DON'T MISS THEM.—The Montreal Weekly Star and the WEEKLY EXAMINER both papers from now until the end of the year for 20 cents.

ACCIDENT TO THE TIBER.—The steamship Tiber broke her condenser when off Halifax Sunday, on her way from St. John to Sydney. The damage is not serious. She came in under her own steam.

FOR FRIENDS ABROAD.—The Weekly Examiner is the most interesting thing you can send them. It contains all the P. E. Island news of the week, is bright and readable and a welcome visitor whenever received. The Montreal Weekly Star is so well known that when we say you may have both papers for 20c for a three months trial subscription, post-paid to any address, you will know what a splendid chance is offered to get a newspaper bargain. Address, or call at the Examiner Office.

REAL ESTATE OFFICE.—Mr J. J. Johnston, Barrister of this city, has opened a real estate office in the Stamper Block. In the first column of the second page of today's issue will be found a list of properties for sale and exchange and also a list of houses to let. This column will be devoted to advertising the properties of the agency. Parties wishing to purchase or rent houses in the city would do well to peruse the said column. Landlords desiring good tenants will find it to their advantage to patronize this agency.

RATHER A SAD CASE.—A Moncton despatch says: The police had a sad case on their hands Sunday night. A young girl hailing from Clyde Station, P. E. I., who had been turned back at Vanceboro by the United States authorities on account of her critical condition, found herself alone on the streets, and, being refused admittance to the alms house at first, was given protection at the police station. The girl, it seems, left home recently to look for her unfaithful lover in Boston. She was finally admitted to the alms house and will be sent back to her home in P. E. Island.

A LARGE BARN.—One of the largest barns in Annapolis county is being erected by Robie Morton. It is 100 feet long, 45 feet wide with 16 foot post and eight foot of brick wall. The cellar extends under the entire building and is divided lengthwise into three parts. A manure pit with cement floor extends the whole length of the east side under the stable. In the middle, under the barn floor is a store room for vegetables, fruits, etc. On the west side three large bays extend to the ground. On this same side on the first floor are a granary 19 feet by 16 feet, and a horse stable of the same size.—Halifax Herald.

THE FIRST TEACUPS

Even after tea was introduced into Europe and had come into general use teacups were scarce. At the same time coffee was introduced; but, apart from Constantinople, the first coffee cups in Europe date back only as far as 1645 in Venice, 1659 in Paris, 1652 in London and 1694 in Leipsic. From the first, however, the conventional oriental coffee cup, without stem or handle, was little used, and in Germany not at all. The Chinese teacup was used for tea, coffee and chocolate as well. Specimens of porcelain were undoubtedly introduced into Europe in the middle ages, yet not till the sixteenth century were cups imported from China in any great quantities, and even then it was as articles of vertu. Most of those found their way back into China again, as collecting porcelain is a lasting fad there, and high prices are paid for good specimens. The collection of Chinese porcelain, if only the genuine specimens are desired, requires immense study and knowledge, as the Chinese are skillful imitators and put numerous falsifications on the market.

AN OLD AND WELL TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind, colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, and take no other kind.

In view of the herculean efforts which now appear to be necessary to draw attention to the millinery displays, we have been seriously thinking of calling for Sousa's or Dan Godfrey's band, but find that Miss Murphy and her staff are as popular as ever, and that they have all they can attend to. On some account our millinery goods were delayed, but will be here and ready for your inspection on Monday, when we will show the very latest millinery trimmings and ornaments. Miss Murphy, who has been absent visiting the millinery displays, has returned with the latest millinery ideas, and will please you as before. Don't forget; all our millinery goods will be ready on Monday.—W A Weeks & Co.

EARLY WHIST

Mrs. Hervey writes on Oct. 25, 1697, to her husband, that his "four sisters have been hear this afternoon, and as they never come unattended, brought with them Mr. Ga—, Mr. Down— and Mr. Bo—. Part of them staid and played at whish (sic) tel this moment, which is past 11 a'clock."

Twenty years later (March 18, 1717) Lord Hervey, as his title was then, writes to the Rev. Mr. Thomas Foulkos, the tutor of Mad Tom Hervey, at Oxford, about that son's gambling propensities. He is to follow the example of his "good grandfather Hervey, who, pray tell Tom, never played at any game but whist, and at that only in Christmas time for sixpence a corner."

Lady Bristol was at Bath in April, 1728, and was then in the center of the world of whist. "Poor Bishop Nevell," she writes, "can scarce be reckoned among the living, being (in my opinion) worse than dead. They say he sits at Lindsey's with one to hold his cards and another to give him snuff. Palsey and gout have brought him to this miserable condition." On May 1 she cheerfully informs her husband that the diversion of the evening is the puppet show. "Betty is gone with Lady Torrington. The whiskers have promised me some diversion after 'tis over."—Notes and Queries.
