DOWN THE BACK STRETCH

A very welcome visitor to the Charlottetown Raceway last week was Roy Sadler of St. Stephen, who came with the object of buying one or more promising pacers. We understand he made an offer of $2,500 for the four-year-old Abner the Great 2.12, which was refused, but he had the pleasure of seeing his judgment vindicated by Abner winning both heats of the Junior Free For All — time, 2.12, fastest heat of the night and a new record. He also made an offer said to be $2,000 for Campbell's Buddy, owned by Bruce Campbell, Augustine Cove, but even this attractive price failed to dislodge this fast wiggler from Roach MacGregor's stable. Campbell's Buddy won dashes 5 and 8 Friday night and lowered his record to 2.13 2/5.

Saturday night's racing over the same oval had two feature races, the Free For All Trot and the Free For All Pace. In the former Jennie Kalmuck (O'Donnell) won dashes 1 and 3, the first in which she lowered her record to 2.10 3/5 — a remarkably good performance — and predictions are that she will beat 2.10 before the season is over. A trotter that attracted a great deal of attention was the Great Doon that won the middle heat of that race in 2.12 1/5 His best record on a United States track was 2.11, which proves that driver Rannie MacDonald has him quite up to his form he displayed there where the tracks are faster. Jennie won the third heat in 2.11, which was also faster than any previous mark she had taken.

Cheeky Chief, owned by Walter Hennessey and driven by Joe Hennessey, was the winner of both heats of the Free For All Pace with his fastest heat in 2.10 2/5. Miss Knox (O'Meara) second the first dash and Mannister Direct (Sobey) second in the other. Pleasing to friends of Willard Stewart, Tea Hill, who bought a very much over-looked six-year-old pacer last fall for a "song", fed him and exercised him well through the winter and spring, was the victory of Just Lucky in the 5th race for pacers, time 2.16, which of course is a record. Mr. Stewart had several disappointments before he reached the winners column but his faith in his horse and the good care and attention of driver Elwood Shaw, eventually won out. He was second in the 8th dash which was won by Abegweit Milady, owned and driven by Cyril Smith, Hunter River. Just Lucky is by a son of Sampson Hal 2.02¼ and we understand his dam was a mare owned by Rannie MacDonald, Milltown Cross, who bred Ola Budlong 2.10 and a whole string of other good ones. Other new records taken were Billy Budlong, owned and driven by Rannie MacDonald—2.16 3/5, and Judy Budlong, owned and driven by Cyril Smith, Hunter River, — 2.19.

Last Wednesday night driver Ray O'Brien won the first dash on the card at Truro with Mason's 49, by Calumet Budlong, owned by Dr. J. A. Donohoe. Early this spring this horse, Freddie Scott 2.15 2/5 (record given by Johnny Conroy) and others, were sent over to Truro and very few here expected they would make the headlines, Mason's 49 was trained here and owned by George Mason, Bunbury, but never exhibited speed enough to believe he would take a record of 2.20 1/5. Our congratulations. The same night the pacer Andy's Right that showed up so well two years ago winning the $1,000 stake at Chatham and several other races for owner-driver Bert C. Cruikshank, came into his own again by winning the third race on the card from a good field in 2.15 2/5. He also won the 6th race in 2.15 1/5. Laurie O'Brien's Colleen Adam won the 4th dash in 2.14 2/5 and from now on keep your eye on Laurie's Colleen.

Gay Law 2.07¼ (Jewell) owned by W. B. Moriarty of Halifax, won both heats of the fast class in 2.14 and 2.12 with Single Streak second in the first and Follow Up Jr. in the other. And here's another surprise — not that anyone has ever doubted the speed of Tiny Budlong 2.10 2/5 — but this as far as we can remember has been her best performance in a long time. It was in the 7th race and Johnny Conroy was at the controls. Tiny started with a quarter in 31 2/5, the half in 1.05 and finished the mile in 2.11 3/5. A real fast quarter was stepped in the 8th race won by Gay Law — 30 3/5 seconds.

