Due to space limitations, we will not be able to print short stories of more than 500 words. As well, poems that are longer than 50 lines will not be accepted. You could be the next T.S. Eliot, but we simply haven't the space to print Homeric odysseys.

We Want Your Help!

We are fourth year nursing students who are doing our community nursing practice on the UPEI campus. We are trying to develop a health promotion project that will be of benefit to the entire campus, and we need your help! We are interested in your ideas about what are important health related issues to our campus. If you have any ideas or suggestions for us, please feel free to drop them off at the reception desk at Student Services, located in the Robertson Library. Also, if you are interested in meeting with us to discuss your ideas, feel free to drop in to our office at Student Services. We are there Monday to Wednesday from 8:30 am to 4:00 pm.

CORRECTION: An error was made in the caption to the photograph accompanying the Ambassador of Italy story in last week's issue. We don't know who the person in the picture was, but it wasn't Terry Stevenson. Our apologies to both.
