

Presentation At Falconwood

The faculty and staff of Falconwood Hospital, the Provincial Infirmary, Beach Grove and members of the Department of Health and Welfare assembled in the auditorium at Falconwood, on the evening of May 15th to honor one of their members, Mrs. Sadie Dunning, on her retirement as Matron of the Provincial Infirmary, after twenty-three years of untiring service.

The auditorium, tastefully decorated for the occasion, presented a gay appearance as Dr. A. J. Murchison, medical superintendent, in the capacity of master of ceremonies in his usual capable manner, in a few well chosen remarks highly commended Mrs. Dunning for her splendid record as a public official and her untiring efforts for the welfare of all who came under her supervision, as well as her administrative qualifications and courtesy to all who may have had the pleasure of her acquaintance.

Dr. Murchison introduced Hon. A. W. Matheson, then Minister of Health and Welfare, who spoke in glowing terms of Mrs. Dunning's outstanding record as a public official and his comments were most heartily endorsed by all present.

At the conclusion of Mr. Matheson's address, the guest of the evening was invited to the platform, and was presented with appropriate gifts from each of the different branches of the service, to which Mrs. Dunning made a very fitting reply in her own pleasing way.

After the presentation of gifts, a musical programme and dancing was enjoyed. During intermission refreshments were served.

To Mr. Leo Chaisson and his troupe, consisting of Mrs. Joseph Dougan, pianist, Mr. Frank McInyre, soloist, Mrs. Yvonne Murray, vocalist, Miss Kathleen Hornby and Mr. Webster, violinists, and Miss Roberts, tap dancing, to each of these artists, who rendered their respective numbers in a most pleasing and accomplished manner, the faculty and staff tendered their most sincere thanks.

A very pleasant evening, enjoyed by all present, was concluded with the singing of the National Anthem.
