Dervishes Moving South.

Reading Room

Government of the House of Commons received the following telegram:—
"A boat which left Rejaf, on the Bahrei-Jebel, on May 25th, was fired upon by a Dervish reconnoitring party while endeavoring to approach the shore.
"The boat contained four Europeans including Lieutenants Walhousen and Coppjeans. These latter jumped into the water, and were drowned, while of the other two one was killed and the other severely wounded."
On July 27, there was published a private letter from Kampala, Uganda, in which it was stated that the Belgin officers on the Toru frontier had appealed for aid to the British East Africa Protectorate against the dervishes from Khartoum, who were threatening the Congo State outposts.
The writer further said that should the dervishes from Khartoum join Manjema and the Soudanese mutineers, and turn their attention to British East Africa, there was no force in Toru, Udyora, and Uganda to prevent them sweeping the country right up to Victoria Nyanza and the walls of Kampala.

Activity at Atbara.

AABARA, Aug 24.—The first squadron of the 21st Lancers has arrived, the horses having stood the journey well.
They immediately crossed to the left bank of the river, up which they will march to the point of concentration. A camel transport for their forage has been held in readiness here.
The second half of the 18th Egyptian Battalion have passed El-Abeidieh, and should reach here on Sunday.
With their arrival the Egyptian part of the force will be complete.
The steady coming of British troops during the last week has quite transformed the camp. It is now full of grey shirted fatigue parties, pitching hospital tents, or tugging at baggage camels. The place rings with British bugles and the voices of British sergeants.
All the troops are fit, there being but few cases of sun fever—a complaint which lasts only twenty-four hours.

Ploughed up So vereigns.

MILAN, Mich., Aug 25.—Mr. John Pilbam, a farmer living three miles south of this village, ploughed up on his farm twenty-six English sovereigns and two half-sovereigns. The dates of the half-sovereigns are 1817 and that on the sovereigns are 1811. He believes there are many more in the same place. Different theories are advanced regarding the finding of the coins and how they came there.

GREAT BRITAIN AND RUSSIA

Keen Public Concern in England

DISSATISFACTION EXPRESSED FOR GOVERNMENT POLICY.

Many Rumors Current, The Situation Becoming Serious.

[SPECIAL TO THE EXAMINER.]
LONDON, Aug 26.—The effect of the Liberal success in Southport, coupled with the growing trouble in the far East, has been productive of keen public concern, and a crisis is freely predicted.

Lord Salisbury is the man on whom all eyes centre.
All the papers agree that Lord Skelmersdale's defeat expresses the electors' dissatisfaction with Salisbury's Chinese policy.

The Daily Chronicle and the Daily News declare that it sounds the knoll of the Conservative Government.

LONDON, Aug 26.—A despatch from Shanghai also reports that the entire available British fleet in Chinese waters has arrived at Wei-Hai-Wei to support the demands of Sir Claude McDonald, the British Minister to China.

There is no confirmation of the report obtainable from any source.

LONDON, Aug 26.—A despatch cabled from London to New York to the effect that Lord Salisbury before leaving for France informed Her Majesty that in the critical state of relations with Russia he must resign unless her frequently expressed veto upon the prosecution of diplomacy to the point of war during her life time was withdrawn and he was given an absolutely free hand, and that thereupon the ministry made definite proposal to Russia, which in effect amounted to an ultimatum, is an elaboration of current gossip of clubs and sensational weeklies and it is obviously impossible of confirmation or denial. Circumstantial evidence all goes to disprove the statement.

Salisbury has been spending his vacation since Parliament adjourned in France.

Col. Sauderson, the Permanent Under-Secretary of Foreign Affairs and other officials of the Foreign Office, and likewise the Russian Ambassador to Great Britain have been on the continent for a long time. Apparently there are no important negotiations pending.

England has abandoned the "open door" policy because Russia closed the door in her face, as has been pointed out and retreated to the policy of "spheres of influence," because it is necessary to appear to have some Chinese policy.

Two British ships were withdrawn from Chinese waters yesterday.

The Ideal Wife.

Pure, chaste and refined "yet not too bright or too good for human nature's daily food;" educated and fond of good literature, yet domestic and fond of home, amiable, gentle and in love with her husband, yet spirited and not languishing with love; neat, yet not fastidious; witty yet not sarcastic; faithful, tender and true through life to him, yet not gushing or selfish in her devotion; considerate and charitable in all things, yet not easily imposed upon; cheerful and optimistic, yet not flippant nor wanting in deep feeling; self-reliant and strong-minded, but not bold, mannish nor abstinence; healthy and vigorous in constitution, yet without the least suggestion of grossness. Add to this symmetry of form and beauty in feature, and as the diamond is to the ring, to crown all these qualities of mind and heart with an unfaltering trust in and devotion to God, as incarnated in Jesus Christ, and to my mind you have the ideal wife.—Louisville Post.

