COLONIAL LEGISLATURE.

HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY.

UNION OF THE COLONIES.

THURSDAY, March 30.

Hon. Mr. KELLY.—Mr. Speaker, in rising to address you on this all-important subject of Confederation with Canada and the Lower Provinces, I find few arguments adduced in favour of it which have not been ably confuted by hon. members already. Sorry I am to see as its advocates hon. members in this House of whose talents and position in any other cause our Island might justly feel proud. I wish, sir, to record my determined opposition to Confederation with Canada or with the Lower Provinces in any shape or on any terms. I feel convinced that any change in our constitution of the nature contemplated, would not operate beneficially to us. We are told that unless we surrender our separate constitution, and place ourselves under the protection of the Canadian Legislature and the Canadian Confederacy, we shall be overrun by, or absorbed into the United States. I have no fear, sir, that the Government of the Stars and Stripes will interfere with us if we do not interfere with them, of which there is little prospect. I am glad to hear that New Brunswick has condemned the scheme—that Nova Scotia does not wish it, and if report speaks truly, Newfoundland is not likely to adopt it—and it has been said that a majority of the people of Canada are themselves opposed to it. But I regret to hear some hon. members of this House, while giving their opposition to the measure declare their willingness to adopt it if more favorable terms could be obtained for the Island. I have no doubt, sir, that the Canadian diplomatists, having set their minds upon effecting their object, would, rather than fail in their pet scheme, yield whatever concessions might be required of them, knowing that their preponderance in the United Legislature would enable them to make whatever alterations in the terms they pleased, and that the mockery of a parliament then left us would render us powerless to prevent them, or even to complain. The hon. and gallant Colonel, the member for Belfast, told us, a few evenings ago, that in agitating for a repeal of the Union between England and Ireland, the late Daniel O'Connell would have gladly accepted a restoration to College Green of an Irish Parliament similar in its constitution to that proposed for us at the Quebec Conference. The hon. member labors under a sad mistake. Sorry would that great man have been to have accepted for his country a Legislature less independent than that which she possessed before it was traitorously sold from her by a pack of wretches elected to the last Parliament of that ill-fated nation through the influence of Pitt, Cornwallis, and Castlereagh. A few of the names of those men I will read to you from a list which I hold in my hand, and although the descendants of some of them may retain the titles so villainously obtained, their names and races will be held in execration by Irishmen over the world to the end of time. The present question forcibly reminds me of the lament of your gifted countryman, Mr. Speaker, when he refers to the sad time

"When once beneath a monarch's feet
Sat Legislation's sovereign powers."

We have, Sir, sovereign legislative powers, whereby we can make our own laws and direct the application of our own monies among our own people at our own pleasure, and I hope the day is far distant when this beautiful Building shall be converted into a Barrack or a Bank, or ourselves deprived of the Constitutional privileges which we have so long enjoyed under the guarantee of the Imperial Government. The following list contains the names of some of the parties who sold Ireland, and the prices at which they consented to barter away the constitution of their country:—Lord Shannon, £45,000, Lord Loftus, £45,000, Bingham, a Peerage, (Lord Clanmorris) and £23,000. Joseph Blake, a peerage, (Lord Wallscourt.) James G. Blackwood, a Peerage, (Lord Dufferin.) Joseph Caffe, a Peerage, (Lord Tyrawley.) Richard Hare, a Peerage, (Lord Ennismore.) John Hutchinson, a Peerage and a Regiment, (Lord Hutchinson.) Wm. Handcock, a Peerage, (Lord Athlone.) Charles Coote, a Peerage, (Lord Castlecoote, since extinct.) Lodge Morris, a Peerage. William Newcomen, a Peerage for his wife. John Blaquiere, a Peerage, (Lord DeBlaquiere.) G. Cradock, a Peerage, (Lord Howden.) John Longfield, a Peerage, (Lord Longueville.) Wm. Sandford, a Peerage, (Lord Mt. Sandford.) Richard French, a Peerage, (Lord Ashtown.) John Stewart, a Lawyer, a Peerage, and a Judgeship, (Lord Clonmel.) Arthur Galbraith, an Attorney, a Baronetcy. Hercules Langrishe, a Baronetcy and £15,000. George Jocelyn, his brother made a Bishop, (Clogher.) Henry Alexander, his brother made a Bishop. John Bagwell, his son made a Dean. John Fitzgibbon, son of an obscure Roman Lawyer, made Lord Chancellor and Earl of Clare, an arrogant, cruel, and overbearing tyrant. Isaac Corry, Chancellor of the Exchequer. John Toler, made L. C. Justice and a Peer, (the brutal Norbury.) Luke Fox, a Judge of the Common Pleas. Charles Osborne, Judge of the King's Bench. St. John Daly, Judge of the Common Pleas. Robert Johnston, Judge of the K. B. Wm. Johnston, a Baron of the Exchequer. James McClelland, Baron of the Exchequer. Wm. Smith, a Baron of the Exchequer. R. Torrens, a Judge of the King's Bench. W. Vandeleur, a Judge of the Common Pleas. The lowest of the foregoing at a salary of £3,300 a year, with over 20 county Judges at £600 a year. In addition to the foregoing, I might give the names of over twenty-five of the Renegades who were made Colonels in His Majesty's service, among whom is the name of the aforesaid Charles Coote to a Regiment taken from Colonel Warburton, the grandfather, I believe, of our own hon. member of that name from Lot 11, and who, to his lasting honor be it remembered, "Castlereagh" could not purchase.

