

Tommies Play SDU Here Today

Saint Dunstan's Varsity squad winds up its 1958 football schedule this afternoon when they play hosts to St. Thomas College of Chatham, N.B.

Saint Dunstan's are playing 500 ball with two wins and two losses in this Maritime Intercollegiate league. Saints hold wins over Saint Mary's and Acadia but have been sent down to defeat by Mount Allison and U.N.B.

St. Thomas are possessors of one victory in four starts, that one a 25-0 triumph over the winless Axemen from Wolfville. They have fallen victims to Saint Mary's, Mount Allison and U.N.B.

If the locals can grab a decisive win here today they will end up third in the six team loop. Only

Saint Mary's can equal that and they'd have to trounce U.N.B. That's not likely to happen.

Quarterback Gil Collins is expected to lead in the S.D.U. lineup today. Collins suffered a leg injury in the Mount Allison tussle and hasn't appeared since that time. However, the Red and White will be minus Rollie Sullivan and Martin Clooney. Rollie is ill with the flu and Martin has two fractured ribs following last Saturday's game at Fredericton.

Pic Bilocheau is nursing a nasty gash on the leg but may see limited action as defensive half-back. Gerard Tingey, end, is another doubtful starter. Tingey has a bad ankle.

Saint Thomas gave the powerful Mount Allison a much better argument than did the local Saints. The Chatham boys bowed 47-13 and that's quite an improvement on 7-1. Nevertheless the locals are favourites to win this afternoon's battle.

Game time is 2 o'clock. Officials this afternoon will be Ian MacLaine, Don Hopkins, Dennis Carroll and Jack "Spy" Ready.

Julius Boros Takes Lead In Atlanta Open

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Julius Boros, playing a steady 70, moved to the head of the field with a six-under-par 210 at the three-quarter mark of the $25,000 Atlanta Open golf tournament Friday.

The 1952 U.S. Open champion eased into the lead on a card that showed a consistent 35-35 over the par 72 Cherokee Country Club course.

Campey Passes New Milestone

NEW YORK (AP) — Roy Campanella passed a new milestone Friday.

The paralyzed Dodger catcher went home to live with his family in Glen Cove where he will begin a new phase in his medical and physical treatments.

Campey, 36, had been undergoing treatments at New York University's institute of physical medicine and rehabilitation since May 5. He suffered a broken neck in an auto accident last January.

He will visit the institute three days a week for necessary therapy.

Doug Harvey To Play Tonight

MONTREAL (CP) — Montreal defenceman Doug Harvey, who missed his club's last nine games because of a chipped and cracked ankle, will be dressed for the Canadiens' National Hockey League game here tonight against New York Rangers.

Athletes Fined For Engaging In Illegal Affair

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — Two University of Michigan athletes pleaded guilty Friday to charges of engaging in an illegal occupation in connection with a campus football gambling ring.

Football fullback Roy Rio, and varsity basketball captain Jack Lewis, both 21 and from Chicago, changed their plea after standing mute at their original arraignment Oct. 29.

SPORTS FRONT

OTTAWA ROUGH RIDERS seem certain to end in third place in the Big Four football standings. They trail Montreal by one point and there is little hope of overtaking the Alouettes this afternoon as the regular schedule ends. For the Riders to copy the runner-up spot they would have to beat the Tiger-Cats right in Hamilton while Toronto Argonauts dispose of the Alouettes in Montreal.

This time last week we would have said that Argos had a fair chance of sidelining the Montrealers but after that 44-7 blasting in Toronto we couldn't possibly make such a call. The Hamilton-Ottawa tussle should be an interesting one but the Riders know that they need Toronto help if they want to finish ahead of the Quebecers.

ONE THING IS certain. Roughriders and Alouettes will clash in a sudden-death semi-final Wednesday. The uncertainty at the present time is where that game will be played. The site will be home field of the team finishing second. The odds favor the Alouettes.

That winner goes against the Hamilton Tiger-Cats in a home and home series, with games on Saturday November 15 and Saturday November 22. The Grey Cup classic is the following Saturday in Vancouver.

