TEARE'S DIRECTORY.—"Mamma," said a charming young lady in Nova Scotia, "what a pretty notice I have read in Teare's Directory of Mr. Grant's business. Surely his goods must be better than other peoples. The $25 that Uncle John gave me on my birth day shall be spent at his store on a silk dress."

THE wife of Mr. Patrick Brennan, carpenter, died very suddenly at her residence in this city on Saturday. At 12 o'clock she was engaged at her household duties when she suddenly became afflicted with a rush of blood to her head, and expired from its effects shortly after one o'clock. Mrs. Brennan was a woman of exemplary character and deservedly respected by all who knew her.

WE learn that Henry Longworth, Esq.—whose name is so widely and creditably known in connection with the importation of improved breeds of sheep—has obtained three splendid pure bred rams from among the best flocks of Ontario. They are of the Cotswold, Shropshire and South-down breeds, and are well worth seeing. This Island is better adapted to sheep than to almost any other farm animal; and we are glad that Mr. Longworth has taken the lead in improving them, and thus opening the way to a lucrative export trade.

The best place to get Cigars, Tobaccos, Pipes and Smokers' Requisites, is at the Apothecaries' Hall, DesBrisay's Corner.

SIXTEEN truckmen appeared on summons before the Stipendiary Magistrate this forenoon, for the non-payment of their respective license fee. They all complained of a dullness in business, but hoped that the fall shipping would make times brisk. They were each ordered to pay a fine of five cents and costs, and immediately renew their licenses. An auctioneer was also summoned for the non-payment of his license fee. As he paid the fee after receiving the summons, he was only fined five cents and costs. A baker was also summoned for not stamping his bread, but the summons was dismissed.

ON Saturday evening, a horse that had seen better days, was led by its master to the outskirts of the city. They walked at a funeral-like pace—a melancholy looking pair. Arriving at the north end, the sorrowful looking quadruped stopped as though the order of ceremony required it, and falling on its side, stretched at length and gave up the ghost without a sigh save that of a hovering crow which had long been watching for a meal off the once noble animal's lean and lanky carcass. As the poor animal fell it was deserted by its unfaithful master, who allowed the carcass to remain a nuisance to the neighborhood until to-day, when the officers of the law compelled him to give it a decent burial.

Boschees German Syrup

can now be purchased right at home, it is the most successful preparation ever introduced to our people. It works like a charm in all cases of Consumption, Pneumonia, Hemorrhages, Asthma, severe Coughs, Croup and all other Throat and Lung Diseases. No person has ever used this medicine without getting immediate relief, yet there are a great many poor, suffering, skeptical persons going about our streets with a suspicious cough, and the voice of consumption coming from their lungs, that will not try it. If you die, it is your own fault, as you can go to your druggist and get a sample bottle and try it; three doses will relieve any case. Regular size only 75¢.
