

First Experience as an Honest Man.

Frank Day is a reformed gambler and typical of the members of that fraternity. He is witty and good natured. For the past three years Frank has scorned to look at cards, and has turned his attention to drumming up city trade for a New York wholesale house.

"You see," said Frank last night, "my little wife worried about me night after night and week after week, when I didn't show up at the house; but when I did 'cash in' and go home once in a while never a word of reproach would I get. It was always a kiss and a hug and a good supper or breakfast, and it didn't make any difference at what time of night it was either. Well I got to thinking how much better it would be to come home regular and make home pleasant for the little woman. Then, again, the boys were getting big enough to understand things and I didn't want them to have a gambler father as an example to follow, so I made up my mind to get at some respectable business. I had a hard time at first, but my nerve made it easier after a while.

"My first experience in doing honest business was a curious one. I walked into a store on Greenwich street one day. I called for the proprietor. He was a surly man, and particularly so on this morning.

"No, I don't want to buy anything," began the proprietor, after I had put my stereotyped speech to him.

"But I assure—" "Do you see that door?" said the proprietor; "but—"

"Get out! Get out! or I'll put you out," said the man motioning to the door.

"I walked slowly out of the door, and turning round said: Say, mister, will you allow me to stay in New York a couple of days?"

"It broke the old man all up. He smiled and I smiled. He broke out in a loud laugh, and I walked into the store again.

"I took that man's order for $150 worth of goods, and he is to-day one of my best customers."—New York Sun.

$500 REWARD

is offered by the manufacturer of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy for a cure of Chronic Nasal Catarrh which they cannot cure.

SYMPTOMS OF CATARRH.—Dull, heavy headache, obstruction of the nasal passages, discharges falling from the head into the throat, sometimes profuse, watery, and acid, at others, thick, tenacious, mucous, purulent, bloody and putrid; the eyes are weak, watery, and inflamed; there is ringing in the ears, deafness, hacking or coughing to relieve the chest, expectoration of mucus, matter, together with scabs from ulcers; the breath is offensive; small and taste are impaired; there is a sensation of dizziness, with mental depression, a hacking cough and general debility. A few of the above-named symptoms are likely to be present in any case. Thousands of cases annually, without manifesting half of the above symptoms, result in consumption, and end in the grave. No disease is so common, more deceptive, more dangerous, or less understood by physicians.

By its mild soothing, and healing properties, Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy cures the worst cases of Catarrh, "Cold in the Head," Coryza, and Catarrhal Headache. Sold by druggists everywhere; 50 cents.

"Untold Agony" from Catarrh.

Prof. W. HAUSSER, the famous mesmerist, of Utica, N. Y., writes: "Some ten years ago I suffered untold agony from chronic nasal catarrh. My family physician gave me up as incurable, and said I must die. My case was such a bad one, that every day, towards sunset, my voice would become so hoarse I could scarcely utter a word. In the morning my coughing and clearing of my throat would almost strangle me. By the use of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, in three months, I was a well man, and the cure has been permanent."

"Constantly Hawking and Spitting"

THOMAS J. HUSHING, Esq., 292 Pine Street, St. Louis, Mo., writes: "I was a great sufferer from catarrh for three years. At times I could hardly breathe, and was constantly hawking and spitting, and for the last eight months could not breathe through the nostrils. I thought nothing could be done for me. Luckily, I was advised to try Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, and I am now a well man. I believe it to be the only sure remedy for catarrh now manufactured, and one has only to give it a fair trial to experience astonishing results and a permanent cure."

Three Robins Cure Catarrh.

ELI ROBINS, Bunton P. O., Columbia Co., Pa., says: "My daughter had catarrh when she was five years old, very badly. I saw Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy advertised and procured a bottle for her, and soon saw that it helped her; a third bottle effected a permanent cure. She is now eighteen years old and sound and hearty."

MANHOOD

How Lost, How Restored!

Just published, a new edition of

Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay

on the radical cure of Spermatorrhoea or incapacity induced by excess or early indiscretion.

The celebrated author in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years successful practice, that the alarming consequences of early error may be radically cured; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

This lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land. Sent under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, post-paid, on receipt of four cents of two postage stamps. Address,