WHILE THE EAST is working toward a Grey Cup finalist, the W.F.U. will be also going about the same kind of work. The Edmonton Eskimos and Saskatchewan Roughriders open their semi-finals today with the winner taking on the Winnipeg Blue Bombers in a best of three clash for the W.F.U. crown. The Bombers should emerge the victors but then you can never tell. Last year Eskimos were supposed to represent the West but Winnipeg threw an upset and made the trip east.

All these teams, whether in the W.F.U. or the Big Four have their supporters here on Prince Edward Island. Those supporters will have a great time for the next few weeks watching some of these games on television. Wednesday's Big Four semi-final will be carried on C.F.C.Y.-TV as will next Saturday's game between Hamilton and the semi-final winner. The second game of the finals on November 22 will also be seen locally. After that comes the viewing of the Grey Cup thriller on November 29.

There sure are great football treats ahead.

AFTER A MOST inactive week, the National Hockey League gets back to real business the next two days. This afternoon, Detroit Red Wings entertain the Chicago Black Hawks. These two clubs are tied for third place and this afternoon's winner will have the spot all by themselves. Tonight the second place Bruins are at Maple Leaf Gardens where they will battle the last-place Toronto club. Although in the cellar, the Leafs are tough customers on Saturday night and Bruins will have their work cut out for them. While this game is taking place the Montreal Canadiens are one point ahead in the standings. They will tangle with Phil Watson's slumping Rangers. But the Rangers are due for a good showing and this could be the night that they put on the show. Last time they were at Montreal Forum was on October 18 and that night they held Toe Blake's charges to a 2-2 tie.

SUNDAY NIGHT Toronto Maple Leafs visit Detroit and Boston Bruins are at home to the Rangers. A great cap happen to the standings during the weekend with the Leafs and Rangers in a position to meet their moves to close in on the ones in front. Toronto can't get any farther than fifth and to do that they would have to win both games while Rangers drop a pair. However, the New Yorkers as of now, have three more games played than Toronto and after this weekend the Leafs will still have three games in hand.

The Bruins have their chance to grab the league lead from the Canadiens. If the Bostonians win both their battles, the Bruins will be in front by themselves, regardless of the outcome of the Ranger-Montreal affair.

There are a lot of 'ifs' to the whole thing and we think it's about time to stop the figuring. It can get pretty complicated, so we'll just wait and see what Monday morning brings.

The Rangers-Canadiens game is the one that will be seen locally on television tonight. Starting time is ten o'clock.

