THE DAILY EXAMINER.

APRIL 13, 1892.

Notes and Comments.

—Every one connected with the emigration movement is gratified with the Premier's statement that a vigorous emigration policy is to follow the transfer of the emigration system to the Interior Department.

—Speaking about Revising Officers a few days ago Mr. L. H. Davies, M. P., said: "I never felt any great injustice from the revising officer who, in my county, is the county court judge." This is the second compliment which Mr. Davies has in Parliament bestowed upon Judge Alley.

—On Wednesday last the Ontario Legislature adopted the principle of a measure authorizing women to practice law, and Governor Flower, of New York, signed a bill giving them the right to vote for school commissioners. The world do move.

—It is stated that the Chinese Minister at Washington had indicated to Senator Sherman, who is chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, that if the Extreme Chinese Exclusion bill become law in the form in which it has passed the House of Representatives, the Chinese Government will sever all diplomatic relations with the United States.

—According to an official statement, the amount paid by the United States Government for pensions during the fiscal year ending 13th June, 1892, was $124,415,951, against $109,357,534 in 1890, and $87,644,779 in 1889. The total expenditure for the past ten years amounted to $776,282,100. On the 13th June, 1891, the net debt of Canada amounted to $237,809,030, the interest outlay amounting to $9,584,138. It will be seen, therefore, that in the matter of pensions the Government of the United States pays annually nearly half as much as the total net debt of Canada.

—The sales of land in the Canadian Pacific Railway Land Department have been very large this season. Over 200 acres were sold on Saturday week. Before ten o'clock on Monday the sales aggregated 4,000 acres. On Tuesday and Wednesday they were a little less, averaging nearly 3,000 per day. Thursday was the heaviest of the week, when a total of 5,000 acres was disposed of, and on Friday 4,160 acres. The total for the week is nearly 20,000 acres. The sales of the first quarter of the present year compare with the corresponding period of 1891 very favorably, but the second quarter will be even better. For the first quarter of 1891 the sale aggregated 15,000, and for January, February and March of the current year, a total of 80,000 acres,—an increase of 433 per cent.

— The annual report of the department of Railways and Canals shows that the number of railways, including the Government roads, in actual operation in Canada (embracing under one head all amalgamated lines) is 54. The number of miles of railway completed is 14,003 (besides 1,679 miles of siding), of which 13,339 were laid with steel rails. There are 13,256 miles of railway in actual operation. The paid-up capital amounts to $786,447,811. The gross earnings of all these railways last year amounted to $46,843,826, and their working expenses to $32,913,350, leaving the amount of the net earnings $13,930,476. The number of passengers carried was 12,321,282, and 20,787,468 tons of freight were conveyed over these roads. The total number of miles run by trains were 41,849,329.

Opening Show Day.

This being the opening show day at James Paton & Co's. popular store, the attendance of shoppers and sightseers was even larger than on similar occasions in former years, and the efficient clerks were kept moving about lively. The array of new and stylish goods is simply bewildering, and everything is arranged with much taste and skill. In the main store there is an unusually large assortment of such goods as are generally kept in a first-class establishment of the kind; and in the mantle and millinery departments are to be seen the latest styles in those articles in which the ladies particularly are deeply interested. The carpet department, too, is well stocked with new and elegant carpets, curtains, etc., and the clothing room is "more than filled" with outfits for the little ones, the big ones and those who are not so big.

The two big show windows are tastefully decorated, and are attracting considerable attention. In the eastern window are figures made up to represent a "bride" and "bridesmaid," and in the western window is the figure of a maiden appropriately dubbed "sweet sixteen" and — well never mind. The eastern window was dressed by Miss Maceachern and Mr. Wood, and the western window by Miss Maceachern and Mr. McLaren.

The show will be continued this evening and all day to-morrow, also on Saturday evening. All are invited to call and look through the premises.

Personal.

John J. Fairbairn, the well-known knight of the gripsack, is registered at the Hotel Davies.

We are sorry to hear that Mr. W. W. Clarke is confined to his house on account of illness, and trust that he will soon be able to resume work again.

Dr. Bagnall is able to be in his office to-day, after having been laid up with a severe cold for several days.

W. B. Freeman, formerly with T. & E. Kenny, has entered into partnership with James McPherson, of the People's Dry Goods Store, Gottingen Street.—Halifax Herald.