FIREMEN BURNED IN BOSTON

[SPECIAL TO THE EXAMINER.]

BOSTON, Aug. 26.—During a fire in the glove factory of M. P. Kent & Co., on Fifth Street, last night, sixteen firemen were blown down a flight of stairs by a hot air explosion, and all severely burned, and some, it is thought, fatally burned.

They were taken out with difficulty by their comrades and taken to the hospital.

FRENCH CRUISER REPORTED LOST.

[SPECIAL TO THE EXAMINER.]

PARIS, Aug. 26.—The papers here report that the French armored cruiser Bruix, has foundered in the Indian Ocean, but the rumour is not confirmed.

A Swindler Caught.

OTTAWA, Aug. 25.—R. L. Middleton, self-styled railway promoter, who has been imposing upon the people of Woodstock and Brantford, has been identified as a 'fakir' named Macdonald, who, by false pretences, obtained information and land patent forms from the Interior Department. Macdonald came to Ottawa last fall, presenting credentials from Washington, and represented himself to be from Yukon. His evident object was to get possession of official papers for use in negotiations with Boston capitalists for the propagating of a Yukon project. He did succeed in securing several forms, but through signing the name of William Ogilvie to a telegram sent to Boston he was detected as a swindler. Macdonald made hasty retreat from Ottawa. Some Woodstock people think Middleton is none other than the alleged bigamist Macdonald, of Chicago, who married Maggie Thomas, and it is claimed that she is the wife he has now at Burford.

A Harvest Failure.

LONDON, August 25.—The St. Peterburg correspondent of the Times says uneasiness is felt over the repetition of last years failure of the harvest. In districts, province of Kazin and largely in the provinces of Samara, Saraloff, Simbirsk, Viatka and Perm the crops are almost worthless. Even the landed gentry are beginning to ask the government for relief and the prospect of a famine is most grave. The ministers of the interior and finance are sending out agents to make inquiries and to purchase corn. Zemstovs are bestirring themselves to meet the situation. It is reported that in some districts the peasantry are breaking into the communal granaries, and helping themselves.

The Conservative Leader.

SYDNEY, August 25.—Sir Charles Tupper has returned to town, having visited Gabarus, Grand Mira, Marion Bridge and Mira Ferry. He was presented with addresses from each of the above places, to which he made suitable replies. The meetings were most enthusiastic, the people, regardless of politics, joined hands and gave the grand old man a right royal welcome along the line.

Today he and Lady Tupper have been invited by the people of North Sydney for an excursion on the Bruce.

Germany's Jealousy.

LONDON, Aug 24.—A despatch to the 'Daily Mail' from Berlin says that Germans are somewhat alarmed by the approaching visit to China of Vice-Admiral Lord. C. Beresford who is going out as the representative of the British Associated Chambers of Commerce to study trade conditions and other matters. The 'Correspondenz' says: 'It will be the duty of our representatives in East Asia to watch with the keenest attention the steps and acts of Lord Beresford, who sees in Germany the most dangerous rival of British commerce and industry. He is worthy of our attention.'

The Army Officer's Trunk.

The army officer's trunk, which is an article of limited but regular sale in peace times, being sold chiefly to regular army officers, is a stout, well made trunk of rather generous proportions, so divided inside as to afford spaces for both military and civilian attire. There is a place for an officer's chapeau and one for the silk hat of a civilian and room for the different clothing, and the trunk is large enough to admit a sword laid diagonally. A trunk of this sort is made not of sole leather, as might be supposed, to withstand rough wear, but with a rigid frame, so that it can be roped or strapped on to a load or packed with other things piled on it in the exigencies of wagon or other transportation without being crushed or damaged.—New York Sun.

THE INTERNATIONAL COMMISSION

The First Session Strictly Private.

WILL BE ADJOURNED UNTIL THE AUTUMN.

On Account of the Coming Elections in the States.

[SPECIAL TO THE EXAMINER.]

QUEBEC, Aug. 26.—The first session of the International Conference yesterday was strictly private.

On Monday the Commission will meet again, and sittings will be held daily until Friday, when another adjournment will be taken, this time to Sept. 20th, in order to give Dingley a chance to look after his political forces.

The probability is said to be that the Commission will take its time.

The American Commissioners have no desire to have any findings of the Commission used as election matter by the Democrats in the coming elections, and as the last of the fall elections does not take place until early in November, it is unlikely that any definite announcement of the Commission's work will be made until after then.