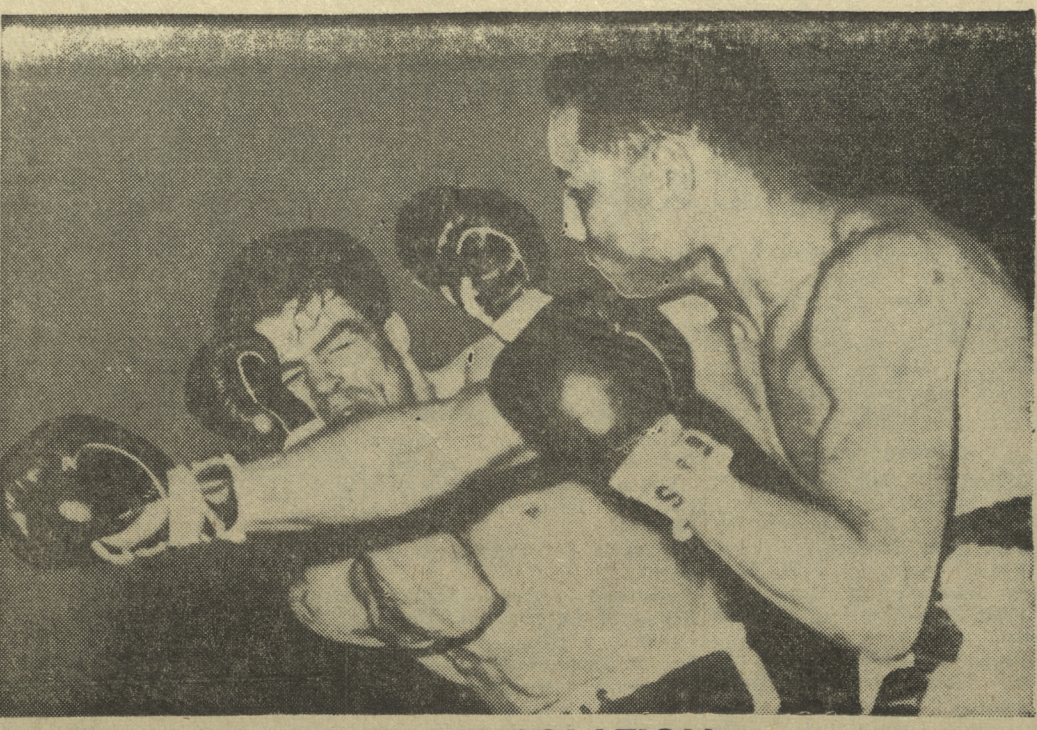

THOSE HOME RUNS poled out in 1958 by Ted Williams and Stan Musial have both these greats on their way to two more batting milestones. Williams, now 40, who ranked fifth in the lifetime home run listings, closed in on the select 500 homer club. The Boston outfielder hit 26 for a career total of 482 in 15 seasons.

Musial, 37, neared the 400 figure. He walloped 17 in 1958 and that took his lifetime total to 398. Babe Ruth's record, however, is in no danger. The Babe hit 714.

ONLY NEWCOMER to the list of 16 active players boasting 200 or more home runs was Willie Mays. The San Francisco gardener hit 29 last season to bring his total to 216.

Dodgers' Gil Hodges slammed 22 homers in 1958 and that puts the big first baseman at 320. Gil is fourth in the active player list over the 200 mark in home run production.

Heading the parade is Williams, 482; second is Musial, 398; third—Duke Snider, 331; fifth—Frank Sanchez—287; Sixth—Del Ennis—280; Seventh—Yogi Berra, 284; Eighth—Ted Kluszewski, 257; Ninth—Ed Mathews, 253 and Larry Doby—253; Tenth—Mickey Mantle, 249.

Open Season On Football Coaches Is Now Underway

By JACK SULLIVAN
Canadian Press Staff Writer

The open season on professional football coaches is on schedule. And just as sure as death and taxes, at least two of the nine from Montreal to Vancouver will either get the chop or voluntarily quit before they are fitted for strait-jackets.

This annual pastime is heralded during the panic season—when players of the slow-starting teams in East and West suddenly flex their muscles when they realize that they could be out of a job next year. The ensuing scramble for a playoff berth is something to behold.

Crowds jam the parks looking for miracles that rarely happen. Then the gossip and rumor starts about the coaches—will they, or will they not have their contracts renewed? Will they be given another year's sentence to sideline worrying?

Canada Is Second To U.S. In National Horse Show

NEW YORK (AP) — Canada won its second international event in the national horse show Friday when Tom Gayford of Toronto rode his two mounts to faultless performances in the low score competition.

Gayford, 28, a handsome floor trader on the Toronto Stock Exchange, took Beau Blue and Blue Beaver over the 11 barriers without dumping one. He was remarkably consistent, clocking 57.5 with his first entry and 57.4 with his second.

It was Gayford who recorded Canada's other victory Thursday. Canada now has a better record in international events here than in any year since 1938, when Stuart Bate captured six.

Coincidentally, Bate now is Lt. Col. Stuart C. Bate of the Canadian Army and one of the judges of the international jumps.

Canada now is second to the United States. The Americans have three victories and the West Germans one. Gayford took over as leading rider of the show on a point basis with 30.

Germany's Hans Winkler, the European champion, was second with four faults on Halla and Sonnenglanz. He missed the fifth barrier on Sonnenglanz and that ended his chances.

Alfons Lutke-Westhues of Germany was third and Hugh Wiley of Towson, Md., finished fourth. Gayford said later he was particularly impressed with Beau Blue's performances.

