In Memoriam

MRS. FRANK DAY The residents of Norboro and surrounding districts were shocked to learn of the sudden passing of Mrs. Frank Day on Aug. 3.

She was a woman of fine Christian character and high ideals.

The funeral service was held at her late residence conducted by Rev. Alexander MacKay, her own minister, on a vacation.

She leaves to mourn the great loss of a devoted mother and friend, four daughters and four sons:—(Viola) Mrs. Edward Adams of Margate; (Orrie) Mrs. Clayton Smith of Freetown; (Ethel) Mrs. Crawford Sinclair of Summerside; (Ruby) Mrs. Ernest Carter of Kouchibouque, N.B.; the sons are Harland and Howard of Norboro, Gordon in Kensington and Archie in Charlottetown. Her youngest son predeceased her eight years ago.

Also left to mourn her passing the sisters (Etta) Mrs. John Whitehead of Clinton; (Laura) Mrs. William Sharp of Norboro; (Belinda) Mrs. John T. Dignan, Charlottetown, and one brother, Wesley Heaney of Clinton.

During the service at the home the hymns rendered were "The Lord's My Shepherd" and "Abide With Me" favorites of the deceased. A duet "Going Down The Valley" was pleasingly rendered by Mr. Ernest Dunning and Mrs. Andrew Johnstone. Interment was in the family plot at Margate. Pallbearers were six nephews, David Glover, Harold Day, Lillian Sharpe, Edison Heaney, Alfred Dignan, William Heaney. The floral tributes, silent tokens of love and esteem were many and beautiful.