A Chicago paper says that at a meeting of republican leaders in that city on Monday, it was practically determined that Vice-President Morton is to be renominated with President Harrison at the Minneapolis convention.

Dr. James Handrahan, son of Thomas Handrahan, Esq., of this city, whose success at the University Medical College, New York city, THE EXAMINER recently announced, has arrived home. He was a passenger in the Northumberland yesterday.

Mrs. Lodge, mother of the wife of Rev. Job Shenton, celebrated her seventy-ninth birthday on Saturday, at the residence of Mr. Sherton, St. John. The gathering was a very pleasant one. Mrs. Lodge, who bears her years lightly and cheerfully, received the good wishes expressed by the guests individually, and later in the evening was more formally congratulated in a hearty little address by Rev. H. Daniel. Mrs. Lodge has been spending the winter at the parsonage with her daughter, and expects to leave soon for Moncton and Pugwash, the homes of two of her sons.

SPECIAL.—A special meeting of the members of No. 1 Battery, G. A., will be held in the armory to-night at 8 o'clock, sharp. A full attendance requested.

Provincial Legislature.

House of Assembly.

APRIL 12.

Mr. Underhay asked the Commissioner of Public Works on what road through the property of J. G. Scrimgeour was the sum of thirty dollars paid as compensation for right-of-way during the past year. He knew of no new road through the farm property of J. G. Scrimgeour, and he had heard once that there was an impression abroad that this money had been paid on the Seven Mile Road, which had been moved a few years ago on to the line where the right-of-way had been secured many years ago, and if this was so, it was not right; if not so, it was right the Commissioner should have an opportunity of contradicting it.

Hon. Mr. McLean replied that he would lay full information respecting the matter before the House, and that very little reliance could be placed on reports.

The bill to incorporate the O'Leary Hall Company was read a second time, committed and reported agreed to.

The bill to incorporate the Murray Harbor South Temperance Hall Company, submitted by Mr. Clow, was read a second time, committed and agreed to.

The bill to prohibit the sale of tobacco to minors, submitted by Mr. Montgomery, was read a second time and committed. A conversational discussion ensued.

Mr. McKay said that many fathers in the country constantly send their boys to the store for tobacco; and, if the bill passed, storekeepers would either have to disoblige the customers or run the risk of fine and imprisonment.

Mr. Montgomery said that this difficulty could easily be met by means of written orders.

Mr. Robertson thought the principle of the bill good.

Hon. Mr. Gordon corroborated the statement of Mr. McKay and said that he thought that little good would be done by means of legislation. He denied that many boys under the age of sixteen use tobacco in his district and contended that if boys in the country are inclined to use the weed, the proper place to teach them not to do so is in the home and school. Let the evil incident to the use of tobacco be explained in the schools, together with the evils of alcohol. He had no faith in such legislation as that of the bill. There is too much of it in these days. We are falling into the error of the Puritans.

Mr. Angus McLeod opposed the bill in its present form.

Hon. Mr. Sinclair said that in this fast age the law must interfere. He approved of the bill with modifications. The tobacco habit is a vile and filthy habit.

Hon. Mr. Arsenault did not believe in legislating in this way. The parent ought to interfere to keep their boys from using tobacco. An act of this kind would involve the temptation to steal and lie and swear falsely. He did not think that such a law could or would be enforced.

Mr. Underhay opposed the bill, contending that but few boys in the country use tobacco, and that the bill would not work well.

Mr. Ball moved to report progress and Mr. Warburton said that the objections to the bill could be met by amendment.

Hon. Mr. Peters contended that tobacco in moderation was not a bad thing—though used in excess it is. All civilized nations use tobacco. Lots of the clergy use it. He, himself, occasionally had a smoke with his honorable friend the Leader of the Opposition. To say that tobacco is a vile thing and the proper use of tobacco is a filthy habit is to say that which, in his opinion, was not correct.

Mr. Rogers would vote for the bill if the word "tobacco" was erased from it.

Hon. Mr. Farquharson took ground against the Premier, contending that the use of tobacco is an evil. He said that he would support the bill if modified.

Hon. Mr. Gordon referred to the petition in which all the ladies who signed it declare that they "know by experience" the evil effects of tobacco. In opposition to this, his observation taught him that but few boys in the country and no ladies use tobacco. He agreed with the Premier that many great men, including the great Spurgeon, have enjoyed a pipe.