"He is a young horse and one we have a lot of high hopes for," he said.

DOWN THE BACK STRETCH

The big excitement in harness racing circles this week is centered on the 20th annual auction of the Standardbred Horse Sales Company at Harrisburg, Pa. Eagerly watching the horses bought in the ring and the auctioneer and the bids, are Islanders Andrew Perry, Sam Johnson, Joe Hennessy, Joe Arsenault and Jack Brown, and possibly others. Horsemen are also there from Halifax, Sydney and several parts of New Brunswick. We will all be watching to see what they bring home in the line of speed that will make more interest in the contests of 1959.

There are a total of 990 horses catalogued, and among them are some that would be a real asset to Maritime racing.

FROM FORTUNE

When the auctioneer calls out No. 255, Sam Johnson of Fortune will be very interested to see Early Dawn, p. 2.05 3-5, record taken on a half-mile track. Early Dawn was bred by Lester E. Johnson, Fortune Bridge, P.E.I., a brother of Sam's, and is a brown mare foaled in 1946. His sire was Playdate, 4, 2.04½, dam the famous race mare, Dude Potemkin 2.07½, dam also of Feather Duster 2.10, Dudy Budlong, 2.11, Buddy Budlong 2.15, and Sister Dawn, that has been racing so splendidly this year.

Early Dawn has a yearling colt by Tar Heel, and a weanling Tar Heel filly in the sale. During her 1951 campaign she won seven races at Yonkers Raceway where she took her record of 2.05 3-5, and earnings of $17,246.

The Tar Heel youngsters should bring big money. He took a record as a three-year-old of 2.00 on a half-mile track, and of 1.57 3-5 on a mile track, and was a world's champion pacer on both tracks. He has been the world's champion three-year-old pacer since then on a half-mile track, and as a two and three-year-old he won $119,148.

Lane Given Split Decision Over Godih

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP) — Kenny Lane, the No. 1 lightweight contender, gave a split decision to Lahouari Godih, of France and Algeria, in a 10-round match Friday night at War Memorial Auditorium. Lane weighed 141½, Godih 139½.

It was a dull bout, marred by frequent clinches in which referee Joe Palmer had more work than a wrestling official. Only in the final seconds of the 10th round when Lane drove Godih into a neutral corner was there any semblance of a sustained attack.

Lane, a 26-year-old southpaw who lost a title match with Joe Brown in Houston last July scored the cleaner punches. Time after time he locked up Godih when the former French champion tried to fight inside.

In the tenth round, when Godih tried to keep punching as referee Palmer tried to break them out of a clinch, he drew a warning from the referee.

Durelle Prepares For Title Scrap

MONCTON (CP) — Manager Chris Shaban said Friday he is convinced Yvon Durelle will be a match for world light heavy-weight boxing champion Archie Moore in their Montreal title match Dec. 10.

"The more I see of Durelle, the more I'm convinced he's going to give Moore a real good go," Shaban said.

The Baie Ste. Anne, N.B. scrapper tackles Moore Dec. 10 in a scheduled 15-rounder.

Shaban said "Yvon looks good in early workouts. I hope he can keep it up."

"Right now Yvon weighs around 179 pounds. He started training at 182. I don't think we'll have any difficulty getting down to the 175-pound limit."

"I'd like Yvon to work himself up from the predominantly

Gimmicks May Play Part In Big Four Game Today

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

A couple of coaching gimmicks may play a part in today's wind-up of the Big Four football league's regular season.

Hamilton's Jim Trimble has taken to writing letters to fire up his players and Frank Clair of Ottawa intends to glue one ear to the broadcast of the Toronto-Montreal clash as he sends his team against the Ticats.

While the coaches keep watch on their players, the statisticians will be tying up the loose ends in their record books.

The Ticats wrapped up first place some weeks ago and the semi-final combatants have already been settled. But the outcome of today's contests will decide home field for the semi-final and see who becomes the league's leading scorer.

