Hospital Auxiliaries Hold Annual Sessions In N.B.

Guest speaker at the opening session of the 23rd annual meeting of the Maritime Hospitals Auxiliaries Association held recently in Moncton was Mrs. W. H. Bennett of Dartmouth, N.S., director of volunteer services of the Halifax County Hospital, who outlined the importance of the volunteers, as ambassadors, in maintaining and extending the charitable work of hospitals — widespread goodwill can not be measured in dollars and cents.

Besides raising money for equipment, members of the various auxiliaries spent much time in visiting and distributing books and treats to patients. They also assisted the hospitals with admission of patients, entertaining children, reading and writing for those unable to do so themselves, and provided gift shops and mobile carts for the convenience of the patients and visitors.

Highlights of the opening session were the reports of the various auxiliaries of the Maritime hospitals. Seven of the P.E.I. auxiliaries reported a membership of 316 members and $16,976.66 in funds raised. Reports of other Maritime auxiliaries were given on membership and funds raised. Besides raising money for equipment, members of the various auxiliaries spent much time in visiting and distributing books and treats to patients. Dropped Sugar Cookies Hot or Iced Coffee or Tea. Milk Measurements level; recipes for 6

TOMATO - CELERY-BEET SALAD

1/2 c. not-sweet French dressing
6 slices tomato 1/2" thick
1/2 c. small - diced celery
2 tbs. thin cross - sliced scallions
1/2 c. canned sliced beets, julienne

Romaine lettuce leaves
Brush 2 tbs. French dressing over tomato slices; combine remainder with celery and scallions. Refrigerate at least 15 min. To arrange, place tomato slices on platter. Top with celery and scallions. Garnish with the beets, julienne. Ring with Romaine leaves.

DROPPED SUGAR COOKIES

1/2 tsp. salt
1/2 c. margarine
1 c. sugar
1 large egg, beaten light
1 c. buttermilk
1/2 tsp. baking soda
2 tsp. baking powder
3/4 c. sifted flour
2 tsp. vanilla, or any flavoring desired

Measure salt and margarine into 2 qt. saucepan. Heat until melted and frothy. Stir in sugar, then egg and buttermilk. Sift baking soda, baking powder and flour together and add. Stir in flavoring and beat well. The mixture will be quite thick.

Oil a large cookie sheet. Drop batter on by heaping teaspoons, spacing 1" apart, to allow for spreading. Bake 15 min. in mod. oven, 375 degrees F. or until lightly browned.

Note: Before baking, the cookies may be prettied by coloring each with a raisin; or a half nutmeg; or 1/4 a pitted pasteurized date; or a cluster of 3 shelled roasted peanut meats. Mesdames et Mademoiselles: To flambe (that is to flame) a food makes a simple dish elegant, and turns a gourmet food into a spectacular. In any case, a flambe calls for the use of spirits to produce the flame. Whatever the kind or kinds chosen, remember that all the alcohol burns away, only the caramelized flavor from the spirit remains.

For sweet flambes which will discuss today, brandy or light rum is often combined with a liqueur.

Advance Preparation Have everything ready in advance. The food to be flambéed at table or tableside should be on a deep heat - resistant warmed platter, or in a chafing dish, with solid alcohol for fuel. From 2 to 4 oz. spirits is the usual quantity needed to flambe a dish for 6 persons. Always warm the spirits by previously standing a glass containing the right amount in a pan of hot water for at least 5 min.

To Flambe a Birthday Cake: Any birthday cake may be served as a flambe instead of with lighted candles. In this case, pour the warmed brandy around the cake. Do not pour it over the cake, as the blazing spirits will mar the icing. Strike the match, et voila, le flambe!

Salad On A Patio Menu - Tomato, Celery, Beets

"PENNY pinching" means being miserly, indecisive and reluctant to spend.

"Budget wise" means watching all food expenditures; taking time before purchasing to review the advertisements and to compare prices; it also means to investigate "specials" to be sure they really are bargains, and to turn away from them if they are not needed, however low the price.

When It Begins Budget - wise food - purchasing starts before the trip to the supermarket. It depends on a basic menu plan for the week - listing foods you can afford worked out by YOU and including the elements needed for appetizing balanced meals.

If possible, take an older child to market with you to help carry the purchases. Small children should be left at home - not possible? Plan a bit. Perhaps you can shop in the evening when the man - of - the - house, home to take charge. Or a group of mothers in the neighborhood can take turns "minding" the youngsters in their own homes while Mommy markets.