Mr. Bentley said that he was in favor of the principle of the bill and contended that the tobacco habit is filthy and expensive.

Mr. Montgomery said that he did not expect that the bill would pass without some amendment. Progress reported.

The Medical Bill was further considered in committee and progress was again reported.

FORENOON SESSION.

APRIL 13.

House went into committee on the Medical Bill. Progress reported.

The bills to incorporate the Malpeque Hall Co.; the O'Leary Hall Co.; and the Murray Harbor South Temperance Hall Co., were read a third time and passed.

House adjourned.

LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL.

Hon. Mr. Laird moved the second reading of the bill respecting the Legislature. He briefly justified it on the grounds of political expediency and financial necessity.

Hon. Mr. Campbell followed with a rattling speech. He said that he had for many years been, upon principle, in favor of the abolition of the Legislative Council. There has been no use or necessity for it since the abolition of the proprietary system. Our House of Lords should have gone with the lords of the soil. But the Leader of the Government puts forth, on behalf of the bill, only the plea of expediency and necessity. If the Liberal-Conservative party were still in power, Leader of the Government would to-day be in opposition to the abolition of the Legislative Council, even though the measure identical with the one now under consideration had been submitted. It would be well that a change of Government took place if it resulted in the passage of the measure, faulty as it is. To the Legislative Council is due the fact that there was a balance of $53,000 against this Province in 1889. We should not have owed a dollar if the policy of the late Government had not been interfered with by the Legislative Council. The late Government reduced the public expenditures from an average of $383,379 a year to an average of $272,878. But the Legislative Council burked several of the late Government's economical measures, and refused to be abolished. In the thirteen years of its existence since the late Government moved to abolish it, the Legislative Council has cost upwards of $65,000. In the meantime it defeated the Government's Education Bill, which provided reforms—some of which are now called for by the present Superintendent of Education—which would have ensured a saving of $20,000 a year, without impairing in the slightest degree the efficiency of our public schools. It burked other bills for economical reform, and it did nothing whatever to promote or protect the interests of the property holders. He hoped that the bill would pass, though sooner or later some of the details would have to be amended. For instance, the idea of excluding from the franchise the man who owned $300 and including the man who owned $325, authorizing him to vote for a man who may not be worth a dollar, is ridiculous. Permitting the owner of $325 to vote and not permitting the farmer's son who had an interest in his father's farm—it might be to the amount of thousands of dollars—is also wrong and ridiculous. Outrageous, too, is the proposition to restore the mortgage vote and thus put the political destinies of the Province into the hands of money lenders and lawyers. A Liberal measure indeed! If the Coles and Whelan have cognizance of the actions of their degenerate successors in the so-called Liberal Party now must they exclaim against those upon whom their mantles have fallen. The Liberals of the present day seem to have the knack of getting into financial trouble. It is the same in Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Quebec. The late Government left the Province financially in a better state than they found it. But, already after having passed the Land Office Discount Bill and issued debentures, virtually placing a mortgage upon every man's farm. Our Liberal Government are in such a strait that they are compelled, as the Leader says, to bring in a bill to abolish the Legislative Council.

Hon. Mr. McKenzie followed in a regretful and apologetic vein.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

The Medical Act.

SIR,—The more one reads the act proposed, the more one is astonished at the barefaced effrontery of the present Council. They have omitted nothing that constitutes them a separate court, except asking the Legislature for salaries. By sec. 25 they ask for powers to sit in judgment on a fellow practitioner, examine witnesses under oath, compel attendance, receive affidavits or solomn declarations of persons residing outside the Province, and pass sentence, as in the "wisdom of these "solons" may seem fit, and in the next section ask the Legislature to exempt them (like cowards as they are,) from the consequences of their acts. For cool impertinance it would be difficult to find an equal. It reads thus: "No action shall be brought against the Registrar or the Council, or any member thereof, for anything done bona fide under this act, notwithstanding any want of form in the procedure." In fact, the more you read the worse the features seem. It is not for the protection of the public, but in the interest of these men who are playing the great men for their own glory and gratification, men who "fancy themselves." Then again, they are asking for more fees by annual contribution. I would like to know what they did with the hundreds of dollars they toook in last year? I think I can tell you. It was spent in paying treat to the Council, in travelling expenses and hotel bills, witness fees, &c., &c., in prosecuting your humble servant. Instead of founding a library or assisting the hospital they used our money for vengeance. Are the sensible men of our legislature to be duped by promises of the good to be done, &c., &c.? Gentlemen, they can't be trusted with such unlimited powers? Are we to be subjected to cruel persecution by this fancy court of theirs and not be able to prosecute them for damages? The House of Bishops could not be trusted with such powers. No sane men should allow such an iniquitous law or court to be formed. It is only opening the door for the grossest abuses and persecution. The old act is strong enough to protect the public. Let it rest. It was a wise remark of that sage philosopher, Lord Bacon, when he said: "It is good also not to try experiments in states, unless the necessity be urgent and the utility evident, and to be well aware that it is the reformation that draweth on the change, and not the desire of change that pretendeth to the reformation." The present amended act is bad all through.

