Hampton and Vicinity

Miss Betty Myers has accepted a position on the nursing staff of the General Hospital at Windsor, Ont.

Miss Dorothy Baxter, daughter of Rev. R. H. and Mrs. Baxter, is spending a holiday season at the Manse. Miss Baxter is on the staff of one of the large hospitals in Saskatchewan.

It is pleasing to learn that those who have been sick in the hospital, and injured through accidents, are making good progress towards recovery, including: Mrs. Rogerson, Mrs. MacLean, Mr. Flood, Mr. MacEachern, Mr. MacKinnon, and Mr. Thomson.

The death in Edmonton Hospital of Mrs. H. H. Lea, formerly Beatrice Lord of Tryon, has cast a gloom in that district. Mrs. Lea was well known in musical circles, active in church, school, and community activities, and leaves a wide circle of relatives to mourn her passing.

Mr. and Mrs. David Ward, weekend visitors, attended the Scottish concert in Victoria Hall. Mr. Ward keeps the name of Harry Lauder fresh in the minds of his listeners as he, like Harry, sings his songs, far and near, which appeal to every Scottish heart.

An overflow audience attended the Scottish Gathering concert in Victoria Hall. Well known talent, both in and outside the district, carried out their parts in their usual capable manner, one of the special numbers being the dancing by a large group of lassies in Highland costume to the accompaniment of Major Roy on the bagpipes. Proceeds are for school improvements.

Friends of Mr. Edward Boswell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Boswell, are pleased to learn that he is recovering from an attack by a cross animal on his farm. It is understood that Mr. Boswell was thrown many feet in the air on the horns of this animal, and miraculously escaped by rolling underneath a fence close to the scene of the attack.

Included among the purchasers of modern implements and machinery in the district are: Mr. Mark Cameron, potato picker, grader, and bagger; Mr. William Myers, harvester combine; Mr. John Rogerson, harvester combine; Mr. Gordon Dixon, harvester combine. These, together with purchases of binders and tractors, are evidence of progress and prosperity along agricultural lines. —CE