Mr. CONROY.—Sir, I have considerable diffidence in addressing you on the subject before the House, in consequence of the very long and eloquent speeches we have listened to for the last three nights; but I believe every gentleman in the House is expected to state his opinions on the matter before us. I do not hesitate to say that I am decidedly opposed to the contemplated Union. Two questions have occupied the most prominent part in the debate—Finance and Glory. I do not think that any person can be found so simple as to believe that the terms offered can be financially beneficial to us. We give up our present revenue for little more than half its amount. The sum we are to receive is not to increase with our increasing population. While we give to strangers the power to raise our duties of impost and excise to any amount they choose, we have no guarantee but that in a few years, if we entered this famous Confederation, they would be raised to three times the amount they are at present. As the wants of the Confederacy would require, taxation would be increased. And what control or management are we to have in our affairs? Having but five representatives in a parliament composed of one hundred and ninety-four members, we might as well have none at all. But it is said that we need not fear, that taxation will be uniform, and when they tax us they also tax themselves in like manner. But, Sir, when I observe how unwilling we have been to increase our tariff in a trifling way, for the purpose of raising an amount which we absolutely required, I cannot see how we can agree to place such a power in the hands of people who are so reckless in matters of taxation affecting themselves; and as to the glory part of the scheme, as it is called, I have no sympathy with soldiering unless it is required, nor would I agree to have our Militia sent to Canada; they had better stay at home and protect their own country; and if, as it is said, the battle must be fought in Canada, all the better for us. With the protection and support of England we need not fear; but if England is to abandon us, as some say she will, and the United States should make war on us, the more quietly we submit the better. That we could, by entering into the proposed Confederation, successfully resist such a power is simply absurd. Sir, I have no fear that the Americans would come here to cut our throats or do us any serious injury. We have never done them wrong, they have no revenge to gratify: and when I say this I must be understood as not expressing disloyal sentiments, for have I not read of English statesmen, even in Parliament, stating that their protecting these Colonies cost them more than they were worth, and the sooner we were left to ourselves the better, showing their loyalty to us to be a matter of pounds, shillings and pence. So that if we are to be abandoned by the Mother Country, we should be permitted to look for protection in the place most beneficial to ourselves. And, Sir, I have heard it discussed within the last few days by men of standing in this city, whether it would not now be more beneficial to this Island to enter into the great American Union than remain as she now is. And throughout the country—more particularly among the tenantry—the fear of American invasion is not as general as might be fancied. They say that whoever comes they cannot be worse off than they are at present, and, at all events, it will completely settle the Land Question. They say they have nothing to fight for, that they have little interest in the soil, that they have to procure a miserable livelihood by daily toil, that wherever they go they can earn a subsistence as easily as they do on this Island. And this being so, can you expect people so situated to risk their lives in defending the country? I will now quote from a respectable newspaper published in Montreal, wherein, reviewing a speech of the Hon. T. D. McGee, made in defence of the Irish residing in Canada from the charge of Fenianism, the editor goes on to say that he fully coincides with Mr. McGee that Irishmen in Canada have no sympathy with Fenianism, that they, beyond any other people, left their country in consequence of the land tenure, but in Canada they possessed all the advantages they sighed for in Ireland. The land they tilled was their own in freehold, and they would fight for its possession against all comers. This is what I want for our people; give them their land in freehold, give them an interest in the country, without which no man can be truly loyal, and you will not want for Volunteers or Militia here to resist invasion. I have read that the Canadian Delegates, in excusing themselves for agreeing to such an outlay as would be caused by building the intercolonial railroad, said that they had to do so, as the Delegates from Nova Scotia and New Brunswick would have nothing to do with them before they agreed to build that road. And had our Delegates no public work, the performance of which they might urge should be agreed on before we entered into any terms? Why did they not press the extinction of the rental system as a work of necessity, and insist on receiving the means necessary for abolishing it? We have heard with what small courtesy the Leader of the Opposition was treated by the Delegates when he proposed a resolution asking for a sum to purchase the claims of the proprietors. Some of the Canadian Delegates stated, I believe, when in Charlottetown, that the amount asked for by the Leader of the Opposition would be given, but the proposal was afterwards ridiculed. Sir, I want to say that the money could not have been better laid out; it would have relieved this Island from a difficulty, social and political, which has been the great grievance of this country for the last fifty years, and has kept the country periodically in a state bordering on rebellion up to the present time. The amount asked would be scarcely distinguishable in the gross total, for the debt of Canada is counted by millions, and this, if we enter into the proposed Confederation, we must assist in paying. But we will have nothing to do with this Union. We can, by increasing our taxation for a few years, make every man in the Island a freeholder. Nor do I think the country would be displeased at our doing so, as it would be for the general advantage. I have spoken much longer than I intended, and will conclude by stating that I will vote for the amendment.

