Racy Literature.

A high officer of the Sons of Temperance presenting himself with the smell of grog he had been drinking upon him, at the door of a "Division" for admission, was waited upon by an Irish sentinel, to whom he gave the password when the following passed:

"Sir," said he, "and yez are Mister O'Wright, the Grand Worthy Patriarch of the State of Khaintucky, I do be afther belavin."

"Yes," said Jim, "you are perfectly right my friend; but why do you ask the question?"

"To tell yez the truth, then, sir, and shame the divil," said Pat, "yez do be havin the right password for a Son of Temperance, entirely; but by the Holy Virgin and the blesed Saint Patherick, yez got the wrong smell.

SCHOOL EXAMINATION.—"John how do you parse grandmother?" 'I doesn't pass her at all, but always goes in to get a tart.' 'What is the singular of man?' 'They is singular when they pay their debts without being asked to do it a dozen times.' 'Young women are beautiful. What is it that comes after women?' 'Its the fellers to be sure—they are always after the young women.' 'That will do; now you are dismissed.'

A shabby-genteel young man entered a tradesman's store the other day with his hands crammed in both pockets, as if they were flush with rhino. 'Mr. J.,' said he, 'I believe I am indebted to you sixty two and a half cents, cash, borrowed somewhat about a year ago.' 'Yes, sir,' replied the tradesman, smacking his lips and holding out his hand to receive the ready cash. 'I am glad you have come, for I had almost forgotten it myself.' O! I ne er forget these things,' said the fellow; 'I like to have all things square; so I want you to lend me thirty-seven and a half cents more, which will make it even money.

The art uv becoming uv importance in the eyes uv others, iz not tew overrate ourselfs, but tew cause them tew do it.

Flattery is like kolone water—to be smelt uv, not swallowed.

Living on hope iz like living on wind: a good way tew git phul, but a poor way tew git phat

Many people spend the heft uv their time trying to find the hole where sin got into this world. If two men break through the ice into a mill-pond. they had better hunt for some hole tew git out, rather than git into a long argument about the hole they cum tew fall in.

A young mamma on the important occasion of making her son his first pair of breeches, conceived the idea that it would be more economical to make them of the same dimensions behind and before, so that they might be changed about and wear evenly. Their effect when donned by the little fellow were ridiculous. Papa, at first sight of the baggy garment burst into a roar of laughter and exclaimed, 'Oh, my dear, how could you have had the heart to do it? Why the poor little fellow won't know whether he's going to school or coming home!'

'My dear,' said an affectionate spouse to her husband, 'am I not your only treasure?' 'Yes,' was the cool reply, 'and I would willingly lay it up in heaven.

An old lady living near the quarry in Lee, Mass., picked up an egg the other day on the ground frequented dy ducks. took it home, and boiled it for her son's dinner. After boiling it five minutes she thought that it was not done, and returned it to the pot for fifteen minutes, and then declaring it needed a 'divil of a bilin," boiled it thirty minutes more; then losing her patience, dashed it to the floor, when she discovered that it was a China 'nest egg.'

Quite a joke happened to one of the doctors the other day. He ordered some very powerful medicine for a sick boy, and the father, not liking the appearance of it, forced it down the cat's throat, and when the doctor called again and inquired if the powder had cured the boy, the father replied,

'No, we did not give it to him.'

'Good heavens!' said the doctor, 'is the child living?'

'Yes but the old cat is'nt; we gave it to her!'

The doctor sloped.

A countryman came to one of our hotels, and wrote after his name: 'P. O. P. S. F. C.' Here was a title which none but himself understood.

'Pray, my dear sir,' asked the bar keeper, what do all these letters stand for?'

'Stand for! why, that's my title?'

'Yes, sir—but what is your title?'

'Why, Professor of Psalmody and Schoolmaster from Connecticut.'

It is not an uncommon complaint against a newspaper that it 'has'nt life enough.' But a brother editor reports this odd objection made to his paper by a gossip-loving old lady: 'I like your paper very much: I have only one objection to it— it hasn't deaths enough.'

A dandy, at a hotel table, who wanted the milk passed to him, thus asked for it:

'Please send your cow this way.'

To whom the landlady replied as follows:

'Waiter, take the cow down to where the calf is bleating.'

Many young men are so indifferent that they cannot keep any thing but late hours.

A backward spring is produced by presenting a red hot poker at a man's nose.

Marrying a woman for her beauty is like eating a bird for its sweet singing.

One of our city urchins hearing his father read an article in the paper in relation to a new invention of bricks of glass, exclaimed,

'Glass bricks—I know what them is.'

'What are they?' inquired one of the family.

'Tumblers of liquor,' shouted the juvenile.

The Large and increasing sale of these

We were satisfied that they would be appreciated here as elsewhere, and that the reality of the advantages offered to wearers of our beautiful lenses, viz.: the ease and comfort, the assured and readily ascertained improvement of the sight, and the brilliant assistance they give in all cases, were in themselves so apparent on trial, that the result could not be otherwise than it has, in the almost general adoption of our Celebrated Perfected spectacles by the residents of this locality.

With a full knowledge of the value of the assertion, we claim that they are the most perfect optical aids ever manufactured. To those needing Spectacles, we afford at all times an opportunity of procuring the best and most desirable.
