A GOOD APPLE STORY—The Berwick, N. S., Register is responsible for the following story: Mrs. W. O. Bent, of Morrisville, brought into our office last week, an apple which grew on a Nonpareil tree. One half the apple was Nonpareil, the other half the Philharmonic. No apples like this other side grew in the vicinity of the tree.

HAS EVIDENTLY BEEN THERE—The Toronto Empire says: It is very hard for the man who comes home late at night to realize that the penetrating and petulant voice which he hears at the head of the stairs is the speech of that gentle dame who a year ago would have climbed on a chair to escape a mouse; but the whirring of time and customs brings about some strange things.

A DASTARDLY ACT.—Three masked men entered the residence of Miss Mary Hill, six miles from Alliance, O., on Wednesday night last and demanded money. Miss Hill resisted and they knocked her down. Taking the pepper-box, one of them poured the contents into her eyes. She then revealed the hiding place of her treasure, which amounted only to $50. The robbers took it all, and jumping into a buggy drove away. She will lose her eyesight.

WHITE WISDOM—The Field says preparations are making to form a syndicate to build one or more yachts with a view to challenging for the America's cup in 1895. The English yacht clubs will invite the owners of the Vigilant to bring her over for the races next year. The Field says that from the American point of view, it will be desirable to let the Vigilant cross the ocean and thus refute the charges of flimsy and unworthy construction. The Field seems to think, however, that the Colonia is more likely to come over than the winner of the cup races.

MOTHER AND DAUGHTER POISONED.—Mrs. Hannah Toole and her daughter Margaret died suddenly within a few minutes of each other at their home on Third street, South Boston, last Wednesday night. They had partaken of some pie and porter, when suddenly Mrs. Toole fell to the floor. The daughter hastened to the mother's aid, but she too immediately lost her strength and fell and fell almost upon the body of her mother. Both died before medical assistance could be summoned. It is believed that either the pie or the porter contained poison, and they will be analyzed by a medical examiner.

More About "CHILDREN'S DAY." One lady thinks our display of Hoods, Bonnets and Caps the most attractive feature. Another is best pleased by the Gloves and Hosiery. Both agree, however, that "Children's Day" among our stock of Dry Goods and Millinery is well worth seeing.

"Didn't know you kept this class of thing!" says one. "When did these arrive?" says another. "Why didn't you tell us about these before," adds a third. "Just what I've been wanting!" chimes a fourth. And so they continue, well pleased with everything, most pleased with their own purchases.

It is not convenient for you to call during the day come this evening and see our display.

Dozens of pretty things! Dozens of useful things! Dozens of cheap things!

and the usual supply of "SATURDAY SALES."

TORONTO, Nov. 11, 10 p. m. Fair, with a little higher temperature.

Written for The Examiner: IN MEMORIAM—W. J. S. Think you that nothing remains of the dead But the cold and the lifeless clay? That there is not a spirit which has but fled For a short, brief time away? The undying light of a Father's love Has but guided a loved one home; And the good angel of a Saviour above Has but beckoned and called His own. The mortal body has gone to rest, And the earthly labor is o'er; Dimmed are the eyes, and the thrashing breast Is stilled for evermore. But the spirit immortal has gone beyond, And is followed by loved ones there With fervent hope and remembrance fond, And with holy mass and prayer.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

REPLY TO "CONSISTENCY."

Sir,—Your correspondent with the ironic non de ham, "Consistency," has evidently forgotten that a man of his stamp should be endowed with a good memory. The citizens were repeatedly assured by figureheads of his kind, that our soil was so porous, our surface drainage so excellent, and the quantity of water required for use so small that sewerage would be unnecessary. And now, in order to secure the introduction of this unnecessary sewerage, he undertakes to lecture others on consistency, and in language not merely ill-mannered, but positively impudent.

If the truth were known, it is probable that "Consistency" is one of those who contribute little if anything in the way of taxes to the city revenue and who would like to revel in luxury at the expense of those who are already swamped with unreasonable taxation.

MARRIED. At Summerside, Nov. 9th, by Rev. Wm. Magr, Hugh M. Sudebury of Sea View, to Lilla Ada Slavin, of Summerside.

TO-DAY the World's Candy Exposition is in progress at the Lenox Lyceum in New York City. It opened on the 6th inst., and will continue until the 25th. All in all it is the sweetest display ever seen in the Metropolis, and only exceeded perhaps by the sweetness of the fair visitors who are crowding to see it. Here is a chance to see what can be done with sugar.

To see what you can do with your money will be a greater advantage to you; that I know for a fact. For sweet as the candy makers may be, and tempting to some, yet you can put your money to much better use; say, for instance, a set of Underwear, a pair of Socks even, or anything in wearing apparel will warm the outward man, and candy only sweetens the inward man. However, we like candy and must have them, at any cost. Likewise the Star Tailor's best we must have if we want to keep in society. NO, DON'T APPEAR ODD, is my advice to you. Perchance you may be a young man of ambition, seeking for the smiles of some person. Do you want to be successful? Well you must dress in the Star Tailor's best. Your fortune in life may be hanging in the balance for or against success. Don't give sleep to your eyelids until you don a Suit or Overcoat of the Star Tailor's best. In lieu of same try our Underwear; no better and cheaper in the market. Ask for anything you want at the Star Tailor's.

City of Charlottetown ($6,000) Water Debentures

I will sell by Auction, at my Sales Room, on THURSDAY, the 16th day of November, inst., at 12 o'clock, noon, $5000 City of Charlottetown Water Debentures. These Debentures give 5 per cent. interest, and are not payable for twenty years.

I would ask investors to note the length of time these Debentures have to run, as the longer the term the more valuable the investment becomes.

Most of the Canadian Bank Stocks yield only from 4 to 5 per cent. with a double liability behind them; Insurance Stocks are fluctuating; Manufacturing Stocks cannot be depended on to yield a regular income.

"But a sound Debenture is a financial sheet anchor, and can be trusted to yield its interest and pay its principal when due with unflinching promptitude."