Hon. Mr. DAVIES.—Mr. Speaker, the hon. member from Tignish (Mr. Conroy) has stated that unless we continue to enjoy British protection, we shall be absorbed into the United States. I would be sorry that we should become a part of a country, the public debt of which, created within about four yerrs, is already no less than three billions, or, in other words, three thousand millions of dollars. I am not apprehensive of such an event, for the British Government, under the pressure of public opinion in Great Britain, has declared we are willing to do our share in assisting your reasonable efforts to defend yourselves. I agree with those hon. members who have argued that Confederation involves increased taxation. But, sir, we cannot remain long in our present isolated condition. Confederation or absorption into the States are two alternatives presented to us. I should prefer to see this Island made, if possible, a free port, and thus become a vast centre of commerce. As to the financial terms offered to us by the delegates at the Quebec Conference, I do not think that justice has been dealt out to us. We should receive half a million of dollars, for it must be borne in mind that for various reasons which have been referred to in this debate, we will not receive benefits proportionate to those conferred on the other Colonies. In the present aspect of the matter, I would give a preference to a Federal Union with Great Britain to absorption or confederation. It has been objected by the hon. members, Messrs. Sinclair and Howlan, that the delegation to Canada was unauthorized by the Legislature. Why, sir, the Governments of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick did not convene their respective legislatures to sanction their delegations. As to the argument that the delegates exceeded their powers when they framed a constitution, they would be laughed at if they had not done so. We are not bound to accept it, and it is unfair to find fault with them on that account.

Convincing Testimony.

REV. C. A. BUCKBEE, Assistant Treasurer American Bible Union, N. Y. City, writes: "I very cheerfully add my testimony to that of numerous friends to the great value of Mrs. S. A. Allen's World's Hair Restorer and Zylobalsamum."

REV. WM. CUTTER, N. Y. City: "My hair is changed to its natural color, and growing on bald spot."

REV. J. H. CORNELL, N. Y. City: "I procured it for a relative. The falling of the hair stopped, and restored it from being grey to its natural and beautiful color."

REV. J. WEST, Brooklyn, L. I.: "I will testify to their value in the most liberal sense. They have restored my hair where it was bald, and, where grey, to its original color."

REV. A. WEBSTER, Boston, Mass: "I have used them with great effect. I am now neither bald nor grey. My hair was dry and brittle; it is now soft as in youth."

REV. H V. DEGEN, Boston, Mass: "That they promote the growth of the hair where baldness is, I have the evidence of my own eyes."

SELF-PRESERVATION.

PRICE WITH ENGRAVINGS AND CASES, 1s. 6D., BY POST, 3s. CURRENCY.

SELF-PRESERVATION: A popular Essay on Nervous and Physical Debility, resulting from injurious habits contracted in youth, or excesses in maturity, which, by prematurely exhausting the functions of manhood, destroy the happiness of Married Life, or prevent the fulfilment of engagements that constitute the most cherished objects of existence.

