The SNAPSHOT GUILD

PICTURES AT BEACH AND POOL

taking pictures at the beach, remember that sunlit sand and open water are quite bright. Be careful not to overexpose.

WIMMING pools and bathing beaches are busy places in the summer time—and wherever there is activity, there's a field for your camera.

Since you find a lot of rapid action in these places, the finer camera with fast lens and rapid shutter provides definite advantages. But if you have a fairly inexpensive box camera, you'll find plenty to occupy it, too.

Among the things to picture are: beach games, water sports, diving, sunbathers on rippled sand, and the lull of the seashore—seaside and sunsets.

Be alert though to remember, in taking pictures at the beach, is that sunlit sand and open water are extremely bright. Therefore, exposures can be shorter than when snapping pictures inland. With "chrome" film, 1/50-second shutter speed, 1.6 lens opening is sufficient for beach scenic, and 1/50 second at f.11 suffices for average shots of individuals and small groups. These, of course, are "sunny-day" exposures—on cloudy-bright days, use the next larger lens opening. With a box camera, on a sunny day, use the large lens opening for shots of individuals and groups, and the small lens opening for scenic views.

For shots of fast action, the fine camera is best—but you can also get good pictures with a box camera, if you are action. These occur in most games or sports. Naturally, they don't happen during a dive—so with a slow camera you'll have to pose the diving pictures. Your subject can halt on the end of the board, in proper position to "take off"—and if he does it realistically, the picture will be about as interesting as a genuine action picture.

If you possess a finer miniature camera in the 35-millimeter or No. 328 size, by all means take a roll or two of full-color film along when you go to the beach or pool. Bright beach umbrellas, vivid costumes, blue water, and golden sand make the perfect ideal for full-color photography. And today, it's just about as easy to use full-color film as to take pictures in black-and-white.

TO-NIGHT

"Just Around The Corner" At Capitol

Shirley Temple, playing the principal part in "Just Around the Corner" at the Capitol last night was acclaimed as her best, by a large audience.

There is so much to laugh at and remember and so much to love in the charming little actress that you will want to go again this evening. Shirley is in her happiest role, sharing in her triumph as Charles Farrell, as Shirley's Dad; Joan Davis, as lady-in-waiting to a kennel-full of Park Avenue pooches; Amanda Duff (a promising young newcomer to films) as the girl with whom Farrell is in love; Bert Lahr, as Joan's chauffeur-sweetheart; and the inimitable Bill Robinson, who does a new dance routine with Shirley that surpasses even their sensational "Toy Trumpet" number in "Rebecca".

May Be All-foreign Final In Longwood

(By The Associated Press)
BROOKLINE, Mass., July 21—Adrian Quist, Australian Davis Cup star, today became the first non-American in 14 years to qualify for a Longwood Bowl tennis final when he raced through a 6-0, 6-3, 6-3 victory over Bobby Low, Stanford sophomore.

It is possible that this 47-year-old grass event may wind up with its first all-foreign final in history, for Jack Crawford, another Australian, and Gene Mako, United States Davis Cup doubles player, are the only others left in the men's singles field. They will play their semi-final match tomorrow.

Katherine Winthrop of Boston turned back Mark Arnold of Los Angeles, 6-4, 6-4, and last year's winner, Helen Bernhard of New York, overwhelmed Pauline Betz, indoor titlist from Los Angeles, 6-1, 6-2.

Klein Gives Reason For Improvement

By WHITNEY MARTIN
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK, July 21—All work and no play makes a ball player hittin', which brings us to the case of Chuck Klein, who currently is public enemy no. 1 to National League pitchers.

The big guy was supposed to be pretty well washed up this year. The Phillies kept him riding the bench.

Then he went to Pittsburgh, started to play regularly, and up to today had hit safely in 18 straight games, and yesterday he turned in a catch in right field which would have made Ty Cobb or "This Speaker" blink.

"It's saying every day," he replied when asked why he returned to the form which brought him the league batting championship in 1933.

"I broke a muscle back here," he indicated the rear of his right leg. "When I went to Chicago in 1934, and it bothered me for three years. Last year the Phils used me mostly as a pinch hitter, but this year I reworked in fine shape.

