THE ALASKA BOUNDARY.

Probable Action of the Quebec Conference in the Matter.

OTTAWA, Sept. 10.—The informal discussion of the Alaska boundary matter at Quebec last week went to show that the countries are as far apart as the two poles both as to facts and conclusions on this matter of the Alaska boundary. This news comes from two different sources, either one of which is perfectly reliable.

The Montreal Witness correspondent was informed that all the Quebec conference will do in the matter is to provide for its final adjustment by the appointment of an independent tribunal. There is an abundance of material available in the survey reports of both the American and British surveyors to serve for guidance in the regulation of this question. This, then, is one of the differences upon which the commissioners at Quebec are in a position to treat.

Concerning the question of inshore fisheries and the reported desire of the United States to be allowed to share therein, it can be stated positively on the authority of one of the commissioners that the subject was not so much as mentioned before the conference, and indeed, as is learned from a reliable quarter, it is a matter of very grave question whether the Americans want and part or parcel in our inshore fisheries.

AN UNUSUAL HONOR

Paid to the Stars and Stripes on Salisbury Plain.

LONDON, Sept. 9.—The Stars and Stripes were raised yesterday with the British Union Jack and the Royal Standard on the marquee erected on Salisbury Plain during the march past of the troops at the end of the army manoeuvres, as a compliment to Col. Alfred Bates, the United States military attaché, and Mr. Henry White, the secretary of the United States embassy, and Mrs. White, who went there by special train, with Lord Wolseley, the commander in chief of the British forces, Prince Christian, the Duke of Connaught and other notables. The foreign military attachés seemed to be surprised at the sight of the American flag.

ASSASSINATION OF EMPRESS OF AUSTRIA.

Killed at Geneva by an Anarchist

WHO WENT THERE TO KILL THE DUC D'ORLEANS

But Failing to do so Killed the Empress.

[SPECIAL TO THE EXAMINER.]

GENEVA, Switzerland, Sept. 12.—The Empress of Austria was assassinated at the hotel Beauvigo, on Saturday afternoon, by an anarchist.

He stabbed Her Majesty with a stiletto. The assassin, upon being interrogated by the magistrate, said he came to Geneva with the intention of killing the Duke D'Orleans, but the latter had already left.

He followed the Duke to Evian, 25 miles northeast of Geneva, on the lake, where he was again unsuccessful.

He then returned to Geneva and learned from the papers of the presence of the Austrian Empress.

Yesterday he saw the valet of the Empress leaving the hotel and going towards the landing.

He inferred from this that the Empress was going to take the steamboat and he hid himself behind a tree. In a few minutes the Empress, accompanied by her lady of honour, appeared and the assassin struck the blow.

LONDON, Sept. 12.—The court circular says: The Queen received last evening with feelings of the utmost consternation the startling news of the terrible crime. The queen mourns profoundly the loss of her Imperial Majesty with whom she had been on terms of friendship for many years. She feels likewise deeply for the honored and bereaved Emperor who had experienced so many trials during his long and beneficial reign.

THE BOAT RACE.

The boat race on the harbor on Saturday afternoon was witnessed by a goodly number of people. The boats were divided into two classes, those under 18 feet and 24 feet. The boats entered were owned by Messrs. Taylor, St. Peter's Island; Hyndman, Lowrie, Crossman, Gillis, Mills and the League of the Cross Band, Charlottetown; Robinson, Judson, and Jordan, Pownal, Dr. S. R. Jenkins and Mr D O M Reddin; started the boats from a line stretching from Connolly's wharf to a schooner some distance away. The sails were hoisted after the starting signal was given. The breeze was favorable. Mr J McCarey was judge of the course and with a party of friends watched the race from the Wm Aitken. The race was three rounds over a six mile course. Capt Lowrie's boat, sailed skilfully by James Hughes, held the lead until the last round when she was passed by Robinson's boat. When within five miles of the finish a heavy northwest squall struck the boats and they were all obliged to lower their sails. Robinson's boat after reefing kept onward, and was the only one of that class to finish within the time limit. The others either dropped out of the race during the squall or lost the limit. In the smaller class, P P Gillis' boat led until she met with a mishap. Judson's and Mills' boats got through the squall within the time limit. The former led but in consequence of a protest was ruled out for having been over the prescribed length. The Reddin cup was thus awarded Mr Mills, and is now on view at Carter's restaurant.

We are requested to state by the boys of the League of the Cross Band that their boat, the Cornet, met with a mishap shortly after starting by losing the centre-board from the rod to which it was attached, making it necessary for her to go home. They are desirous of trying her in another race with the winner or any other 18-foot boat.

The horses of the Royal Canadian Dragoons, to give exhibitions on the Driving Park race course, will arrive by the Boston boat tomorrow.

All is excitement on the Driving Park grounds. The thirty racing stables are filled, and some of the exhibition stables have to be called into requisition.

NEW WESTMINSTER DESTROYED BY FIRE.

Hardly a Building Left Standing.

FIRE STARTED BY SPARKS FROM A STEAMER.

And Literally Destroyed the Whole of the City.

[SPECIAL TO THE EXAMINER.]

VANCOUVER, B. C., Sept. 12.—New Westminster, the chief city on the Fraser River, presents a fearful scene of desolation this morning.

There is not a public building standing in the central portion of the city.

Fanned by a fierce wind, almost a gale, the fire, which started on the waterside by sparks from a steamer, spread with such awful rapidity that ten streets were blazing in three hours, and only smoking ashes mark where the buildings were.

Handsome blocks, banks, churches, etc., went up in smoke.

The cathedral of the diocese is no more. It is known that one woman is dead from shock.

Hundreds of loaves of bread and various other kinds of food have been sent from Vancouver.

Sixty tents and blankets are now being prepared for the sufferers, and clothes are being hurried over.

Not a stone is left standing and every industry but two is wiped out.

Anglo-American Trade.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—The fact that British imports into the United States have fallen off greatly in the last year while American exports to Great Britain have been increased has been announced from time to time during the year, but the full year's figures, just presented by the Treasury Bureau of Statistics, bring to the surface some interesting details not heretofore published. These show that while the exports from the United States to the United Kingdom have increased 12 per cent, the imports from the United Kingdom have fallen off 35 per cent. The exports from the United States to the United Kingdom during the past year were in round numbers five times as much as the imports from the United Kingdom, the figures of the Bureau of Statistics being: Imports from the United Kingdom, $109,138,365; exports to the United Kingdom, $540,860,152.

Warning to farmers.

BERLIN, Ont., Sept. 10.—At Glen Allen while Mr. James Chambers was fixing something in connection with a threshing machine, he was dragged into the cylinder and had his legs and part of his body badly smashed, causing death in a few minutes. He leaves a wife and several small children.

QUELPH, Ont., Sept. 9.—A farmer named James Chambers on Tuesday fell into the mouth of a threshing machine at the farm of George Cookman, on the second concession of Peel, and was mangled to death. The deceased was going into the mow from the band cutter's platform when he struck his head on a beam which caused him to stagger and fall back into the cylinder first. The machine was in motion at the time and the unfortunate man was dragged into it. He was terribly mangled when taken out of the machine and death resulted immediately.