By Dr. LA'MERT, 37 Bedford Square, London, Licentiate of the Royal College of Physicians of Edinburgh; Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, England, &c.

The above work contains most useful and interesting information on the physiological changes which occur in the Reproductive System during the periods of youth, puberty, and manhood; and on the due attainment of that degree of functional vigour upon which the hopes of posterity depend. It also points out how all the attributes of manhood can be preserved to an advanced period of life, how they are lost, and how they can be recovered. It is free from the gross exaggerations, alarming descriptions, and dangerous remedies so generally resorted to by persons, who, practising with false medical qualifications, inflict most serious injuries, and render judicious treatment frequently abortive.

The author is the only legally qualified practitioner whose name stands on the 'Medical Register,' (the sole test of medical qualification) who has been exclusively engaged for a series of years in the treatment of the various functional disorders of the nervous and reproductive system, which, owing to the great discoveries of modern science, are rendered subservient to a rational, simple and easy mode of treatment.

At home for consultation daily from ten till two, and from six till eight, either personally or by letter—37 Bedford Square, London, England.

Patients residing in the Colonies can be successfully treated by correspondence, and remedies can be forwarded in secresy and safety to any address.

Judson's Pills!

THE NEW FRENCH REMEDY.

By Royal Letters Patent, under the special sanction of Her Majesty's Government, and the Chiefs of the Faculte de France.

THERAPION:—or CURE OF CURES, This successful and highly popular medicament, as employed in the continental hospitals by Rostan, Jobert, Velpeau, and others, combines all the desiderata to be sought in a medicine of the kind, and surpasses everything hitherto employed. Devoid of taste, odour, and appearance of medicine, it can be left or carried anywhere, and taken from time to time without exciting suspicion Each package contains full instructions for every case.

THERAPION, No. 1, in three days only removes gonnorrhœ, gleet and all discharges, effectually superseding injections, the use of which does irreparable harm by laying the foundation of stricture and other serious diseases. In dysentery, piles, irritation of the bowelower, cough, bronchitis, asthma, and some of the more trying complaints of this kind, it will be found astonishingly efficacious, affording prompt relief, where other well-tried remedies have been powerless.

THERAPION, No. 2, for syphilis, disease of fhe bones, sore throat, threatened destruction of the nose and palate; impurity of blood, scurvy, pimples, spots, blotches, and all diseases for which it has been too much a fashion to employ mercury, sarsaparilla, &c., to the destruction of the sufferer's teeth; and ruin of health. Under this medicine every vestige of disease rapidly disappears; and the skin assumes the pleasing softness of infancy.

THERAPION, No. 3, for relaxation, spermatorrhœa, and all the distressing consequences arising from early abuse, excess, residence in hot, unhealthy climates, &c. It possesses surprising power in restoring strength and vigour to the debilitated. To those who are prevented entering the marriage state by the consequences of early error, it will render essential aid by subduing all disqualifications; and restoring the lost tone to the system. Therapion may be procured at 11s, and 33s per package, through all medicine vendors, or in £5 packages for foreign shipment, direct from London only, by which £1 12s are saved; and £10 packages for the more inveterate cases, by which a still greater saving is effected. In ordering the above, the purchaser should state which of the three numbers he requires.

HER MAJESTY'S HON. COMMISSIONERS have graciously permitted the Governmentstamp, bearing the word "Therapion" in white letters, to be attached to each package; thus insuring the public against fraudulent imitations, and securing to the proprietor the sole right of supply throughout her dominions; and any infringement of which they will prosecute with the utmost severity.

AGENTS FOR ENGLAND, Thomas & Co., 7, Upper St. Martin's-lane, London; Raimes & Co., Liverpool; Apothecaries Comp., Glasgow; Ferris & Co., Bristol; Cornish & Co., Plymouth; Rowe, Devenport; Randall & Co., Southampton; and obtainable through all medicine vendors in the known world, or in case of difficulty, by enclosing a draft or order for £5 or £10, according to the nature of the case, payable in London to Messrs. Thomas & Co., as above, a large package will be sent by return mail, carefully secured from observation or accident.

The Cause and Cure of Premature Decline.

Sold by all the Agents for Dr. De Roos' Medicines, or sent post free, secure from observations direct from the Author, for 2s 6d.

