Mr. Gammeil is well known here as one of the best business travellers with whom our commercial life is associated, and is a worthy son of Nova Scotia, whose hand turns to farming in its season, and business in season and out of season.

THE RACES—THURSDAY.

There was a very large attendance today. The officers of the course were the same as yesterday.

The seventh heat of the 2 24 class, unfinished yesterday, was trotted at 1 30 p m, Rock Farm Grace winning in 2.22, Brazilian second, Bilmout third. The race was therefore won by Grace, Brazilian second place, and Bilmout third.

2.28 CLASS.

The second heat was a procession. After rounding the first turn Ben Hal took the lead, Dash second, Parkwood third, Tansy fourth, Bessie Rampart fifth. They finished in this order. Time, 2.22.

The starters were Tansy, Parkwood, Jack, Ben Hal, Bessie Rampart.

Ben Hal took the lead in the first heat, and held it. Dash was second till under the wire in first half when Parkwood by good racing took his place, Jack broke in last half, coming in third, Tansy fourth, Bessie Rampart fifth. Time 2.23.

FREE-FOR-ALL.

Arclight had the pole in this race, Lina Belle next and Warren Guy outside. Minnie and Parkland were drawn.

In the first heat Arclight led until the end of the first half, when Lina Belle went ahead, winning about five lengths ahead of Arclight. Warren Guy behaved badly and came in third, about a length behind Arclight. Time 2.20.

The second heat was hotly contested, all the horses fighting hard for first place. Warren Guy finished first, Lina Belle and Arclight coming in neck and neck a few feet behind. Arclight was given second place. Time 2.22.

BORN.
