TORONTO (CP) — The stock market closed irregularly higher Monday after a session of moderate trading in which uraniums spurted ahead, led by Stanrock and Pronto.

Base metals and western oils were stronger on index while golds eased slightly.

Stanrock was the feature in morning activity, bouncing ahead to $2.30 in heavy trading. It closed at $2.28, a gain of 25 cents. Pronto had a similar rise to $4.50 while senior uraniums added fractions. Several other low-priced uraniums gained some ground.

Senior base metals had a few more fractional gains than losses. Coppers and golds showed no definite trend. Western oils had several moderate gains in both high and low-priced groups.

Index changes: Golds off .13 to 77.67; base metals up .17 to 148.76; western oils up .57 to 124.74.
