NEW YORK

NEW YORK (AP)A moderate stock market recovery Friday accompanied the postponement of the railway strike deadline for 15 days.

Rails out-performed the rest of the market as they recouped losses taken earlier this week on the basis of the strike threat; but their rebound was not enthusiastic.

The Dow Jones industrial average made a small gain of 40 at 821.75.

Motors, cigarette issues, farm implements, aerospace issues, chemicals and retails joined in the advance.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks gained 1.0 at 303.0.

Among the 15 most active issues, the uptrend was more decisive, with 12 gainers and three losers.

Transitron, a low-priced electronics issue which has caught trading fancy this week, went to the top of the list as it rose ⅜ to 6⅞ on 118,700 shares, ending the week with a big percentage gain.

SECOND MOST ACTIVE

Xerox was second most active, down 1 at 89 on 104,800 shares, as trading began in rights to subscribe to convertible debentures. Third was Texas Gulf Sulphur, up 1⅛ at 30⅛ on 92,100 shares. This stock was still responding to higher sulphur prices. Pan American Sulphur rose 1.

The Xerox rights opened on a block of 800,000. During the day 142,300 rights were traded. They closed at 29-32.

IBM also reported a substantial rise in earnings and the stock was up 11½ at 596¾.

Among rails, New York Central rose 1⅜, Baltimore and Ohio 1¼, Chicago and North Western ⅞, Pennsylvania Railroad ⅜, Nickel Plate ¼ and Great Northern ⅞.

MOTORS ADVANCE

All the leading motors advanced but none as much as a point. Cigarette stocks resumed their recovery with gains of ⅞ for Lorillard, ¾ for Liggett and Myers, ⅝ for Reynolds and ⅜ for American Tobacco.

As airlines subsided, Pan American lost 1⅛, Western Air Lines 1¼, Eastern ⅞ and United ½. American rose ½.

Among Canadian issues traded International Nickel lost ⅝ and Dome Mines and Hudson Bay Mining ⅛. Distillers Seagrams gained ½. Granby Mining ¼ and Canadian Pacific ⅛.

Prices on the American Exchange were irregularly higher. Canadian issues were mixed. Brazilian Traction gained ⅛, Preston 3-16 and Fargo Oil 1-16. Canadian Marconi, Canadian Javelin and Jupiter Corp. lost ⅛.

OLDS-down-to-earth action styled to make your spirits soar!

Take off! Cut loose! Olds is one car you just can't be blasé about. Every time you slip behind the wheel and turn the key, you'll get a lift you thought no car would ever give. The gratifying pleasure of sheer beauty and superb comfort. The heart-pounding excitement of Rocket power. The satisfying confidence of sure response.

That's the Oldsmobile feeling, and it sticks with you; mile after mile, year after year, regardless of which Oldsmobile model you choose: a low-priced Jetstar 88, a popular Dynamic 88, a spirited Super 88, a sporty Starfire or an elegant Ninety-Eight.

You ready to take off and cut loose from the ordinary? Ready for new challenges, new experiences, new fun? Then get down to your Oldsmobile dealer and get yourself into an Olds. That's where the action is!