THE MEDICAL ADVISER on the modern treatment of mental and physical incapacity, syphilis, stricture, &c.; with unfailing rules and prescriptions for the speedy cure, by very simple means, of all the more common diseases and supposed incurable maladies of the sexual system. By Dr. W. DE ROOS, M. D, &c, of the Ecole de Medicine, Paris.

REVIEWS AND NOTICES.

"The MEDICAL ADVISER, by WALTER DE ROOS, M. D., for the class of diseases upon which it treats is undoubtedly the best and most soundly practical book which has come under our notice The author is a man of most enlarged experience." —North of England Teegraph, June 29th, 1861.

"To those who contemplate marriage its perusal is especially recommended.—Bap. Mag.——"The knowledge it imparts must come some time, and happy they who do not possess it too late."—Politician.——"Cure is certain in every curable case, and few indeed are they which are not so."—Med. Review.——"It is calculated to effect a complete revolution in the treatment of these complaints."—Med. Gaz.——"Simple and inexpensive, every sufferer may cure himself speedily, privately, and at the least possible cost."—Scalpel.

From long practical observation of the treatment pursued in the most famous Institutions of this country and the continent, for those diseases referred to in the above work, the Proprietor has had somewhat unusual facilities for acquiring that uniform success which has hitherto characterized his practice, in which the distressing consequences resulting from the injurious employment of mercury, capivi, sarsaparilla, and similar dangerous medicines are entirely obviated. Lasting benefit in these cases can only be reasonably expected at the hands of those who devote their chief attention to such diseases; and to such only can confidence be safely extended. Dr. De R. refers with pride to the numbers he has been instrumental in restoring to health and happiness, whilst to all who need such aid he offers every assurance of speedy restoration.

FOREIGN RESIDENTS can be successfully treated by correspondence, on sending the detail of their cases, with a Bank note or Bill on a London house for £5 or £10, in order that a package of medicines to meet the exigencies of the case, may be sent out by next mail, thus avoiding the protracted suffering and unnecessary loss of valuable time, which must otherwise occur.

DR. DE ROOS' GUTTÆ VITÆ or LIFE DROPS; Protected by Royal Letters Patent of England; Seals of the Faculte de France; Royal College of Prussia, &c., have in numberless instances proved their superiority over every other advertised remedy for Spermatorrhœa, languor, lassitude, depression of spirits, irritability, anger, excitement, needless fear, distaste and incapacity for society, study or business; indigestion, pains in the side, palpitation of the heart, giddiness, noises in the head, impotency, impediments to marriage, &c This medicine strengthens the vitality of the whole system, gives energy to the muscles and nerves, thus speedily removes nervous complaints, renovates the impaired powers of life, and invigorates the most shattered constitution. For skin eruptions, sore throat, pains in the bones, and all those diseases in which mercury, sarsaparilla, &c. are too often employed in vain, to the serious detriment of health, its surprising efficacy has only to be tested to be appreciated.

As these complaints if neglected become chronic or incurable, sufferers will do well before they waste valuable time in seeking aid from instruments, and other absurdities professing to supersede medicines, to make fair trial of a remedy, which concocted on unerring scientific principles, cannot fail, and may be carried about the person, or left upon the toilet table, without exciting a suspicion of its nature. Price, 11s, and four times the quantity at 33s per bottle. The £5 packages containing twelve 11s quantities, by which a saving of £1 12s is effected, will be sent from 25, Bedford Place, only on receipt of the amount per draft on a London house or otherwise.

PAINS IN THE BACK, GRAVEL, LUMBAGO, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, DISEASE OF THE KIDNEYS, BLADDER, &c. DR. DE ROOS' COMPOUND RENAL PILLS are a most safe and speedy Remedy for the above dangerous complaints. Discharges and Diseases of the Urinary Organs generally, which too frequently harass the sufferer over the best years of life, and end only in an agonizing death. They agree with the most delicate stomach, and in three days effect a cure when capivi, cubebs, &c., have utterly failed. 2s 9d., 4s. 6d., 11s, and 33s. per box. The superiority of these celebrated medicines over everything of the kind, is universally acknowledged, and the extraordinary demand for them without precedent.

Many there are, who from natural diffidence, or fear of discovery, would silently bear their afflictions rather than apply for aid to those from whom they may reasonably expect relief. With the aboveremedies the sufferer may without the knowledge of a second person, cure himself speedily, privately, and at the least possible expense.

