NEW EVENTS Chapter 63

Events settled down to the usual routine—a rapid routine, to be sure, for thing went fast whenever Gloria Gates happened to be. That is, Gloria rose early breakfasted from a tray on the tea table in her living room, skimmed through half a dozen papers and magazines, and through the morning mail.

Then she was off for her office always trimly clad in a tallory suit and always with the smartest hat she could buy or design. This was usually a toque of some vivid color, for Gloria could not completely subdue herself when ang dressed.

Pan who had been up early enough to have Frankie dressed, and breakfasted was left alone as mistress of the flat. She adored planning dainty little dinners for the occasions when Gloria dined at home. She helped make cakes and salads if there was to be a tiny dinner party. She planned the work and ordered the day's supplies, taking Frankie along for his morning walk while she stopped for lower prices.

Then she answered as much of Gloria's correspondence as she could, put in a pile the letters Gloria herself had to do, and listed her future engagements. Frankie had his lunch and was forced into a semblance of a nap—the "nap" usually consisted in the child lying on the couch with a book.

After that he was free to play and Pan to do as she wished. She kept Gloria's dresses mended, sent her to the cleaners, mended her shoes. She did a little sewing for herself sometimes looking after details of Gloria's business, or read or went to concerts. It was possible to get student's tickets for a quarter and half a dollar and she cheerfully climbed unnumbered flights of steps to the top of the concert hall to hear good music.

Excitement starts when you come home," she said one afternoon. "We live like quiet nuns until you call hello from the door."

"My noisy self" Gloria laughed apologetically. So the rest of the winter passed and the Spring after what seemed like a dozen false starts, actually settled down to its business of warm sunshine and budding trees.

"I suppose I should be going home," Pan said one day while they were waiting for the inevitable tea guests. "Aunt Maude wrote that they were moving to the farm—and Gladys isn't so well now, you know."

"No, I suppose not with a baby expected. She's to live there isn't she?" "Yes, until fall. My old bedroom is to be the nursery. Aunt Maude said I could have father's and father, if he comes back, could have one of the garret rooms."

"Kind of Aunt Maude!" Gloria laughed. "Do you want to go back Pan?" Pan did not answer, she could.

YOUNG MOTHER NOW STRONG

Her Mother's Faithin Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound led her to try it

Kenosha, Wisconsin—"I cannot say enough in praise of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. My mother had great faith in it as she had taken so much of it and when I had trouble after my baby was born she gave it to me. It helped me so much more than anything else had done that I advise all women with female trouble to give it a fair trial and I am sure they will feel as I do about it.—Mrs. FRID. P. HANSEN, 552 Symonds St., Kenosha, Wisconsin. A medicine that has been in use nearly fifty years and that receives the praise and commendation of mothers and grandmothers is worth your consideration.

If you are suffering from troubles that sometimes follow child-birth bear in mind that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a woman's medicine. It is especially adapted to correct such troubles. A medicine we publish ought to convince you; ask some of your women friends or neighbors—they know its worth. You will, too, if you give it a fair trial.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. A. G. MacKay. New London and the surrounding communities were very much shocked by the death of Mrs. Andrew Graham MacKay of the Fountain Road on June 6th, 1922, following so suddenly the death of her husband, who passed away on Dec. 13th, 1921. Mrs. MacKay, who was Miss Janie Wares of Wheatley River has not been in robust health for a number of years but was able to go about her work and was always cheerful and uncomplaining, so that friends and neighbors did not realize till about three weeks before her death that she was in the grip of a fatal and insidious disease, which quickly terminated her life at the age of 68 years. Her last days were devoted to her sisters and nieces in cheerful attendance and her passing was peaceful and happy.

She leaves to mourn her niece, Miss Margaret Stevenson who lived with her from early childhood, two brothers Robert and John Wares of Wheatley River and four sisters, Annie, Mrs. James B. Anderson, Barnaby Lake, B. C.; Miss Margaret of Waltham, Mass.; Catherine, Mrs. Charles A. Stevenson of New Glasgow, P. E. I.; and Mary, Mrs. James Simpson, Bay View, P. E. I.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. John Murchison of Malpeque. Mrs. MacKay's nephew by marriage, assisted by Rev. John Stirling of Cavendish and Rev. W. I. Green of Trinidad, B. W. I. Interment took place in the New London cemetery.

MRS. THEODORE RICHARD. It is with the utmost regret that the residents of Mont Carmel and vicinity learned of the sad and timely death of Mrs. Theodore Richard which occurred on June 2nd. Having been in feeble health for some time and although no hope was entertained for her recovery, still the sad news of her death came as a shock to her numerous friends and relatives.

All that loving care and tender nursing could do proved of no avail. The late Mrs. Theodore Richard (nee Louise Gallant was daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Gallant of that place. She was 24 years of age and had been married only 2 years and 7 months. All during her illness she bore her sufferings with such patient resignation which won all hearts to her.

Several times during her illness she was visited by her beloved pastor, Rev. P. P. Arsenault, who also conducted the funeral service which was held on June 4th. The pall bearers were: Augustine Richard, John Richard, Honore
