LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

PREMIER black and white sale now on.

GO TO St. James' Hall to-night.

WARD FIVE.—Meeting to-night in Easton Street Hall.

CABOT CLUB meeting to-night. Full attendance requested.

THE FOREIGN MAIL arrived in the city about half-past two this afternoon.

RESERVE to-morrow evening for the grand hockey match, Charlottetonians vs. Victorias.

THE hockey match to-morrow evening will be very interesting. Don't fail to attend.

EVANGELISTIC.—Have you been to hear the Evangelist? If not, why not? All are invited.

POLICE COURT.—This forenoon an assault case was further adjourned until to-morrow.

THE CIVIC ELECTION will take place on Wednesday, 14th February. To-morrow will be nomination day.

TO-NIGHT.—A meeting of the electors of Ward Five will be held in the old Salvation Army Barracks (Brace's Hall), to-night at 8 o'clock.

REMEMBER the entertainment to-night under the auspices of the Y. M. I. A. in St. James' Hall. The admission fee is only 15 cents, and the programme is a good one.

THE MARKET.—To-day's market was fairly well attended and supplied. Business throughout was lively, but no change was noted, except in pork, which sold at from 5½ to 6 cents, and of which there was a good supply.

ACCIDENT.—This forenoon, while Robert Mutlow, butcher, of Vernon River, was sawing meat in the Market Building, the saw accidentally slipped and caught his thumb, cutting about half an inch off the top.

CONDUCTOR MCKAY.—The basement of the Methodist Church was again filled last evening, and a large after-meeting was held. The meetings are being well sustained. Meeting again to-night at 7.30; prayer meeting at 7. Don't fail to attend. Everybody made welcome.

REASSURING NEWS.—It is pleasing to hear that the first reports received concerning the injuries sustained by Mr. James McKie, engineer of the steamer Curlew, were exaggerated. Later advices state that he expects to be able to resume work in a few days.

ST. PETER'S CATHEDRAL.—Ash Wednesday: Holy Communion, 7.45 a. m.; Matins, 9 a. m.; Holy Communion and Communion Service, 11 a. m.; Children's Service, 4 p. m.; Litany, 5 p. m.; Evensong and Sermon, 7.30 p. m. Thursday: Meditation, 5 p. m.

METHODISTIC.—At the meeting of Methodist preachers in the First Methodist Church yesterday, it was decided that a Sabbath School convention be held at York on Wednesday, March 21st, and a committee was appointed to prepare a suitable programme for the occasion.

WORTH SEEING.—Messrs. Johnson & Johnson, the well-known druggists, have issued a neatly printed and tastefully arranged advertising card. The card contains two very good likenesses of the Messrs. Johnson, as well as appropriate quotations from standard poets.

LITERARY AND SCIENTIFIC SOCIETY.—Mr. Bulman, C. E., of the Gulnare Survey staff, will give the next address before the Literary and Scientific Society on Friday evening. Subject, "Motion and Energy." Mr. Bulman is eminently capable, and a good address may be expected.

AGAINST PRIZE FIGHTERS.—A Boston despatch says: Spalding of Cambridge, introduced a bill in the House to prevent the exhibition of prize fighters. It provides that participation of any prize fighters in any performance or show in any theatre shall in itself make void the license of that theatre.

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH.—Lenten services: The following services will be held in St. Paul's Church during the season of Lent: Wednesday morning at 11, morning prayer and litany. Wednesday evening at 7.30 evening service (shortened) and address. Friday evening at 5, litany and address. During Passion Week daily service at 11 a. m.

HOME AGAIN.—The Moncton Transcript says: Mr. P. S. Brown, the well-known horseman and hotel-keeper, of Charlottetown, P. E. I., was at the Park Hotel last night en route home from Toronto, where he went three months ago with his trotting horse Parnell. In the race on the ice at that place Parnell won the 2.30 race in three straight heats, and also trotted an exhibition half mile in 1.11. Shortly after the race the animal was taken ill, and is still in Toronto under the care of a skilful veterinary. Mr. Brown went home this morning.

