

Wau - Leard Wedding

Borden United Church was the scene of a fall wedding on October 6, when Joan Eleanor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Urville Leard, Borden, became the bride of F/O Lynn John, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Wau, Thetford. Rev. D. Matheson performed the ceremony.

Entering the church on the arm of her father, to the strains of Lohengrin's "Wedding March" the bride wore a floor-length gown of Chantilly lace over satin, red-tinge style with under skirt of accordion pleated net with a jacket of matching lace with Queen Anne collar, studded with pearls and rhinestones, the sleeves coming to points over the hand. She wore a finger tip veil held in place by orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of red roses.

Her sister, Mrs. Amos Peters, matron of honor, wore a floor-length gown of yellow net over satin with matching headpiece and gloves and carried a fan bouquet of mauve mums. Her sister-in-law, Mrs. Sheldon Leard, bridesmaid, was gowned in a floor-length gown of a mauve net over satin, with matching headpiece and gloves and carried a fan bouquet of yellow mums.

The groom was supported by Mr. Sheldon Leard, brother of the bride. The ushers were Messrs. Gerald Leard and Davis Murray. For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Leard chose a teal blue dress, with black accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Birch Lodge for approximately 40 relatives and friends. The bride's table was centered with a wedding cake. The toast to the bride was proposed by Mr. Davis Murray and responded by the groom.

Addresses Mar. Jaycee Conference

Montague F. Aldous, President of the Junior Chamber of Commerce of Canada was guest speaker at the Maritime Region Jaycee Fall Conference held at Amherst, N.S., Oct. 9.

Commenting on the growth of the Jaycee movement and the extensive work being done in all parts of the world, Mr. Aldous stated that the Jaycees were represented in practically every country in the free world, and that they were a "virtual young men's united nations."

One of the greatest shortcomings in any community is the hesitancy and inability of its citizens to provide adequate leadership Mr. Aldous noted. "We have the only organization trying to train young men in self development and leadership in various phases of community betterment," he said.

Mr. Aldous with Donald Carlisle, secretary-manager of the National body, has been visiting the various Chambers throughout the Maritime Provinces. A most pleasant official duty was the presentation of a charter to the newly formed Montague Junior Board of Trade on Friday evening. Although a native of North Vancouver, Mr. Aldous felt that he was returning home as his grandfather had for many years resided in Montague.

The delegates to the conference were welcomed to Amherst by Mayor Koufman, and the business sessions were presided over by Regional President, John H. Morris of Charlottetown.

A number of members of the Charlottetown Junior Board of Trade attended the conference, and they extended to all those present a special invitation to visit Charlottetown in 1955 and join in the Centennial celebrations.

Thetford and Niagara Falls. For travelling the bride wore a rose-wood suit with brown and natural accessories, and a corsage of yellow roses.

New Kensington Legion Home

Kensington's new Canadian Legion Home is seen above, with several members hard at work hoping to have it ready for occupancy by November 11th. The building, a former R.C.A.F. barracks in Tignish, was hauled to Kensington in four sections, and when completed, will provide a modern Legion Home which will be used for community functions by organizations in and surrounding Kensington.

Bulmer - Schafheitlin Wedding

Trinity United Church, Canning, N. S., was the scene of an autumn wedding on Saturday, October 9, when Ruth Elizabeth, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Schafheitlin, Canning, N.S., became the bride of Richard Mucell, only son of Mrs. William Mucell, of Summerside, P.E.I., and the late Mr. Bulmer. The double-ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Hodgson of Digby, assisted by Rev. J. Brabour, Canning.

The church was tastefully decorated with white tapers, fall flowers, and autumn leaves. The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a floor-length gown of white Chantilly lace and tulle over satin, fashioned with fitted bodice and oriolined skirt. Her headpiece was a pearl encrusted band with fingertip veil and she carried a bouquet of red roses and stephanotis.

The bride was attended by Mrs. Graydon Cox, matron of honour, Misses Peg MacKay, Margaret Macdonald, Joan Clarke, and Helen Wilks, bridesmaids. Little Eleanor Lynn Cox was flower girl.

The bride's attendants wore waltz-length gowns of tulle over taffeta in blending autumn shades with matching lace stoles and headpieces.

The groom was supported by Mr. William Grant. Ushers were Messrs. Vernon Eaton, Peter Hamilton, Kenneth MacKenzie, and Harry Smith.

Mrs. Charles Sinnett rendered the nuptial music, and the soloist was Mr. Ivor Phillips of Canning.

Following the ceremony a reception for 180 guests was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mrs. Sam McCall, Mrs. Otto Schafheitlin, Mrs. Hugh Eaton, and Mrs. Leander Eaton, aunts of the bride, poured. Serving were: Miss Audrey Lawrence, Mrs. Jack Fox, Mrs. Eric McDade, Mrs. Jim Horsfall, Miss Eileen Parker, Mrs. Arnold Burbridge, Mrs. John DeWolfe, Mr. Glendon North, Mrs. David Ellis, Mrs. Dean Cotridge, Miss Betty Sheppard, and Mrs. Don MacKay.

Replenishing were Mrs. Ken Eaton, Mrs. Ollie Eaton, Mrs. Bernard Holt, Mrs. Florence MacLean, Mrs. Stanley Eaton, and Mrs. Alfred Eaton. Mrs. Malcolm Eaton was in charge of the guest book.

The bride's mother wore aqua crepe with navy accessories, and pink roses; the groom's mother wore navy crepe with navy and white accessories, and white roses. The toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. Dr. Hodgson and responded to by the groom.

For travelling the bride chose a navy suit with navy accessories, and a red feather hat. After a honeymoon in the province, the happy couple will reside in Quebec City, where Mr. Bulmer is employed with the Dept. of Lands and Forests.

Gallinger - Gill Wedding

The Baptist Church, Manlius, New York, U. S. A., was the scene of an autumn wedding on September 26, at 7 p.m., when Elaine Emily, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. O. F. Gill, Charlottetown, P.E.I., was united in marriage with William Reuben, son of Mr. Charles Gallinger and the late Mrs. Gallinger of Manlius, New York. The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Reverend John Baker, and the wedding music played by Ms. Jenks, the church organist.

Tall ivory tapers in silver candelabra and baskets of white and red gladioli made a beautiful setting for the ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina-length dress of white orlon Satinque, fashioned with a jacket in pointed cape style and white catfish feather hat tipped with sparkly rhinestones completed the costume. She carried a cascade of white roses centered with an orchid.

The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Richard L. Winchester of Hanson, Massachusetts, who wore red and white Parchment nylon, and carried a bouquet of red carnations.

Mr. Edward Gallinger, brother of the groom, was best man and the ushers were Messrs. Bill French and Kenyon Dye.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlor for 40 relatives and friends. The table was decorated with lighted tapers, autumn flowers and a five-tier wedding cake which was cut by the bride and groom.

Later in the evening a dinner for the immediate family was enjoyed at "The Birches," after which Mr. and Mrs. Gallinger left for a honeymoon trip to Niagara Falls and Boston. On their return they will reside in Manlius, where the groom is stationed at the Thompson Air Base, Syracuse, New York.
