

Wins Baking Honors at Hants County Fair

A big hug for Mom! Her cooking not only keeps a fella running for his high chair—but it wins prizes at the fair as well! This winsome young winner at America's oldest agricultural fair is Mrs. Harold Curry, of Curry's Corner, N.S. (An ex-teacher who takes farm and house work in her stride, Mrs. Curry knows the value of top-grade ingredients in baking... notably Fleischmann's Yeast. "I can compare Fleischmann's with no other yeast," says Mrs. Curry. "When I started baking breads, I started with Fleischmann's. I found it so reliable that I have never used anything else... Conventional, too, is the Fleischmann's Fast Rising Dry Yeast, for that extra baking of rolls for a surprise treat."

That's it exactly! Because Fleischmann's Yeast is so reliable, so uniformly fast rising, the majority of prize-winning bakers will use no other.

COURT OF APPEAL.—In a two-day session here Tuesday and Wednesday the Court of Appeal heard argument on an appeal from a motion and adjourned to a date to be fixed. In the case of John Lemman Campbell and Edgar Reeves, plaintiffs, vs. The British American Oil Co. Ltd., defendant, and Kenneth Austin Ford, third party, Mr. W. E. Bentley, K.C., counsel for the plaintiffs, appealed against an order of Mr. Justice M.R. McGuigan refusing to rescind an ex parte order to add the third party. The original suit concerns a claim for $10,000 damages for a fire loss following the delivery of a drum of gasoline instead of fuel oil. The third party is claimed by the defendant company to be its agent in Summerside and to be bound to indemnify it for such a claim. Mr. D. L. Matheson, K.C., is counsel for the defendant and Messrs. D. O. Stewart, K.C. and A. H. Peake for the third party.

BRANTFORD, Ont., June 13 (CP).—A woman who preferred to remain unidentified tripped in a hole on a downtown sidewalk three months ago, suffering a broken wrist. Tuesday, she tripped and skinned her nose. Same hole.

Gallant - Lund Nuptials

A very pretty wedding took place at St. Dunstan's Basilica on May 24th when Margaretta Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Parker Lund became the bride of John Anthony, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marin Gallant of Wellington.

Before the altar banked with flowers, Rev. Patrick McMahon officiated at the ceremony and also celebrated the Nuptial Mass with the bride's brother, Parker, as altar boy. The Girl's Choir, of which the bride is a member, were in attendance under the direction of Mr. Leo Chaisson with Mrs. Joseph Dougan presiding at the organ. Mr. Frank McIntyre was soloist.

Given in marriage by her father.

er, the bride was attended by her two sisters, the Misses Charlotte and Joyce Lund. Mr. Edward Blanchard was best man and the ushers were Messrs. Edward Creighton, Clement Wight and Joseph Hughes. The bride wore a gown of ivory satin and chantilly lace, the bodice having a high neckline with long sleeves ending in points over her wrists. Her finger tip veil of tulle illusion was held in place by a crocheted Juliet cap. Her bouquet was of red roses.

Miss Charlotte Lund, as maid of honor, wore a dress of mauve taffeta, with Juliet cap and carried a nosegay of pink roses. Miss Joyce Lund, bridesmaid, wore sea foam green net with taffeta skirt and Juliet cap. Her nosegay was of yellow roses.

The wedding reception was held at the Queen Hotel with the Hon. J. Wilfred Arsenault as toast master.

Immediately afterwards the bride and groom left for a honeymoon in the Annapolis Valley. For travelling the bride chose a tan and accessories to match. Her corsage was of white carnations. Upon their return they were tendered a reception at the groom's home in Wellington.

Fit Punishment

I hope your Mounties form a net with mesh so fine, perhaps 'twould hold a Louie, polluting streams, with silken net for traps.

And once he's caught, no cash could pay his fine or even bail. But guard him well and then proceed to cast him into jail.

And once in jail, his diet, no bread or meat but salty fish. No liquid and no water, to feed his heart felt wish.

And when his throat is parched and dry, with tongue now hanging out.

Perhaps his lesson he would learn, the Sport of catching Trout.

— James L. Crounse, Brookline, 46, Mass.
