

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

NOVEMBER 3, 1882.

Trans-Continental Trade.

The people of Great Britain and the European Continent, are awaiting with interest the completion of the three lines of Railway across the American Continent.

"Information is coming to hand almost every week, which all goes to show that the resources of California, Oregon, and British Columbia are only just beginning to be tapped, and that the supplies already furnished to us, enormous as they have been, afford us no adequate idea of what may be had, and certainly will be had thence in the coming years.

Good Character.

The Montreal Gazette says "the superlative quality of Canadian spring wheat this year has been acknowledged by an authority in the grain trade in New York, where it has been enquired for by millers at good prices."

Queen's County Jail.

To-day the writer visited Queen's County Jail for the purpose of enquiring into the wants and requirements of prisoners during the coming winter.

- 3 Lunatics. 2 Incendiaries. 2 Drunkards. 2 Assaultants. 1 Vagrant. 1 Illicit Liquor Seller. 3 Debtors.

The prisoners are amply provided with food and fuel, but are kept in very unclean, dingy cells. The fire-places are, to a certain extent, unsafe, and require immediate repairs.

It is a matter of surprise that the Government, having in their possession an asylum so large as Falconwood, should permit the incarceration of lunatics in the Common Jail.

The Charity Concert.

The first of the Season! We hope it will be followed by many others. In this quiet selfish, money-grubbing, matter of fact community, it is well people should be brought together once in a while, feeling that they are at the same time giving something to the poor and receiving something which, more than gold, tends to elevate their tastes and refine their natures.

Mr. William Holt, a prominent banker, was drowned, on the 28th October, at Parrie, Ontario. Letters from Iceland represent the present year as the hardest experienced on the Island in a century.
