HAPPENINGS

On November 30, the Shining Stars J.O.A. Number 473 was installed at Murray River, P.E.I. Florabel Moore presided and she was assisted by Jessie Larter, grand mistress; Florence Ross, Ruby Bonnell; Lady Brehaut, Emma Alley, Margaret Clavey, Saurceon Moore, Barbara Graham and Brenda Moore.

The following officers were elected and installed for the coming year: president, Donna Keenan; chaplain, Donna Saunders; recording secretary, Jackie Grabham; fiscal secretary, Al Reynolds; treasurer, Fern Ferguson. Other officers are Cathy Clark, Bonnie Saunders, Mark Bonnell, Shane MacLure, Errol Raffae, Debye Young, Florence Richards, Cheryl Allen, Margaret Clark.

Following the election and installation of officers luncheon was served at the home of Ruby Bonnell.

The Phyllis Britten Missionary Society held their annual meeting at the home of Mrs. George Campbell with the president in the chair. The devotional was led by Mrs. Harold Campbell. Scripture reading was 1 Samuel Ch. 16 verse 14. The devotion was on the Bible and closed by singing "Lead Me To Calvary" and prayer.

Gay Christmas lights and traditional evergreen formed a lovely scene at the annual Fall Tea and Bazaar sponsored by the Women's Auxiliary of Zion Presbyterian Church, Charlottetown. Guests were ushered to their seats by Mrs. Subaward MacLure, past president of the Auxiliary, and Mrs. Audrey Waugh, Marlon Parker, Carol Myers and Mrs. Estabrook. Refreshments were served on the Christmas program.

Miss Phyllis Britten spoke on the beginning of the Missionary Society. The next meeting will be held on Dec. 12th and a special offering is to be taken. Meeting closed by circle of prayer and Mizpah Benediction. Luncheon was served by hostess and committee in charge.

At a special meeting held on Wednesday night, November 28, Crystal Lake, a group of women organized by an official visit from Mrs. Eudala MacLure, district deputy grand matron of companionable silence, though we met little about was escaping the young's notice. And then with a pair of shovels lifted, the clay, the unloading began.

"I don't approve of this base-baiting. Elmer Jack commented when once we came to a veranda. 'The plants are a nuisance twice a year to us at the banking - in the fall and again in the spring.'"

"But the blossoms are a worth while," we said, "the honyuckles and the roses!"

"And I wouldn't be one bit surprised if a hummingbird should build her nest high up in a honeysuckle next summer!" Alex nodded.

The cattle rangel, gleaming from the stubbled fields and the farther pastures, veiled lightly with a left-over haze from early autumn. The snow we could hear its tractor in an upland field, narrowing down the last file of the fieldwork.

"I guess we could do with some apples now, couldn't we?" James suggested to Alex in mid-afternoon, when presently she was placed side by side in the empty red-powdered cart and all were about to move off to collect another load of horse manure.

"Or some cookies!" Alex nodded.

"Or both!" James grinned, turning to step into the kitchen.

So lovely a day, this was. And happy, when a pair of the name one young and one older, banked this old house at Alderlea, with the help of Mr. C. Wells, the mate and cart - and their hours spent in a mill tomorrow - Diary - Good-night.....

GRAND CHAPER OF NOWA
 Scotia and Prince Edward Island. During the regular business of the Chapter, a degree of conferring a degree was carried out.

Mrs. MacLure gave a lovely address on the general work of the order, and congratulated the worthy matron, worthy patron and their officers on the wonderful work they had done during the evening.

A gift was presented to Mrs. MacLure by the associate matron, Gladys MacKinnon.

Delicious refreshments were served in the banquet room and a social hour followed.

MORROW - ROACH NUPTIALS

Mr. and Mrs. Beverly Revell Morrow are showing following their recent marriage. The bride is the former Audrey Janet Roach, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Roach of Souris and the groom is the son of Mrs. Katherine Morrow, Souris. Miss Bonnie MacLure was the bridesmaid and David Townsend was the best man. Rev. D. E. Adams officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Lovely Military Wedding Is Solemnized In Bay Fortune

Bay Fortune United Church was the scene of a lovely military wedding recently when Gloria Verva, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William McAteer of Prince Albert, Sask. became the bride of John Albert, youngest son of Mrs. Marion Mitchell and Mr. Harry Bay Fortune of Charlottetown, P.E.I.

The church was decorated with baskets of fall flowers and the guest pews were marked by satin bows.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Elton Adams. The organist was Mrs. V. Leith Dinevelt and the soloist Mr. Lloyd Martin of Orwell, N.B. "The Wedding Prayer" prior to the ceremony and "O Perfect Love" during the signing of the register.

Given in marriage by the groom's uncle, Mr. W.C. MacLure, the bride looked lovely in a gown of white organza over satin with lace bodice encrusted with sequins and pearls and styled with a "V" neckline and long sleeves ending in tulle.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN L. BLATCH
Young Couple Pledge Vows at Fall Wedding Ceremony

A colorful fall wedding was celebrated in Brackley United Church, October 6, 1962, when the bride and groom were united in marriage. The bride is the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James G. Newson, Sherwood, and the groom is the son of Mrs. Frank S. Blatch, Brackley.

The bride was wearing a dress of rust velvet with matching head piece. She carried a basket of flowers in fall shades. The best man for the wedding was Mr. Vincent Newson. The guests were ushered to their seats by Mr. Donald Jenkins and Mr. Ernest Roper, friends of the bride and groom.

Mrs. Newson chose for her daughter's wedding a brown sheath dress with gold accessories and a corsage of bronze carnations. The groom's mother wore a pink brown sheath dress and brown accessories and a corsage of bronze carnations.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at Gregor's Hotel, Brackley Beach. The bride's table was tastefully decorated with fall flowers and a three tier wedding cake topped by a miniature bride and groom. The cake was traditionally cut by the bride and groom. The toast to the bride was given by Rev. Frank H. Littlejohns to which the groom fittingly responded. A telegram was received from Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Wood and children, Edmonton, Alberta. Miss and Mrs. MacWilliams circulated the guest book.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. Ernest Roper, Halifax; Mr. and Mrs. Alton Jenkins and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Hurley, Ottawa, Ontario.

For their honeymoon to New York the bride chose a charcoal suit with a large accessory and pines on a corsage of yellow roses.

Following their marriage friends from the community of Brackley gathered at the home of the bride where many lovely and useful gifts were received. Following their marriage the bride and groom were tendered a shower in Brackley.

Man, Lad, Horse And Cart Work At Season's Chores

As suspected there was no pair of over, happier than was his husband of ours, and his five-part grandson from house across the lane, he pulled her and in the accord they led at the banking today.

Perfect Fall day it was, dry and mild, one which wed James to work in his garden. Alex to stung miffs in its pockets until sunbeams withdrew from the cool shadows of evening commenced to go down from the hilltops, the afterlight spread.

The outset of this chore he had been a neighborly being of "Nellie" and her from Mr. C. at the house we have a in of horses at Alderlea, but her could fit patently into endavour of the day, he'll be more or less of a pet, hand-animal, coal black and blue. As a matter of fact, she the ideal one for this season's task, and for the workers we interested it was they came often into our of vision: man, lad, horse and cart, as we continue housework: mixing and filling the loaves that disappear so soon, and tending to the boy's fiddings about. Obvious happy they were as they right in the loads of banking to the yard.

A saw James pause once and down toward the mill these recalling those bank- of younger years, when the mill was in his heyday, and sawdust was the clean and most manifold thing the saw commenced to
