THE DAILY EXAMINER.

AUGUST 17, 1892.

The Gladstone Government.

THE personel of Mr. Gladstone's new ministry is such as to reassure those who feared that, apart from Ireland, a very radical policy would be pursued. It was reported that Lord Rosebery had declined to accept the office of Foreign Secretary. Everyone interested in the continuance of a steady British foreign policy will be glad to learn that the report was not true. The presence in the cabinet of Lord Rosebery is also a guarantee that the objects of the Imperial Federation League will not be overlooked. The expectation that John Morely would be appointed Chief Secretary for Ireland has been met. There can, consequently, be be no doubt that Irish affairs will be carefully and ably administered and that the Irish Home Rule Bill will be dexterously handled in Parliament, even should the infirmities of age necessitate the absence of the Grand Old Man himself. A list of Cabinet officers which includes, besides the distinguished men already mentioned, Sir William Vernon Harcourt, as Chancellor of the Exchequer, Earl Spencer as First Lord of the Admiralty, H. Campbell Bannerman as Secretary of War, Sir Charles Russell as Attorney General, may well be regarded with satisfaction by the British public. Great questions of Home and Foreign policy—questions which will fully test the ability of the new administration—are at once to be dealt with. It will not be long ere the new Government may be judged by its record.

A Mistake Corrected.

OUR customs broker, Mr. Hodgson, has taken the trouble to show the fallacy of the supposition that the value of the eggs sent out of this Province is equal to that of the oats. This was hardly necessary—though the fallacy seems to have been supported by Mr. L. H. Davies, M. P. Mr. Davies must have used the word export in its strictest sense and not as generally understood. It is impossible to imagine that a man of Mr. Davies' intelligence and observation does not know that the bulk of our oats is now sent to the neighboring provinces—a result of the stimulus to manufactures and mining afforded by the operation of the National Policy—and is not accounted for at the Custom House.

—The Dominion Illustrated Monthly has been received. Its frontispiece is from the painting by Mr. Robert Harris, R. C. A.,—"Bass Fishing on the Chatesquay." Coming with it,too, is a large photo-engraving of the Honorable Oliver Mowat—a very good likeness. The History of a Magazine, by George Stewart, is illustrated by a good many well known faces, including those of Gilbert Murdoch, C. E., James Hannay, J. L. Stewart, D'Arcy McGee and others more or less distinguished in Canadian literature. Altogether the Dominion Illustrated reflects credit upon its publishers and the country.

Events at the Driving Park

And Exhibition Building

The Flower Show.

WHILE we cannot apply the term "large" to the exhibit of Flowers shown in the Exhibition Building today, on the occasion of the Flower Show held under the direction of the Driving Park Association, yet it cannot be said that the show is not a creditable one. The display looks dwarfed of course by being exhibited in such a large building, but a close examination of the different plants and groups of flowers will take one a good while to complete, and prove a most interesting study.

Without a doubt hundreds of people might have entered flowers for competition who did not. Nowhere can flowers—that is hardy and half hardy annuals—be grown with greater success than in our Island climate, while all the old hardy garden perennials and summer flowering bulbs can be easily grown and beautiful flowers procured. We are sure that as soon as the flower show becomes recognized as a regularly recurring annual event, the exhibition of flowers by Island lovers of floriculture will be one that cannot be surpassed by any Province in Canada.

Of the flowers shown, however, it is hard to say which deserve most mention. There was a magnificent display of lilies and foliage plants, comprising coleus, begonia rex, maidenhair and other ferns, asparagus plumosus, besides dracenas, &c., made by Mr. G. H. Haszard, but one could not fail to admire the collection of Island wild plants and flowers, so charmingly grouped together in picturesque disorder. These wild flowers of the Garden of the Gulf are a beautiful study in themselves.

Coming to the cultivated plants, we noticed particularly an enormous begonia rex, two immense hydrangeas, a large oleander, well in flower, a finely-grown tea rose, besides some very good fuschias. The show of geraniums was most disappointing, considering what a general favorite this well-known flower is and how easily it is grown. There was only one gloxinia that we could see, in a small pot, but it had two very pretty flowers. There were some cut blossoms of scabiosa of most beautiful varieties. Some double dahlias were most remarkably marked and quite a novelty. The hollyhocks, sweet peas, nasturtiums phlox and pansies were all very good though not very much variety was shown. Of gladioli some very well grown specimens wore shown, though there was not much variety in color. The carnations exhibited were not bad, but did not appear to be as well grown as might be.

It would not do to pass over the excellent specimens of tuberous begoni s, in fail flower, which attracted admiration from all. As to the boquets exhibited, some were good and some were not. A great mistake seems to be made in not using plenty of green when making up flowers into boquets, for there can be no comparison between bunches of flowers in which green is liberally used and in those composed entirely of blossoms.

There is a good display of small fruits, amongst which are some very large red currants. In particular we noticed a very large specimen of blackberry, displayed for greater effect on the top of a plate of red currants.

The Races.

THE races were called at 2 o'clock. The track was in excellent condition. The attendance of spectators was small. The officers of the track were:—

Judges—J. J. Davies, Charlottetown (starter); Mr. Jewett, St. John; James McLeod, Summerside.

Distance Judge—Philip I. McMahon, Charlottetown.

Timers—Geo. W. Hibbett, Georgetown; W. A. Brennan, Summerside.