WINS MEANS 2nd SPOT

Montreal is host to Toronto Argonauts and a win will give them undisputed possession of second place and the home ground for their sudden-death semi-final Wednesday against Ottawa.

The Rough Riders, a point behind Montreal, visit Hamilton where a win, combined with an Alouette loss, will give them second spot and the home semi-final game.

Clair will try a bit of telegraphy in the Hamilton game. He plans to keep posted on the other contest and if Alouettes are winning he'll go easy with his first stringers, especially linebacker Bill Sowalski who has a shaky left knee.

But if the Argos have the upper hand, thus giving the Rough Riders a chance to clinch second place, Clair will throw the works against the Ticats.

LETTER GIMMICK

Trimble's gimmick is the pen. He has written a letter to each of his players saying the club's fortunes have reached "an alarming state" and telling them to get cracking.

The Ticats have suffered two defeats in a row, their second and third in 13 games. Trimble attributes the losses to a complacency which followed Hamilton's bye into the league finals.

Montreal's Doug Walker is also unsatisfied with his team's altitude. He said he hasn't been happy with this week's practices and that there has been a lack of enthusiasm and pep in the workouts.

The Alouettes won the big one against Toronto last weekend, knocking the Argos out of the playoff picture with a 44-7 trouncing.

The big gun for Montreal today is again expected to be veteran Sam Etcheverry who'll be hooking up in another aerial duel with

NEW YORK (AP) — Middleweights Rory Calhoun of White Plains, N.Y., and Ralph (Tiger) Jones of Yonkers, N.Y., Friday were signed for a 10-round television bout at Madison Square Garden Nov. 21.

Japanese Ball Players Have Lot To Learn

TOKYO (AP) — Japanese ball players are good but they still have a lot to learn.

That's the opinion of Vaughn (Bing) Devine, general manager of St. Louis Cardinals, en route home after watching his team lose two of nine games to the Japan All Stars.

He said the pitchers impressed him most.

"They sure have control. They placed the balls right over and around the plate without the slightest trouble."

Devine lauded third baseman Shigeo Nagashima of the Yomiuri Giants, a $60,000 bonus player.

"Nagashima has everything to be a major leaguer. He is good in fielding, batting, base running and throwing."

Asked if any U.S. ball clubs would like to have him Devine said: "If he is available I think some clubs would like to have him."

RECORD PRICE

A new world's record price for a yearling trotter or pacer was set up at Harrisburg, Pa., on Thursday when the bay colt, Dancer Hanover, by Adios, dam The Old Maid, by Guy Abbey, was knocked down to the bid of Stanley Dancer, acting for a syndicate. The price — $100,000.

The previous highest price was $72,000, paid by a friend of Tommy Murphy for the yearling, Imperial Hanover. He proved a dud!

Here are some buys by Maritimers:

Bertram Hanover pacer, by Titan Janover 1.58, dam Bertha Hanover, 3, 2.08¾, dam of five with records from 2.02¼ to 2.05. He has won over $8,000 this year and won a race of one and one-sixteenth miles in fast company. His future home will be P. E. I.

Hoot Mite — two-year-old chestnut colt, trotter, by Hoot Mon 2.00, dam Mighty Symphony, dam of Plainsman 4, 2.03¼, and several others with fast records. After training in 2.25 this season he was turned out. This chap has license to go fast. His granddam is Symphonia 2.03, dam of Phonograph 1.59¼, DeSota 2.03¼ and three others in 2.05 or better, and 13 in 2.10 Destination, Nova Scotia. Lord Knight — (Black) pacer, 3, 2.08 3-5. A three-year-old bay pacer by Lord Volomite, 3, 2.01, dam Knight Stepper, 2, 2.04 3-5, Destination — Nova Scotia.

Newport Frisco — p. 2, 2.01 4-5; 3, 2.01 2-5. A five-year-old pacer by Frisco way, p. 3, 1.59 1-5, dam Jane Orr, 3, 2.05, famous brood mare. This horse was a sensational two and three-year-old pacer, was in two photo-finishes in which the time hung out was 1.59 4-5. He lowered the Rosecroft (half mile) track record.
