A P. E. Island Sailor's Death.

HIS RELATIVES WILL SOON FILE AN INDEMNITY CLAIM AGAINT CHILI.

A recent Washington despatch says:—The relatives of William Turnbull, one of the two sailors of the Baltimore killed in Valparaiso on October 17, will soon file a claim against the Chilian government for indemnity.

Turnbull was the son of Captain Robert Turnbull, now about ninety years of age and residing at Tignish, Prince Edward Island. Of the full blood relatives of the deceased sailor there now survive in addition Robert T. Turnbull, brother (sailor), and Grace, Annie and Mary Turnbull, sisters, the first two named living in Massachusetts and the third in Charlottetown, P. E. I.

By the father's second wife, there survive—Hannah, wife of George T. McRae, of Prince Edward Island, and George C. McRae, her son, of Jersey City. The latter has engaged John H. Heck, an attorney of Jersey City, to prosecute the claim on behalf on behalf of his grandfather and his mother. H. B. White, United States district attorney for the New Jersey district, is associated with Mr. Heck in the case.

In response to a letter from Mr. Heck, asking for information, Secretary Blaine has informed him that it would be proper for persons claiming to be entitled to a share in the final distribution of any fund which may be recovered on account of the killing of Turnbull to file with the department satisfactory legal proof establishing their relationship and right to such a claim and that it would also be proper to file a power of attorney or other similar authorization.

WITH GLOVES ON.

The hands of the patient referred to below were so sore and offensive that he had to wear gloves continually to hide his hands, until he used

PHOSPHOLEINE

(Pronounced FOS-FO-LEEN),

when they became smooth and soft.

SCROFULA AND SALT RHEUM.

Dear Mr. Eagar,

I have much pleasure in giving you a record of the effect produced by the use of your PHOSPHOLEINE. The following cases have come under my particular attention while visiting the sick and poor: A case of Hereditary Scrofula.—The patient had tried most of the blood purifying remedies and Sarsaparillas in use, but for the past 19 years obtained no relief. After taking three bottles of your PHOSPHOLEINE his flesh became smooth and healthy, and he is now completely cured. A case of severe cough in the last stages of Consumption: The cough was eased, and the patient regained flesh and strength. This case is past curing, and the patient was pronounced so by physicians; but had she obtained of your medicine sooner, would no doubt have been cured. A case in which patient had given up the use of alcohol: The craving was cured, and the patient was regaining health and strength. A case of loss of flesh, great weakness, and indisposition for exertion of any kind, has been restored to health and strength by using your PHOSPHOLEINE. I have also recommended it to many who have been suffering from Dyspepsia, loss of strength and flesh, and in every case it has effected a cure. I have derived much benefit from the use of it myself. I remain yours, &c.,

GENTLEMEN,—I have purposely delayed writing you, as I wished to give a thoroughly complete trial to the M. P. P.