Among the features of Saturday night's racing at Truro was the winning of Race No. 1 by Whizaway (Jewell) in 2.14 2/5. He is owned by that good sportsman Alderman J. H. Breen of Halifax, who in the past thirty or more years has raced some of the fastest trotters and pacers in the Maritime Provinces including Argot Pointer 2.09 1/5. For several years they were raced on the State of Maine Circuit and Foxboro, Mass. and we are glad indeed to see our good friend Harry back again in the Maritimes. The trotter Lusty's Queen by Lusty Frisco 2.07¼, much overlooked by many of us while she was here, has turned out to be a first class per former for owners Kaiser & Nicholson and driver Lloyd Walker. She accounted for races 3 and 7, the former in 2.14 4/5. Another pacer that has come into his own is John Clegg, who won races 5 and 8, both in 2.11 3/5, lowering his record from 2.15 1/5. His owner is Dr. A.E. Murray of Halifax and he was driven by Bert Cruikshank. Iola Henley (MacLeod) kept her record clear by winning both heats of the fastest class in 2.11 1/5 and 2.08 2/5 — the latter just one-fifth of a second from the track record and also Iola's record. Interesting to those who have been looking for the ex-Maine owned pacer Jenny Lyn 2.06 to show up with a good performance, was the fact that she was third in the first heat and a bang up second to Iola in the fastest dash.

The introduction of night racing has proved very popular at Woodstock, N.B. and among the winners that we noticed there last week was the 4-year-old trotter Tyndall Semple, that headed Miss Eloise, Morris Direct and four others in 2.13 2/5. He is owned by George Woodside of Fredericton. Winner of the 3rd race was the former popular Island campaigner O. U. Volo in 2.14 3/5. Richard Budlong, owned by Herbert Chase, St. Stephen, won in the fourth race in 2.14 2/5 and the trotter Abner Hanover, owned and driven by Myron MacArthur, Kensington, P.E.I. won the 7th race in 2.13 4/5. This week the Woodstock horses are racing at Presque Isle Fair and will be back to Woodstock for Old Home Week August 6th to 11th. A regrettable accident happened in the 5th race when owner-driver J.H. DeWitt was thrown from his sulky in the first turn. No report as to his condition has been received. Mr. DeWitt is one of the most popular horsemen in the Maritimes and we will all be hoping that he is not seriously hurt.

Rain interfered with a really great program of racing at Covehead Parlor Track last Wednesday afternoon. The large attendance and eager fans were most gratifying to owner Charles Willis. The first race called was the No. 3 Classified and the first heat of the event was won by the trotter Rutherta (Moreside) in 2.15 — a new record. A new record was also taken by the pacer Lindy H. (McIntyre), winner of the second heat in 2.18. Another new record taken in the only heat of the No. 2 Classified Pace was Alan Mac (Sobey) — 2.14 4/5. The Junior Free For All was the big drawing card of the afternoon with the pacers Ohio Hal 2.09 4/5 and Vella La Vella 2.08 1/5 up from Sydney to add excitement to the scene. Argot Pointer, driven by Harvey Cormier, was just too good, winning the first heat in 2.09 2/5 which is only one-fifth off his record taken at Covehead two weeks previously. The second heat was in 2.09 4/5. Pushing him to the limit was Ohio Hal, driven by Worrell Lewis, with Mannister Direct (Sobey) 3-3 and Vella La Vella (MacDonald) 4-4. Cyclonic 2.08 (MacDonald) showed his true form in the No. 1 Classified which had lively stepping, the first half in 1.04 3/5 and the mile in 2.10 3/5. Rosalie Hooper (Cormier) finished second and Prince Budlong (Cudmore) third, Miss Donna Mae (O'Donnell) 4 and J.S.J. (Willis) 5. A downpour of rain prevented the completion of the remaining six heats to the great disappointment of the crowd, the management and the horsemen.

For those horsemen who have not made the headlines as yet there is a wealth of racing still with Old Home Week August 13th to 18th with over $17,000 in prize money advertised, and the Truro Raceway, Ltd. Central Nova Scotia Exhibition program August

Local swimming artists are expected to be taking to the water again soon in organized competition, according to reports from local officials here. As plans stand to date the Queen's County championships will be held at the Victoria Park waterfront on Wednesday of next week. The meet will be one of three elimination contests in which each County will select their representative teams to compete later in the Provincial championships scheduled for August 22nd.