GEO. A. BAYNES, M. D., etc., etc.

SIR.—I have perused George A. Bayne's letter in your issue of yesterday in which he acknowledges that he has had trouble in other parts of the Dominion in the practice of his profession. If his record is good, he has nothing to fear from any act that the Legislature may pass. The public want to be protected, and they look to men in whom they have full confidence in the medical profession to see that no man can impose upon them with impunity. If the bill now before the Legislature was not required, I feel satisfied that our medical men would not spend their time and money in forwarding it. George A. Baynes has as good a chance as any other medical practitioner in P. E. Island, provided that his conduct is gentlemanly and above suspicion. His language respecting our tried and faithful medical practitioners is such as to create a suspicion in the minds of the people that the bill is required.

A PATIENT.

Last Night's Musicale.

THE pupils of Miss Russell's school for girls gave a musicale last night in McLeod's Hall. The room was well filled with friends of the pupils, present by invitation. Dr. Anderson presided. The programme was carefully selected, and was under the direction of Mr. Earle. Every number was pleasantly rendered, and the performers must have been gratified by the hearty applause accorded them. Of course it is almost impossible to particularly praise any one selection, but the instrumental solos of Miss Vere Hyndman, Miss Katie McLean and Miss Muttart, and a selection entitled "The Musical Box," played by Miss May Dodd, were very good. Among the vocalists were Mrs. M. McLeod and Misses Florrie and Amy Earle. Just before the close of the evening's entertainment, Prof. Anderson, in a few words, expressed the pleasure he felt in discovering such fine musical ability in the performers of the evening. He also paid a very high compliment to Miss Russell's school, and gave great praise to Mr. Earle, who is the musical director. The musicale was brought to a close with God Save the Queen.

Miss Russell expects in a few days the arrival of Fraulien Lauffer, who will instruct the pupils of the school in the foreign languages.

—THE PROPERTY OF—

—(x)—

PARNELL is a rich dark bay in color, with black points. He stands 16 hands high, and weighs 1150 pounds. He is a magnificently built and perfectly proportioned animal, having a finely shaped head and neck, the throat being clearly cut; the chest is broad and deep, giving grand lung power; the shoulders slope well back; the barrel is well rounded and springly ribbed, with strong loins and coupling; the quarters are shapely and heavily muscled; his bone is firm and clean, and his legs and feet all that can be desired. He is a splendidly gaited animal, having a free, open, natural trotting action that is greatly admired by all who have seen him moving in harness. He is good tempered and level headed, and very intelligent looking.

At the Provincial Exhibition, 1892, he showed his license to trot. Being started three lengths behind, and he pole horse, he drove the winner home in 2 40½, which is equal to 2.35 had he got fair play. Parnell has to his credit some of the best looking colts on the Island, and before the snow flies next fall he will have some of the fastest.

In Parnell's veins is mingled the blood of performers and producers—the blood of Black Hawk, of Abdallah I., of Justin Morgan, of Sambo, of Saladin, and of many others that are renowned in the equine history of the United States and of Prince Edward Island. In style, action, speed, courage, energy, pluck and intelligence he is worthy of his breeding, and breeders can make no mistake in stinting their best mares to this handsome Stallion. If you want speed you must breed for it, and in Parnell you have it. If you want fine carriage horses you must breed for them, and in Parnell you have concentrated the strains that have produced hundreds of our best roadsters. His inheritance is such as to justify expectations of the best results.

Parnell will stand at the owner's stables during the season of 1892 at the service fee of $15 00 for a foal. As I expect Parnell to trot below 2.30 this fall, I cannot allow the usual return privileges. Mares from a distance will be kept free of charge for two days.
