Physicians and Nervines BOTH FAILED!

NERVOUS PROSTRATION Of Years' Standing

CURED BY SKODA'S!

GENTS:—Your President, Dr. G. C. Kilgore, will recall the fact that last June when in the City Drug Store in your City, I told him that on account of extreme nervousness I had been unable to attend to business for several years, and that I was then resting from all labor—mental and physical. I was trusting in Nature as a last resort, as Physicians and Nervines had utterly failed in my case. At that time I was troubled with Nervousness so badly that I could not sleep an hour some nights. I would have a crawling or creeping sensation in my limbs, that was more unendurable than any pain. My Brain would feel tired and confused, if I tried to think upon any subject for ten minutes. Dr. Kilgore gave me six bottles of SKODA'S DISCOVERY, and three boxes of LITTLE TABLETS, telling me they would greatly help me and he thought would cure me. I took the medicine according to directions and have seen no symptoms of Nervousness since taking the fourth bottle. I sleep well. Nerves are strong. Eat heartily, and am well. I have told scores what it has done for me. Resp'ly yours,

Portland, Me. I. M. HARMON.

Salisbury Will Retire,

THE QUEEN OBJECTS TO SEND FOR GLADSTONE,

[SPECIAL TO THE GUARDIAN.]

LONDON, July 30.—Balfour has issued a circular to the Government supporters, fixing the debate upon the speech from the throne for August 11, and advising all the members to be present, as a division of the very greatest importance is expected. It is said that many members are urging Salisbury to make the franchise reform the feature of the speech, and if defeated to appeal on it. He is, however, believed to be anxious to retire, and most of the cabinet think it better to rely on an early break up of the Gladstone Government. It is said that the Queen told the Duke of Devon hire that she relied upon him to assist her in avoiding the necessity of sending for Gladstone. The Duke said there was only one alternative. She must send for Gladstone or else abdicate the throne.

INDIANAPOLIS, July 30. — President Pomerly is charged with having misappropriated funds, and also with having used annually fifty thousand dollars which should have gone into the Reserve Account. The matter has caused a great sensation throughout the country, as the society had many branches.

NEW YORK, July 30.—Fifty deaths from heat were reported this morning.

Ranch Horses for England.

OTTAWA, July 27.—Major Moore passed through the city yesterday en route from England to the Northwest, where he has extensive ranching interests. He believes that in England a paying and ready market may be found for ranch horses, but they must be of a more superior class than ranchmen are now giving attention to in the Northwest.

Haggerty's Flyer.

ST. JOHN, N. B., July 30.—President Van Horne and party arrived here yesterday morning and left again in the afternoon for St. Andrews, the special consisting of a baggage car and the president's private car, drawn by the new engine known as "Haggerty's flyer" built at the Canadian Pacific company's shops at McAdam. Driver Tom McKenna held the lever and Van Horne told McKenna to take him to St. Andrews as quickly as possible. The run of 127 miles was made in 2 hours and 39 minutes, including stops, a rate of one minute and a quarter per mile, or 48 miles an hour. On parts of the road over sixty miles an hour were made and between McAdam and Watt Junction the 15 miles were made in 15 minutes.

The Mills in Danger.

NON-UNION MEN WILL NEVER RUN THE CARNEGIE WORKS.

HOMESTEAD, Penn., July 27th.—The policy of the Carnegie company in frightening the men by arresting them was illustrated again today.

The people say that these second arrests show that the company is not acting in good faith. All those who are now out on bail will be rearrested, including Hugh O'Donnell and Burgess McLuckie.

It has just been learned that an attempt to blow up the Carnegie lower union mills in this city was made last Monday. Had the plot not been discovered the loss of life and destruction of property would have been appalling.

One hundred and forty-four men were at work in the building at the time. Few of them knew of their great danger until it had happened.

The engineer in charge of the machinery which operates the plant had left his post a few moments, and the waterman, whose duty it is to keep the guard of the gas, fires and water, left the enclosures to get a breath of air.

When he left the building the gas was burning under the boiler. A two-inch pipe feeds gas to the boilers, and the flow is enormous. When the watchman returned there was no fire under the boilers and steam was going down, yet there was the usual hissing sound of escaping gas. He threw a piece of lighted waste into one of the grates and instantly there was an explosion. The concussion knocked down several men who stood near by, but beyond this did no further damage.

HOMESTEAD, July 27.—Since it became evident that the Carnegie company under the protection of the national guard, are about to successfully operate the mills, prominent members of the advisory committee have been considering ways and means for preventing any successful working of the plant.