• • •

The Queen's County meet will be held under the same conditions that governed the Festive Week program held at Victoria Park in July and will be under the sponsorship of the Charlottetown Hi-Y Grads Club in co-operation with both the Red Cross Swimming and Water Safety Division and the Department of Physical Fitness. Titles will be decided in both junior and senior boys and girls divisions for the County in both swimming and diving competitions with the winners qualifying to represent Queen's in Provincial competition.

• • •

Individual meets for each County, followed by an Island championship, was inaugurated here last summer for the first time and proved a very successful undertaking for aquatic followers who adopted it as an annual feature in provincial sporting activities. Prior to last summer, one or two sections throughout the Province did hold meets of their own with Summerside being the most prominent seat of activity. However, the sport is now fast gaining its rightful place among other leading summer entertainments. Applicants may enter in no more than three events and all entries are being received by the Department of Physical Fitness.

• • •

Although Provincial senior tennis competition held the spotlight here in racquet wielding circles just a week ago, the sport will come into its own again here next week when both the Island Junior and Charlottetown Tennis Club championships will be held at the courts of the local club. The junior tourney will be held on Tuesday and Wednesday, with the local club competitions also getting underway on Wednesday and will carry on for the next week or so until all titles are decided.

• • • •

The junior competitions are open to all entries under 18 years in both boys and girls singles and doubles divisions and will be conducted under the sanction of the Canadian Lawn Tennis Association. It will be an important tourney for Island junior title seekers who will not only be contesting for top honors in their division, but an opportunity to represent the Province in Dominion competition. The C.L.T.A. has offered a grant to the champions in the boys and girls singles divisions that will assist in sending them on to the Canadian Junior Championships to be held later this summer under their sponsorship—an opportunity that will be well worth competing for by any youngster with tennis aspirations.

• • • •

With a greatly increased membership over last season and all six of the clay courts in better condition than they have been in years, the keenest type of competition is expected to be a big feature of the City Club's tourney this year when the title holders in the various divisions come out to defend them against all comers within the club ranks.

• • • •

Defending titlists in the singles bracket are Earl Smith in the men's and Miss Helen Larter in the ladies. Smith was runner-up for the Provincial singles crown last week, while Miss Larter captured the Island ladies singles title for the second year in succession and is a high favorite to retain her club title again this year. Jimmy Palmer and Miss Audrey DeBlois are the defending mixed doubles champion while Walter Cullen and Smith, Miss Wanda MacMillan and Larter, will defend the men's and ladies doubles crowns respectively.

Holmans In 7-2 Win Over C. And B. Juniors

The Curran & Briggs Juniors had one bad inning in the game with Holman's at the Recreation Grounds last night and that was enough to give the Holman team a 7 to 2 victory over the Whalen-coached crew. All seven runs were scored in the fourth inning which came to a sudden ending with the first triple play of the year. With seven runs across the plate and nobody out, with Coke Grady on the mound to put out the fire after Ed Dalton had been shelled out, the situation looked grim because Grady was also being hit hard by the Holmanites. Then with runners on first and second, Underwood hit a fly to the right of the pitcher. Johnny Whalen, youngest player on both teams, came in fast, made a shoe-string catch, whipped the ball to first to catch one runner napping, and Cannon on first threw to G. Dalton at second to complete the triple play.

The other feature defensive play was made by Layton Schurman who ran over to the screen back of first to catch a foul fly inches from the wire.

Ken Walker and Dutch Underwood led the Holman stickers, Walker getting two for three and Underwood two for four. Gerard Dalton had two for four for the Juniors, both bunts, and the fleet-footed rightfielder beat the throw to first on each occasion.

The Victory Cleaner "batting" award was tied for by five batters, so the award was not given.

Plan Swimming Meet On Aug. 8

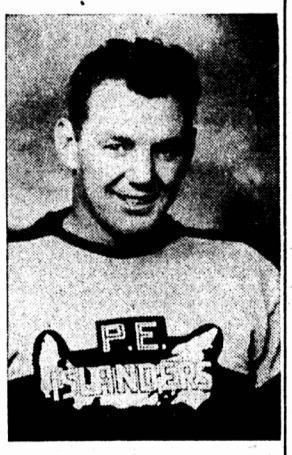
The Summerside Y's Men are going to hold their county swimming meet this year on Wednesday, August 8th at the Marine Wharf.

