CUTTING CHRISTMAS TREES

For the information of persons cutting Christmas trees within the Province we quote Part 2 of "The Summary Trespass Act", 1953, which reads as follows:

No person shall, except with the consent of the person legally entitled to the possession thereof,

- (a) trespass on any land for the purpose of cutting down Christmas trees thereon;
- (b) cut down or attempt to cut down Christmas trees on any land.

Every person who violates any provision of this part shall be guilty of an offence and upon summary conviction shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty dollars.

In addition to such fine the magistrate imposing the same may order the guilty party to make restitution for the damage done.

(L. F. ROSSITER),
Minister of Industry and Natural Resources.

IN MEMORIAM

SANDERSON — In loving memory of our mother and grandmother, Mrs. Ethel Sanderson, who departed this life on November 24, 1962. Just a tribute of love and remembrance.

To a mother, one of the best. The pleasures she missed on her highway.

May she rest in God's garden and find.

Ever remembered by Cecil, Florence, Parker, Donnie and Ray.

COYLE — In loving memory of a dear sister, Mrs. Susan Coyle who passed away November 23rd, 1962.

Lovingly remembered and sadly missed by brother Earl, Teresa, Barbara and Gary.

COYLE — In loving memory of Mrs. Susan Coyle who died November 23rd, 1962. What would we give if we could say.

I guess I'll go see Susan today.

To her voice and see her smile.

To sit with her and talk awhile. It is lonely here without you dear.

And she is not today. For life is not the same to us since you were called away.

Since you could say goodbye to us. Perhaps it's just as well. We can't have said goodbye.

To her we loved so well. In tears we saw you sinking We watched you fade away.

Our hearts were deeply broken You fought so hard to stay. But when we saw you sleeping.

So peaceful, free from pain. We could not wish you back. To suffer that again.

Lovingly remembered by Mom, Dad, Janet and Windy.

COYLE — In loving memory of my sister, Susan Coyle, who passed away Nov. 23rd, 1962.

To know we never said goodbye Will always bring regret.

But we who miss you daily Are the ones who can't forget The sudden way you had to die.

We will always remember and wonder why.

Our family chain is broken now But memories live forever.

Sadly missed by Thelma and family.

OBITUARY

MR. HAROLD MOASE

The people of New Amman and surrounding districts were shocked to learn of the sudden passing of Harold Roy Moase at his home on Tuesday, October 8th, 1963.

Although he had suffered a heart condition two years ago, apparently was much better and able to resume his regular work as general in the district where he lived and carried on business for almost 40 years. He was always held in very high esteem by all who knew him and had many business dealings with him and will be greatly missed by a host of friends and business associates, but most of all in the home where he was a devoted husband and father.

He was born in Kensington May 29th, 1899 the son of the late Robert T. Moase and Lucy Burrows, where he received his education before entering the mercantile business. He leaves to mourn his widow the former Anna Riley, New London, a son George of London, Ontario, a daughter, Thelma at home and one grandson George also of London, Ontario. Also the following sisters and brothers: Bertha (Mrs. J. A. Hogg) Kelvin, Davis, Travellers Rest, Major, North River, and Lila (Mrs. Max Robertson) Summerside.

He was active member of the Kensington Presbyterian Church and of Hiram and Lettison Lodge No. 3 A.F. and A.M. Summerside. An impressive Masonic service was held at the home on Wednesday evening, conducted by Mr. Wilfred Burns, with a large number of Masons paying tribute to their late Brother.

The funeral service was held on Thursday afternoon, with a short service at the home followed by service at the Kensington Presbyterian Church conducted by Rev. Donald MacKay Summerside, hymns sung were Abide with Me and I'll Praise The Lord. A duet Home Sweet Home was feelingly rendered by Mrs. Bruce Moore and Mr. J.B. Lewis.

The pall bearers were — Robert Alder Leary, Harold Simmons, Waldon, Vernon and Herbert Moore, all nephews of the deceased. He was interred in rest in the Peoples Cemetery.

IN MEMORIAM

DUFFY In loving memory of Allan Duffy, who passed away Nov. 23, 1961. Ever remembered by the McGee Family.

COYLE — In loving memory of my dear sister Susan, Mrs. Gerald Coyle, who departed this life on Nov. 23, 1962. I did not stand beside you. To see your life depart. But when I heard that you were gone.

I nearly broke my heart. I have only your memory dear. To remember my whole life through. But the sweetness will linger forever.

As I treasure the image of you. Lovingly remembered by sister Beverly, brother-in-law, Bud and niece, Betty Ann and Janet.

COYLE — In loving memory of my dear sister Susan who passed away November 23, 1962. We often think of by gone days when we were all together. The family chain is broken now But memories will live forever.

Just entered God's eternal home And left the gate ajar.

Always remembered by her sister Marg, George and family. Mr. and Mrs. George Asprey, Toronto Ontario.

BROWN — In sad and loving memory of our only two darling daughters, Carol Isabelle and Anne Marie, who lost their lives in a tragic fire on November 23, 1962.

Two years have passed since that sad day. When our two loved ones were called away.

Sadly missed by mommy and daddy and little brother, Johnny.

IT'S FOR CHRISTMAS

W.E. Johnston, general convener chairman for Area 1 of the Prince County reveals that the Traveller's Rest School district this year has collected 290 per cent more for the United Fund over last year's campaign.

Captain of the district is Mr. John Marchbank, and assisting her on the campaign were Mrs. George Carr, Mrs. Ella Montgomery and C. Gillis.

Fund headquarters report this is the first time there has been such a good increase from a school district.

It was also reported that the first returns have arrived from the Summerside residents campaign, and that they are a least equal to those of last year.

Roy Bates is chairman of the residential area.

To date, the fund has reached $143,366, 61.5 per cent of its objective.

FILES POLIO SUIT
PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—Dr. Paul O. Richter, 53, head of the entomology department at Oregon State University, filed a $1,000,000 damage suit Thursday against Charles Pfizer and Company, a manufacturer and distributor of Sabin oral vaccine, type III. Richter contends that taking the vaccine caused him to contract polio.
