They were determined that it should exist no longer; and, at the general election, the people returned a majority to establish Responsible Government upon its ruins. Then, afterwards, the gentlemen now in office went back to their constituents, who, in some instances, returned them by a show of hands. The time might come when the people might think that their representatives could best serve their several constituencies, and best further the general interests, by being free from the chains of office—by being single-minded on every subject which might be brought before the Legislature. He had often dreamed on this matter; and ruminated on his dreams too; but neither his dreams nor his cogitations had proved to him that the time for the emancipation of all legislators from the bondage of office was yet arrived. He would, however, ask, with respect to the honorable member, Mr. Macaulay, if he himself, with all the eloquence which he had brought to bear upon the question, was a free and independent member? He (Mr. Mooney) thought he would have to confess that he was not. If he were a free and independent gentleman, he would not be where he then was; for his constituents were amongst the number of the most notorious of determined obstructives; and, guided, as he was, by them, how could he move in any measure of reform—unless, indeed, he should be courageous enough to throw off the yoke, and oppose their views. And, was it at the instigation or suggestion of a gentleman, dictated to and governed by such people as Mr. Macaulay's supporters, that the House was called upon to reverse any part of that system which it had been chosen to establish? Such a proposition as the hon. member's, could not, he (Mr. Mooney) felt certain, have the smallest chance of success in such a house. If the question of excluding certain officials from the Legislature were to be brought forward, the only proper place to determine it would be the Hustings at the next general election. If the present Government, however, continued to act, as they were then doing and had been in the habit of doing, they could not fail, and would have no occasion to fear any adverse agitation. But from what quarter soever the present Government were assailed, they appeared to be impregnable: for, let them make a retrograde movement—let them shew a disposition to fall back on the old obstructive system, and they were propped up by the minority; and, when progress was their object, they were not in the smallest danger of defeat, sustained as, on such occasions, they always were, by a sufficient body of staunch and independent members. The present Government was so peculiarly adapted to resist political storms, that its safety was in no way endangered, let the wind blow from whatever quarter it might. It was indeed a strong Government—stronger than any other of which the North American Colonies could boast—stronger than any of which Great Britain herself could boast: the rocks of Scilly were never more firm; and when it came to be weighed in the people's scales, he hoped it would not be found wanting.

The question was then put on the hon. member's motion; and the House divided—

Yeas—Mr. Macaulay, Hon. Mr. Palmer, Mr. Yeo, and Mr. Montgomery—4.

Nays—Honbls. Mr. Coles, Col. Treasurer, Col. Secretary, Mr. Jardine, Mr. Lord, Mr. Whelan, Mr. Thornton, and Messrs. Laird, Wightman, Clark, Campion, Mooney, Macneill, Fraser, and Davies,—15.

So it passed in the negative.

FOSSIL REMAINS.—We were shown, the other day, a very interesting curiosity, discovered on the farm of Mr. Donald M'Leod, sen., French River, New London, which, when examined, by a scientific Geologist, may throw some light on the formation of this Island. The following extract of a letter is a description of it, and how it was found.

"When he had descended to the depth of 21 feet 9 inches—9 feet of which was solid rock—he discovered the jawbone of an animal embedded in a solid rock, the piece which I examined was 7½ inches in length, 3¼ inches wide at the small end, and 5 inches at the larger end. It contains eight teeth of a round form approaching to oval, and inclined back; the teeth are from 1 to 2 inches in length, the part which contained the marrow, both in jaw and teeth, is completely petrified. From the formation of the teeth the animal evidently subsisted on flesh, and belonged to that class denominated carnivorous. No person that has seen it ever saw a jawbone like it; and what the animal was I think will puzzle the na turalist, but it is evident the class of animals to which it belonged is not now to be found in any of the provinces. It is my opinion that it was an inhabitant of the sea."

We have heard that it is the intention of his Excellency to forward it to Britain to be examined; we would suggest, however, that it need not be sent so far. We have gentlemen in the Colonies able to give as sound and correct an opinion, as regards its deposit and the nature of the animal, as many that are in Britain. Mr. J. W. Dawson, the late Superintendent of Education in Nova Scotia, has spent much of his time in acquiring a practical knowledge of Geology and Zoology, and, we doubt not, his report on the subject would be acknowledged by the first Geologists in Britain. He accompanied Sir Charles Lyell in his tour through Nova Scotia, and has had the highest encomiums passed upon him by that gentleman.

TENANT MEETING.