Events in this meet range from ladies' and men's swimming and diving to clown diving, greased pole acrobatics, cork race and exhibitions of surfboard riding Boys and girls have their own classes of races and relay races of four contestants have also been planned.

The winners will be eligible for the Provincial Swimming Meet which is going to be held on August 22. The two swimming instructors now at the Marine Wharf have been teaching life saving tactics and swimming to many aquatic minded persons this summer at the Y's Men's bathing house. Due to this, many entries are expected for this competition

Entry forms with which to enter the contest were in yesterday's Guardian and persons wishing to compete should fill one out and send it in according to instructions or leave it at the bathing house at the Marine Wharf. — S

Will Captain Islanders Again



Wes "Bucko" Trainor of Charlottetown (above) has signed a contract to captain the P.E.Islanders 1951-52 team entry in the Maritime Major Hockey League, it was announced here yesterday by manager-coach Leo Lamoureux.

The news that the former National Hockey League performer with New York Rangers will be heading the Islanders again this year will go well with local hockey fans and the signing of his contract will curb many rumors of late that "Bucko" has been casting his eye in the direction of other Maritime teams for the forthcoming season.

Two others who performed with Islanders last season are expected to sign contracts over the weekend although coach Lamoureux didn't mention any names. He did say, however, that the Islanders will have ten new faces showing with the rest of last year's roster when they hit the ice for preseason training.

Initial fears that the unusually wet weather this spring and early summer would have a detrimental effect on the hatch of Hungarian partridge and pheasants have been dispelled to a great extent by an optimistic outlook at time of writing. Hun coveys are numerous and large in many districts and the pheasant prospects are equally encouraging. On Wednesday morning a farmer from across the river told me he saw three coveys of Huns on his farm when he was cutting hay in July.

The coveys would average twenty chicks each and were in different sections of his farm. August is a critical month in respect to late hatched broods. To date practically all rain has been warm and birds are not so liable to get chilled. Incessant cold rains, contrary to the general opinion, cause losses among young black ducks Ducks are water birds but can stand only so much weather while in the down stage.

Duck prospects are excellent this summer, which are in sharp contrast to the outlook this time last season. Black ducks really got down to business this season and took their housekeeping and family duties seriously. Blue-wing teal also show an increase. This species is plump and toothsome on October first and in this respect differs from its cousin, the Green-wing, whose table qualities are lacking at the first of the season. It's really late October before a Green-wing teal is worth shooting. The Blue-wings pull up stakes for more southerly climes early in the month and are scarce by October 10th. The Green-wing on the other hand sticks it out until late November.

At the monthly meeting of the Prince County Fish and Game Association held in Kensington last week the question of damage to trout by Great Blue Herons (Cranes) and Mergansers (shell ducks) came up for discussion This columnist in the past has taken a stand in favour of the crane when his head was in danger of being placed on the chopping block. However I have observed with alarm that the crane, within the past few years, has shown a marked preference for mill ponds and trout streams over tidal flats and sea shores.

Last winter I have started cranes from the heads of beaver dams during every month of the season I have watched them catching trout along winding alder bordered brooks that are miles from salt water. This morning (Thursday) an angler and hunter whom I have known for a number of years told me that last Sunday he was fishing at Johnston's Pond, Suffolk, when six cranes came flying in, just like a flock of ducks, and alighted beside a good trout pool. He paddled over and put them up but they came to rest in the nearby tree tops and settled down for a long wait. They were still there when my angling friend left the scene. It doesn't require much imagination to figure out what happened then. This pond is teeming with fish and the cranes, more hungry than usual from their enforced wait, would fly down and tank up on trout. Birds have reasoning powers just like humans and why spend hours along a salt water channel waiting for a flat fish or smelt to swim past when they can hitch themselves up to a well stocked table and wade right in.

For years a trout tagging program has been in force at Ellerslie Brook in Prince County and a reward is paid for all tags found on trout that are caught. Dick Found, president of the Prince County Branch Game Association, told me a week or so ago that they found a crane that had become entangled in the trout trap. They have a permit to destroy cranes molesting the trout and when this particular bird's stom-
