

NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

Special Despatch to Daily Examiner.

LONDON, May 3. The Right Hon. Mr. Cross, the Home Secretary, in a speech at Preston yesterday said, referring to the majority of the Conservatives in the House of Commons: "I am quite certain, if there was an election at the present - which I should deprecate to the utmost - and I hope there will not be another election until the proper course of Parliament has run. Our majority at the present moment would be vastly induced."

ATHENS, May 3. It is officially stated that the negotiations between the British Consuls and the insurgents for a cessation of the insurrection in Thessaly have been successful, the Consuls promising, upon the authority of Lord Salisbury, that the Greek interests will in no way suffer; but on the contrary, will be fairly represented before Europe.

MONTREAL, May 3. The latest returns have changed the condition of things political, considerably. The Ministerial party - the Joly - now stand with 31 supporters, and the Opposition - the DeBoucherville - with 31, with only two constituencies to hear from. A tie in Rimouski will probably give the Government another supporter.

Birth. At Edgecumbe House, on the 3rd inst., the wife of George Peake, Esq., of a son.

Died. On Thursday evening, the 2d inst., of congestion of the lungs, after a few days illness, Esther, wife of the late William Douse, Esq. Funeral will leave her late residence at 2 p.m., on Monday for the railway station; train will leave for Cemetery at 2:30 punctually. Friends and acquaintances are respectfully invited to attend.