"However, they had a bunch of young fellows they wanted to try, so the first three weeks I didn't play at all. Then when they got another outfielder, they told me that if I could make a deal to stay even for one game, I connected with the Pirates the same day.

Pretty Wedding At O'Leary

The home of Mr. and Mrs. James P. Smallman of O'Leary was the scene of a happy event Wednesday at 7:30 p. m., when, in the presence of sixty invited guests, their daughter, Helen Elizabeth was united in marriage to Frank Hardy of Elmdale, Prince Edward Island. Dr. A. Avery Gates of Summerside officiated. Miss Dorothy LeBel was maid of honor and Mr. R. J. Harold Horne of Bloomfield was the groom's attendant. While Mrs. A. Avery Gates, sister of the bride, played the "Bridal Chorus" from "Lohengrin," the bride entered leaning on the arm of her father who later gave her away. Preceding the bride, little Miss Anita (Smallman) youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Smallman, becomingly dressed in a gown of powder blue, as flower girl, strewn flowers and flower petals.

The home was tastefully decorated in color scheme of pink and white. Mr. Lockable Dennis was usher.

The bride was becomingly attired in lace effect suit, net over pink taffeta with bridal wreath of orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of white snap dragons and maiden hair fern and wore a necklace of pearls. This was followed by the time honored charivari in which more than a hundred of the neighbors and friends participated.

The bride is a graduate of the School of Nursing of the Prince County Hospital and for a number of years faithfully and effectively performed the duties of a nurse both in the hospital and in private duty.

For travelling the bride was attired in a color scheme of sand with brown accessories. The happy couple will remain in Summerside until the end of the week, and have the best wishes of their many relatives and friends in various sections of Prince Edward Island. S.

Expect Stern Battle In Test Match

(Canadian Press Cable)
MANCHESTER, England, July 21—INDICATIONS point to a second cricket test between England and the West Indies developing into a stern battle between opposing bowlers. Unless conditions improve rapidly the second test is expected to start tomorrow on a wicket that will keep batsmen on the defensive.

Heavy rains during the week have made the wicket at old Trafford soft and in the absence of wind and sun it is drying slowly. England goes into the match—the second in a series of three—favored by virtue of its eight-wickets victory in the inaugural test at Lord's a month ago.

Two changes have been made in the team to represent the Mother Country and the same number of substitutions are likely in the West Indian eleven although the tourists' team has not been definitely decided.

Red Sox Consolidate Position

The Red Sox took a strangle hold on first place in the Summerside Town League last evening by winning their 9th victory over last year's champions the Pioneers. The Sox have only to win 50 percent of their remaining games to finish in first position.

Their victory was a 4-1 triumph over the Pioneers. The Sox were clean out although the Sox blew up in the final frame and allowed the Pioneers 4 unearned runs. The tying runs were on ground and third when Landry grabbed Millman's pop up to end the game.

Jack Schurman the towns no. 1 rating pitcher was sent in to do mound duty for the Pioneers against the League leaders for his initial start of the season. The Sox got to him for 9 hits of which 5 were for extra bases. Arsenault was nipped for 3 singles which were well scattered and tight fielding in the 8th would have left the Pioneers with only 3 runs.

The Sox made big innings of the 4th and 6th. A triple 2 singles and a fielder's choice produced 3 hits and doubles and a single drove in 4 runs in the 6th. The Pioneer outfield was minus the services of their stellar fielder, Larkin. Dave Under went a serious abdominal operation in the City Hospital on Thursday morning and will be out for the remainder of the season. The Sox absentees were Crossman and Wilson. Al Clow led the batting assault with 2 doubles and a single in 4 trips closely followed by Donnie who connected on 2 triples and a double in 5 trips. Clow collected 2 for 4 as did Pope for the Pioneers. As one would glean from the narrative the Phils used well played with the exception of a few spots. This is heartening to those who have done so much to try and have done so smoothly. It is to be hoped that last night's game will serve as an example for the remainder of the season. Don't forget that the Sox are expected to meet the Kensington squad in Summerside. S.