Clerk—C. E. McKinnon, Charlottetown.

The first event on the programme was the race for yearlings. The starters were Brighton Boy, by All Right, C. Dorkendorff, North River; Hatasu, by Golden, Milford Farm, Charlottetown; Lucy Lee, by All Right, John Canning, Hope Rivhr; Edith L, by Brilliant, A. N. Large, Ch'town.

First Heat—They got a good send off on the first score, Edith L. having the pole. At the first turn Hatasu forged ahead, but broke, and was passed by Brighton Boy, with Edith L. third and Lucy Lee fourth. Before the quarter was reached Brighton Boy, who had settled down again passed Hatsu and took the lead which he held to the finish, trotting in excellent form. Hatau took second place, with Edith D third, and Lucy Lee fourth. Time, 1 31½.

The first heat of the three-minute class was next called. The starters were: Yellowbird, by Dean Swift, N Lee, Trenton, N S; Parnell, by Abdallah, P P Gillis, Ch'town; Birdie Pathen, by Royal Harry, Dr J T Jenkins, Upon Farm; Ilderim, by Olympus, P S Brown, Ch'town; Sim, by McMillan's Harry, W S McKie, Ch'town; Sam Slick, by Uncle Sim, Peter Carroll, Pictou, N S. They were sent off on the seventh score. Ilderin led at the start, but was soon passed by Sam Slick, who held the lead until just after passing the ¾ pole, when he was given the "go-by" Ilderim, who pressed him hard after passing the half. Ilderim maintained the lead to the finish with Sam second, Sam Slick third, Yellow Bird fourth, Birdie Pathen fifth, and Parnell sixth. Ilderim was set back to fourth place for running. No time given.

Second Heat—The second heat in the yearling race came next. The horses were sent off on the second score. Brighton Boy, who had the pole, took the lead at the start and maintained it to the finish, winning easily. Hatasu took second place, with Lucy Lee third and Edith L. fourth, all three pretty well bunched. Brighton Boy's time was 1.28, lowering the Maritime record 7 seconds.

Relief for St. John's.

Since furnishing my report the following donations were received and forwarded per Bonavista:

Capt John Aylward, 2 bags flour, Mrs Jas Fraser, Eldon, 1 parcel bedding.

Omitted before—Mrs Nicholson, Orwell, 1 bag flour.

Cash received—John Mullaly, Rollo Bay, $1; Allan McInnis, North Pinette, $1.

No smoker who has ever used the Myrtle Navy tobacco for, say a month, ever relinquishes it for any other brand. Its flavor is rich and full, and it never burns the tongue or parches the palate. It is, in fact, the ne plus ultra of smoking tobacco. ....

Written for The Examiner.

On the Dunk.

They tell of streams in lands afar,
Gliding through perfumed meads and vales,
Whose harshest murmur would not mar
The melody of nightingales;
In changing loveliness they run,
From shade to light of moon or sun.

I know none such, but well I know
A river cradled in the wild,
Whose waters foam, and wind, and flow
Just as befits a woodland child;
Its course by no stiff art was planned,
It follows nature's guiding hand.

It runs and frets the high red bank,
It eddies 'neath the forest trees,
It laps the meadow grasses rank,
And round grey boulders foams and seethes,
But curbs, for short repose, its flood,
Where erst the beaver's village stood.

I never saw it when in wrath
It breaks the tyrant winter's chains,
Working destruction in its path
And counting ruin as its gains;
But streams and men have oft to make
Dire havoc for dear freedom's sake!

Just when the first faint streak of white,
Silvers the east, and one by one
The birds with all their little might
Break forth to greet the rising sun,
It makes me dream, I'm young again,
To see that glorious river then!

The royal fisher takes his bath,
The merry squirrel bounds along,
The mink skulks on his thieving path,
And every bird is loud in song—
While Robin, from the highest tree,
Leads on the woodland minstrelsy.

Anon from out the pool's still deeps,
Like burnished silver in the dawn
His flashing sides, the sea-trout leaps,
A moment seen, and then is gone
Back to his covert—there, secure,
He scans, but shuns, the angler's lure.

Full many a chequered year has flown
Since to this stream I welcome gave,
And who were with me then have gone
To rest, and wait the opening grave.
Alas! but fire-scorched ruins strew
The spot where days in gladness flew.

And still, when summer months come round,
I seek the nooks where sea-trout lie,
My steps fall on familiar ground,
I muse and dream and cast my fly.
For health, for peace, for ease, for rest,
Bright-watered Dunk, I love thee best!

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

Eggs and Oats.

SIR,—Below you will find a statement of the exports, both maritime and foreign, from Queen's and King's County from the 1st April to 30th December, 1891.

I have not got the figures for Prince County, but I am pretty sure that the exports from that county, particularly in oats, will be heavier than either of the above-named counties, and that potatoes and eggs would be about the same as Queen's.

Another thing to be considered is that masters of vessels sailing under coasting licenses are not required in clearing at any Canadian port to report what cargo they carry, unless goods in bond, so that a considerable quantity of our exports cannot be accounted for:

Potatoes, 679,335 bushels	$217,155
Oats, 1,027,768 "	415,250
Eggs, 1,020,597 dozen	122,469

With all due deference to the "Trade and Navigation Return," these figures are correct.
