honor Lieutenant Governor Hodgson has proclaimed Thursday, the 21st instant, Thanksgiving day.

Banquet in Honor of Hon. J. C. Pope.

A BRILLIANT AND SUCCESSFUL AFFAIR.

WHETHER regard be had to the number and character of the guests or to the quality and variety of the viands, the banquet given at the Rankin House, last evening, in honor of the Hon. J. C. Pope, Minister of Marine and Fisheries, was one of the most brilliant and successful affairs of the kind that ever took place in Charlottetown.

The following is the BILL OF FARE: SOUP.—Mock Turtle—Lemon. FISH.—Crimped Cod—Oyster Sauce. ENTREES.—Ragout of Lobsters—Sea Coast Pie—Volante of Chicken.

TOASTS AND SPEECHES. The first toast was, of course, the Queen—God bless her. Then followed the President of the United States—briefly responded to by the United States Consul, Mr. Dunn.

The high honor of proposing the health of the Minister of Marine and Fisheries has been imposed upon me, and it affords me a great deal of pleasure to do so. I have known the Hon. Minister of Marine and Fisheries for many years; and since I have known him I have had the highest respect for him. He has been a successful merchant. In enterprise he is second to none. He has been an energetic and successful shipbuilder.

The toast was drunk with great enthusiasm and all the honors. In response Mr. Pope said he wished he possessed the eloquence of his Hon. colleague that he might, in fitting terms, respond to the toast and thank his friends for the magnificent manner in which they had honored him.

At the Stipendiary Magistrate's Court this forenoon, James Monaghan, arrested on complaint of Catherine Parks, for being drunk and using abusive language towards her, was sent up for 14 days. Henry McEwen and James Blackburn were scolding the citizens of the west end on Sunday evening. They were arrested by Officer Hearty, and sent to jail for 8 days. Thomas Lacey, arrested for being drunk and incapable, was discharged. J. McGrevey, for the same offence was fined $2 and costs for 8 days.

States and Canada flourished so remarkably. Mr. Pope concluded by repeating that to be honored by a banquet such as the present—was a great gratification—a sufficient acknowledgment of his political services—and a sufficient equivalent for twenty years of abuse.

The next toast was Sir John McDonald and the Liberal Conservative Party—proposed by Donald Ferguson, Esq., who said: I feel very great pride and pleasure in proposing the health of the honored chief-tain of the Liberal Conservative Party. In doing so it is not necessary to say a great deal. The record of Sir John McDonald as a public man, is before this country, and the high testimonials he has received; and the high position he has won, and the good services he has rendered his country since he entered Parliament thirty years ago, are known to all men.

The toast was enthusiastically received. E. J. Hodgson responded—spiritedly and very eloquently.

The following toasts were then duly honored:—The Senate of Canada—proposed by the Hon. John Lefurgy, and responded to by Senator Haviland.

The Commons of Canada—proposed by John Caven, Esq., and responded to by Hon. F. Brecken.

Lord Dufferin—proposed by Senator Montgomery—responded to by A. C. MacDonald, Esq., M. P.

The Bar—proposed by George Peake, Esq.—responded to by Neil Macleod, Esq.

The Press—proposed by Alexander Mackinnon, Esq.—responded to by J. H. Fletcher, Esq.

The Ladies, proposed by Mr. Percy Pope, responded to by Messrs. G. Walter DeBlois, Finley MacNeill and John Bradley.

Songs were well sung by J. Caven, A. Hermans, and A. Mackinnon, Esq.

Some difficulty was experienced in finding seats for all the guests; but, on the whole, the banquet passed off very happily. The Committee and Mr. Davis—proprietor of the Rankin House—deserve great credit for the magnificent repast they provided, and the successful manner in which it was conducted.

Nov. 11, 1878—

To the Electors of the First District of King's County for the Legislative Council

GENTLEMEN.—At the urgent solicitation of a large number of the electors of the District, I have consented to be put in nomination as a Candidate for your representation in the Legislative Council.

As regards my political views, they are well known to you all. I am an unwavering opponent of the present Local Government, and will support any measures calculated to remedy the grievances caused by their oppressive laws.

I am a firm supporter of abolishing the Legislative Council, and will do everything in my power to promote the general welfare of the country.

As the time is short, I will be unable to see you all personally before the day of Election, and would therefore respectfully solicit your support on that day.
