His many friends will be sorry to hear of his departure from our city, and wish him every success wherever he may be called to labor.

Mr. J. A. Nicholson, B. A. late Superintendent of Education for this province has received and accepted an offer of the Principalship of the Cote St. Antoine Academy, in the suburbs of Montreal. Mr. Nicholson is at present visiting his friends in Bellefleur, where he is the holder of a large number of the Republicans, and his ability and sound sense expertly fit him for the place. The steamer Carroll left here for Boston at 6 o'clock Thursday evening with a fair cargo consisting principally of canned lobsters and eggs and the following passengers: Mrs. W. Curtis, Miss E. A Moncton despatch says: "There is a strong suspicion that the gang of burglars doing the province are passing the time as operated last year when the series of burglaries occurred in New Brunswick and Nova Scotia. The same night as Barnes & Co's store was burglarized at Salisbury, Geo Chapman's carriage shop was opened and a number of mousing chisels left in the Sackville post office, burglarized Monday morning, were those stolen at Salisbury. It will be remembered a gang operating last year worked on the same lines, stealing tools from one place and burglarizing another in the same locality. It is supposed that the gang at Sackville resorted to arson and are evidently a hard lot. The police of the province should have no difficulty in running down this gang. They will probably be heard from in Nova Scotia village if not scared out by the failure of their plan to burn Sackville postoffice and thus hide the traces of their crime. P. E. I. may have a visit from them also, unless they are captured."