A GREAT FALLING OFF.—Statistics published by the American Iron and Steel Association show that the iron trade in the United States during the latter half of 1893 fell off in an alarming fashion. On June 30th, 1893, there were 226 furnaces in blast; on December 31st, 137. The output of pig iron fell from 4,462,918 tons in the first half of the year to 2,561,584 in the second, and of steel rails from 704,240 tons to 332,113. Prices were lower than at any period during the last twenty years. These hard facts cover an amount of suffering and monetary loss not easily conceived.

BELGIAN IMMIGRATION.—Rev. Father Willem, the Belgian priest, who is now here on his way to Belgium, is arranging to have the testimony of a number of Belgian settlers in Manitoba printed in circular form, so that it may assist him in the work of immigration in his native country. He anticipates being able to send to Manitoba and the Northwest a large number of settlers next season. It was mainly through Father Willem's efforts that the Belgian settlement of Bruxelles, Manitoba, was built up and made prosperous as it is to-day.—Moncton Times.

A DENIAL.

To the Editor of the Patriot:

SIR,—In your issue of yesterday you say:

"Senator Ferguson may say that he was not trying to organize a political ticket for the several wards, but he will hardly deny that he exerted his influence to get Mr. Hogan to run again for Ward 1 and to obtain Mr. Alexander Horne's consent to contest Ward 5 along with Mr. McKay."

I do most emphatically deny the truth of these statements. I have not communicated either directly or indirectly with Messrs. Horne or Hogan on the subject, nor have I discussed with any person the formation of tickets for any of the wards of Charlottetown at the approaching civic election. I am yours,

D. FERGUSON.

THE LIQUOR TRADE.

SIR,—Business seems to be dull in the liquor trade just at present. A stroll around town last night revealed the rather astonishing fact that the saloons at that time were without customers—in only one instance was a man observed taking a drink. The liquor store opposite the Catholic Chapel appears to have closed up as the blinds have been down for several days and the door padlocked.

OBSERVER.

PERSONAL.

We regret to hear that Mr. Malcolm McNeill, of West River, is seriously ill.

Captain Malcolm Macdonald, Georgetown is registered at Hotel Davies to-day.

George W. Childs, the well-known Philadelphia publisher, died on Saturday morning. A good man has gone to his reward.

Mr. D. A. Starr, of Montreal, representative of the Royal Electric Company, was in the city yesterday, and left last night for Montreal.—St. John Telegraph.

Miss Harvie, teacher of the West End School, was presented with a purse of money in recognition of the good work done by her in the school during many years. The purse came from a number of friends.

The Patriot reports that Captain Donald McDougall, of the steamer Southport, "has successfully passed his examination and received his certificate of service as master of inland and coasting vessels, from the Marine Department, Ottawa." THE EXAMINER joins in the congratulations.

OFF FOR ENGLAND.—Messrs. James Paton and William W. Stanley leave for Georgetown this afternoon en route to the old country to buy new goods for their respective firms. Mr. Samuel A. McLeod, of Moore & McLeod, leaves to-morrow night on a similar mission. He will cross at the Capes. Mr. Arthur W. Weeks, of W. A. Weeks & Co., left last evening.

MOURNFUL EVENT.—The unexpected departure of a sharp Yankee cruiser has caused discomfiture on the part of some of Charlottetown's merchants and others. Most of the spoils were, however, left behind the slippery visitor, who was last seen at the Capes scudding before the wind under close reefed topsails.

BIBLE READINGS.—A Bible reading will be given every afternoon this week at 3 o'clock by Evangelist McKay in the Methodist Parlor. The readings are highly appreciated by those who attend. They are free and open to all.

Asthma Sufferers.

Who have in vain tried every other means of relief should try "Schiffman's Asthma Cure." No waiting for results. Its action is immediate, direct and certain, as a single trial proves. Send to Dr. Schiffman, St. Paul, Minn., for a free trial package, but ask your druggist first.

MISSIONARY CONVENTION.—Through the kindness of Mr. Unsworth, delegates and visitors to the missionary convention to be held in the city, Feb. 21, can do so for one first-class fare. Tickets will be issued from all stations, Feb. 20th and 21st, good to return until Saturday 24th. Certificates of attendance signed by the Secretary of the Convention must be presented on return. 3i d&w