One of them today said: "We will not under any circumstances permit those mills to run if there is any agency which may be employed to prevent it.

"We have already selected men who will go into these mills as fast as they can secure employment, who are instructed and sworn to carry out our orders in consummating the policy which we have agreed upon."

"When we are sure there is no longer any hope for us, our representatives in the mills will place explosives where they will do the most harm to the machinery."

"We have definitely determined that these mills shall not be operated by non-union men, and one of the principal ways to prevent it is to either control or wreck the property. I might say a great deal more, but under the circumstances I have gone as far as I dare."

Gladstone Slapped on the Back.

LONDON, July 27.—Mr. Gladstone arrived in this city today. At the Euston station he was given an ovation by thousands. He looked to be in good health, and smilingly acknowledged the reception accorded him.

Later, however, after having taken his seat in an open carriage, he betrayed some symptoms of nervousness when an eagar partisan crowded his way to the side of the carriage and began slapping him on the back.

Some of the Good Effects Resulting from Prohibition in Kansas.

SIR,—I promised to furnish you with testimony from Kansas, after the experience of a decade's operation of prohibition, and in relation thereto I deem it necessary to carry the subject back to the time the law was passed.

"On the 2nd of November, 1880, Kansas, by a majority of 8000, adopted the following Constitutional Amendment:

"Article 15 shall be amended by adding section 10 thereto, which shall read as follows:—'The manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors shall be forever prohibited in this State, except for medicinal, scientific and mechanical purposes.'"

But passing over all the devices of the mal-contents, through the courts of law, and other obstacles, with some of which we have had considerable experience in Scott Act campaigns, I come now to evidence that cannot be gainsayed.

In order to show that prohibition has not injuriously affected the material interests of Kansas, ex-Governor St. John makes the following statements:—

For 1880, assessed value of real and personal property in Kansas was, in round numbers, $160,000,000.

For 1881, assessed value of real and personal property was, in round numbers, $170,000,000.

For 1882 (to March 1st) assessed value of real and personal property was $185,000,000.

In 1881 the State built 225 miles of railroad.

In 1880, under LICENSE, the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe R'y earned $8,556,975.94.

In 1881, under PROHIBITION, the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe R'y earned $12,384,549.51.

In 1880, under LICENSE, average number of acres for School Lands sold per day, 151.

In 1881, under PROHIBITION, average number of acres for School Lands sold per day, 196.

In 1881, with the shortest crop for many years, the people were able to pay their taxes, and did pay them up more closely than for any previous year.

Outside of a few distillers, brewers and saloon keepers we have lost no population on account of Prohibition.

In the State Penitentiary in 1878 the average number of prisoners for a month was 17; in 1879, 23; in 1880, 24 2-12; in 1881, 15 3-12.

From the various newspaper comments the following from the Oswego Independent may be taken as a sample:—

"There are those favoring the prohibition who were opposed to it, because they see the good results. We have heard several business men in Oswego this week say it has helped their business already; that men who used to spend their money at saloons are now buying things they need; that others are paying up better; that they feel safer in selling their goods to sober men. Thus good is seen from a business standpoint. We have just as much money, just as much business, except the saloon business, and that had so little connection with legitimate business that its absence is unfelt in trade."

I am now, as heretofore, yours in the fight.

PROHIBITIONIST.

Resolution of Condolence.

At the last meeting of the Excelsior Division, Cornwall, the following resolution of condolence was unanimously carried by a standing vote:

Resolution of condolence to Mr and Mrs Robert Frizzel and family. Moved by Bro H H P Howard, seconded by Bro Jacob Bain,

That we, the members of Excelsior Division, No. 150, in meeting assembled feel deeply the great loss we have sustained in the removal by death of one of our most esteemed and worthy members, Sister Mary A. Frizzel. And we desire to place on record our high appreciation of the many estimable qualities that have always distinguished her in her association with us, and to express our heartfelt sympathy with her parents, and their family in their sad bereavement; and pray that the consolations of our Holy Religion may be vouchsafed to them by our Heavenly Father, that the heart-strings so ruthlessly snapped by the iron hand of death, and left bleeding and sore, may be healed by the loving Saviour, who came to bind up the broken hearts, and who alone has power to sustain in the severe hour of trial, and that at last they may all be brought to the sweet resting place above—

"Far from a world of grief and sin,
With God eternally shut in."

HENRY H. P. HOWARD,
