The bidding:

East	South	West	North
1 ♠	2 ♥	Pass	3 ♥
3 ♠	4 ♥

Opening lead—eight of spades.

Declarer often has the choice of winning a trick in either his own hand or dummy's. There is no magic rule to govern this situation — the decision depends on the particular circumstances that exist.

For a case in point we have this hand where South became declarer in four hearts. West led a spade and declarer had the option of winning in either hand. His possible losers were a spade, a club, and two hearts.

But the two potential trump losers could be cut to one by leading the hearts from dummy towards his K-Q-10, because the bidding had pretty surely marked East with the ace of hearts.

The declarer won in dummy with the king in order to get the trumps going. When he led a heart, East took the ace and returned the queen of spades. South played the ace and West trumped it. Declarer still had to lose a spade and a club and went down one.

South was right in reasoning that the initial heart lead should come from dummy. But he was wrong in arranging to make the trump play as early as he did. There was too much danger, on the bidding, that East had a six - card spade suit and West, hence, had a singleton.

He should have won the spade lead in his own hand. He could then enter dummy with a diamond and lead a heart. True, East would take the ace and return a spade, as before. But the situation would now be different.

West could ruff the queen of spades or not, as he saw fit. If he trumped, dummy would of course contribute a low spade and the king would remain intact. On this defense, South would lose a heart, a club, and the spade which West ruffed.

And if West chose instead not to ruff the queen of spades, dummy's king would win and South would wind up losing a spade, a heart, and a club.

As happens so often, declar first play made all the difference.

5 Are Burned In Mattawa

MATTAWA, Ont. (CP) — Four young brothers and their grandmother, trapped in a rear bedroom of their home, burned to death Tuesday when fire destroyed a small two-storey frame building.

The boys' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Lamothe, escaped with a fifth son. The parents were badly burned and taken to Mattawa General Hospital in critical condition. A hospital official said Tuesday night that Mrs. Lamothe's condition had improved, but Mr. Lamothe's was still critical.

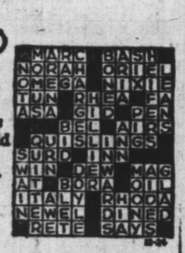
Yesterday's Answer



DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.