A Public Meeting was held at Murray Harbour Road, on Friday the 4th inst., for the purpose of forwarding a petition to the House of Assembly, respecting the present circumstances of a large portion of the Tenantry on the Earl of Selkirk's Estate in this section of the Island. After a motion by P. Stephens, Esq., it was resolved, that M. Forbes Esq., take the chair. The Chairman then called on Mr. A. MacNeill, who stated the object of the meeting, and submitted a petition, which was ordered to be read; and with some amendments, was unanimously adopted. It was then resolved, that the following persons be appointed delegates to wait on Benjamin Davies, Esq., with the Petition, viz:—Richard Gill. Esq., Mr. John Enman, and Mr. William MacPhail. After which the meeting separated, amidst loud cheers for Mr. Davies, their representative.

Cove Head, 23d Feb., 1853.

ADDRESS

To Mr. JOHN ROSS, Teacher of Vocal Music.

SIR,—It is with feelings of heart-felt gratitude, that I now address you, on behalf of the Cove Head and Stanhope Singing Class, for the purpose of intimating that they cordially concur in an expression of approbation of your conduct while acting as the Director of our Vocal Class; and, Sir, if we have not progressed to your satisfaction, it must be attributed to a want of susceptibility on our part, and not to a want of efficiency on yours, for—and we trust you will not conceive it to be sycophantic, nor yet approaching to flattery—when we assert, that we consider your qualifications, as a tutor, are not surpassed by any one in the Colony; we are bound to admit, you have had many disadvantages to contend with, as the incommodiousness of the School Room, its want of ventilation, and last, though not least, the annoyance occasioned by outsiders; all these difficulties, Sir, have been surmounted by your meritorious skill, your indefatigable zeal, and your untiring assiduity, and have raised you to a prominent position in our estimation. For all these reasons, Sir, I have the pleasurable duty and satifaction of presenting you with the unanimous thanks of the Cove Head and Stanhope Singing Class for your exertions during the time you were among us.

Wishing you every success in your avocation, and trusting that your vocal powers may never be weakened by the arduousness of your calling, but that they may be daily strengthened in tone, and your proficiency in the sublime art you have chosen as the means of obtaining a livelihood in this present world, may be increased to so high a degree that from being a leader here, you may become a leader in that divine choir, whose songs shall be ever in harmony before the throne hereafter, I beg leave to conclude by conveying to yourself and Mrs. Ross the highest and best wishes of the Committee of the Cove Head and Stanhope Singing Class. By DAVID LAWSON, Chairman.

REPLY.

To the Committee of the Cove Head and Stanhope, Singing Class,
Gentlemen;

It is with feelings of gratitude, not unmixed with surprise, that I received the very complimentary Address you so kindly presented me, and in answering I feel incompetent to do the justice it deserves.

Although the disadvantages under which you laboured were undoubtedly many, yet I am happy to be able to state, that your attention to the lessons, including the practical exercises and the good order you manifested, are sufficient proof of your willingness to be taught, and ability to learn, while your appreciation of my services are more than a reward for any exertions of mine.

In conclusion, Gentlemen, I beg to return you, and through you to the Ladies, my sincere thanks for the many expressions of kindness evinced since I came among you, and your kind remembrance of Mrs. Ross which will ever be gratefully remembered by

Your most obedient servant
JOHN ROSS, &c. &c.

Each Member for the present year, for every Guinea subscribed, is entitled to the following privileges:—

I. To a Copy of the very beautiful Engraving on Steel, of THE KEEPER'S DAUGHTER, after the Painting by Richard Ansdel, Esq., and W. P. Frith, Esq., A.R.S. Engraved by H. T. RYALL, Esq. Size, 19¼ by 16 Inches.

IV. To the chance of obtaining a PAINTING, or other Work of Art, at the Annual General Meeting.

S. A., to be given as Prizes; and would also draw attention to the Plan of the Art Union of Glasgow, which partakes of all the best features of the different systems now adopted by contemporary Associations; for while, on the one hand, a guarantee is afforded, from an experienced Committee purchasing the Pictures, that nothing but Works of Merit will be bought, the Subscribers, on the other hand, have all the advantages of Money Prizes, in having the privilege of selecting from the Works of Art purchased, according to the number of the Prize allotted to them, such Painting, or other Work of Art, as may be most pleasing to them. This plan has been in operation for several years, and has given the most unqualified satisfaction.

The Committee respectfully urge on all friendly to the diffusion and encouragement of Art, not only to honor them by their own support, but to induce their friends also to become Members of the Society, AT AS EARLY A DATE AS POSSIBLE, that the Committee may be enabled to commence their Purchases without delay.

☞ The Engraving of "THE KEEPER'S DAUGHTER," and Specimens of the ETCHINGS by Mr. SCOTT, are on view at GEO. T. HASZARD'S Bookstore, and which the Public are respectfully invited to inspect. The ENGRAVING WILL BE DELIVERED TO SUBSCRIBERS, on Payment of Subscription, in the Spring.