Sold wholesale by Barclay & Son, 95 Farringdont street, London; Agents in North America—Langley & Johnson, Hollis-street, Halifax, Nova Scotia; W. R. Watson, Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island; E Ward, Esq., News Office, Sydney, Cape Breton; H. J. Parker, (late Palmer & Co.) Kingston, Canada West; Strickland & Co., Mobile; M. F. Decouge and Edward Guillot, New Orleans; Fongera, New York; Musson & Co., Quebec; C. A. & J Langley, Yates Street, San Francisco; Leportier, Mexico; Mr. McMurdo, Druggist, and J. McCoubrey, Esq., St. John's, Newfoundland; Thomas Walker & Sons, St. John, New Brunswick; Lyman & Co, Toronto; Lyman & Co., Savage & Co, Montreal; of whom also may be had "THE MEDICAL ADVISER," or should difficulty arise in procuring any of the above, enclose the amount by draft or otherwise, to 25 Bedford Place, Bloomsbury Square, London, W. C, and they will be sent securely packed per return.

CAUTION.—Sufferers should guard against the recommendation of useless imitations by dishonest vendors, who thereby obtain a larger profit. The genuine have the words "WALTER DE ROOS, LONDON," printed in white letters on the Government Stamp, BY ORDER OF HER MAJESTY'S HON. COMMISSIONERS, to imitate which is felony.

The Most Wonderful Pills in the World.

ARE DR. DE ROOS' PILULÆ VITÆ or LIFE PILLS. All sufferers from general nervousness, debility, low spirits, sleeplessness, harrassing dreams, unnecessary fears, mental irritability, failure of the mental and bodily powers, weakness of the nerves, noises in the head, giddiness, indigestion, rheumatism, pains in the back, and other symptoms of chronic disease, will hail with joy the discovery of Dr. De Roos' Life Pills, that speedily and almost magically remove pain and disease of whatsoever nature, restore cheerfulness of spirit and vigor to the mind, and strengthens all the organs on which health and life depend. They do not contain a particle of mercury, but are purely vegetable. They act mildly on the bowels, without pain or griping, impart strength to the stomach, promote a healthy action of the liver, thus preventing, or when when present curing the jaundice and dropsy, clearing the skin, removing sallowness and pimples, purifying the blood, and marvellously invigorating the whole system. For elderly people or when an occasional aperient is required, nothing can be better adapted. Owing to the great and increasing demand for these pills, and in order to protect the public from fraudulent imitations, Her Majesty's Commissioners have graciously permitted the proprietor to have his name "WALTER DE ROOS, LONDON," impressed upon the government stamp affixed to each box. Sold by all medicine vendors in the world; price 2s. 9d., 4s. 6d., 11s., and 33s. per box.

"As a Family Pill, they are invaluable."—Dundee Times. "Persons of full habit should never be without them."—Surrey Telegraph. "For Females they are almost a necessity."—Ladies' Journal. "To Mothers—For children of all ages they are the simplest and best medicine that can be given."—Vide Dr. Smith's Report.

[EXTRACTS FROM NEWSPAPERS.]

On reference to a return made to Parliament, and ordered by the House of Commons to be printed 7th June, 1861, it will be seen that the increase of Duty for the year, paid by the "QUEEN," was £2561, being upwards of £1000 more than paid by any other office ever yet established in this City.

[From Gore's General Advertiser, Oct. 24, 1861.]

"Indeed, we believe that we are perfectly justified in saying that no other Company, within the same period, ever attained so large an income in either the Fire or Life Departments as the Queen Insurance Company. In making this statement, we make no exception even in favor of our older local companies, namely, the Liverpool and London, the Royal, and the Lancashire Insurance Companies."

[From the Civil Service Gazette, Nov. 2, 1861.]

"Among these important institutions stands eminent for its solidity, as well as for its success, the Queen Insurance Company," which last week held its annual meeting of proprietors in Liverpool. A reference to the ample report in another page will fully satisfy every reader of the signal progress made by this association since its foundation. Such success is, indeed, rarely attained, and it attests at once the excellence of its management, and the public confidence in its constitution."

[From the Liverpool Mercury, Nov. 2, 1861.]

"It must be gratifying to the public generally, and especially to the proprietors, to find that its income during the past, three years has increased at the rate of £20,000 per annum. We believe that no other Company, within the same short period, ever attained so large an increase either in the Fire or Life Department. This speaks highly for the activity and zeal of the management, while the promptness with which all the claims, arising out of the late disastrous fire in London were met, testifies itto their financial ability and the care and prudence which marked the investment of these funds."
