

MR. AND MRS. RALPH M. ANNEAR

A Very Pretty Wedding Solemnized At Montague

Trinity United Church, Montague, was the scene of a pretty wedding in midsummer when Laurie Colleen, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Colin MacDonald, was united in marriage with Ralph Muttart, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Annear of Lower Montague.

Rev. J.M. Fraser performed the double ring ceremony. The church was decorated with roses and delphinium. The guest pews were marked with tiny red roses.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white silk organza over taffeta, and trimmed with tiny seed pearls and sequins.

A coronet of pearls and sequins held in place by a veil of tulle illusion. She carried a cascade bouquet of American Beauty roses.

Mrs. Richard Campbell was matron of honor. She wore a ballerina length gown of blue nylon with matching hat and carried a nosegay of pink and white carnations.

Miss Eileen MacLure, cousin of the bride, and Miss Eileen Annear, sister of the groom, were bridesmaids. Both wore identical gowns of yellow nylon with matching hats and carried nosegays of white and pink carnations.

Little Miss Ruth Annear and Nancy Clarey were flower girls. They were dressed in pink organdie and carried baskets of sweet peas.

Mr. Kenneth MacDonald, brother of the bride, was best man. Mr. Morley Annear and Mr. John Clarey were ushers.

The wedding music was played by Mrs. L.A. Johnson. During the signing of the register Mr. Malcolm Munroe sang "O Perfect Love."

The bride's mother chose for her daughter's wedding, a dress of pale pink brocaded taffeta, with white accessories and corsage of white carnations.

The groom's mother was attired in silver blue silk with navy and white accessories and wore a corsage of pink carnations. Miss Donna Gillis, cousin of the bride, was in charge of the guest book.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride for one hundred and twenty five guests. The bride's table was decorated with mixed flowers and centered with a three tier wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom.

The toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. M.J. Fraser and responded to by the groom. Mrs. Ed Farquharson and Mrs. Harvey Ross poured. Those assisting in serving were Mrs. Forhan Bears, Miss Mary Farquharson, Mrs. Don Gillis, Mrs. Gwen MacCarron, Miss Jean Ann Munroe, Mrs. John Daley, Mrs. Web Nicholson, Mrs. George Clarey and Mrs. Louise Stewart cut the ices.

Four telegrams of congratulations were read by the best man, from Mr. Monty Annear, Edmonton, Alta, Mrs. William Clark, Steve and Patsy, Ann Arbor, Michigan, Dr. and Mrs. Cameron Annear, Sarnia, Ont.; and Mr. and Mrs. Dalton Watson, Montreal.

For travelling the bride wore a two piece blue suit, with white accessories. Following a honeymoon trip through Nova Scotia, they will reside in Victoria Cross where the bride is teaching school. The groom operates a successful Feed Service in Montague.

Prior to their marriage the bride was tendered a miscellaneous shower in Whim Road Hall by Whim Road and Kilmuir Districts and following the marriage a community shower in Lower Montague Hall.

Where welcome lamps are lit Where little children play, And eager wives recount The happenings of the day,

Where love and faith are found Through loyalty, truth and prayer, And every deed bespeaks That Christ is welcome there.

The future holds no fear E'en though the nations grope, With God to guide them there They still can smile and hope. Until Monday—Diary—Good night.....

GETS TREASURY POST
OTTAWA (CP) — Appointment of Herbert R. Balls as comptroller of the treasury was announced Tuesday by Finance Minister Fleming. Mr. Balls, 48-year-old native of Winnipeg, has been in the finance department since 1931. He has been director of the financial administration and accounting policy division.

BOSUN BOUNCED
LONDON (Reuters) — Five merchant seamen who admitted throwing their bosun overboard were sentenced to six months imprisonment Tuesday for assault. The charges arose from an incident aboard the British vessel Catalina Star off the United States west coast earlier this summer. The bosun swam to a nearby ship.

Small meadow winds sigh about the empty nests on bough and in field, in passing, and mourn for the carefree laughter and loveliness now flown. And while on Island farms amid peaceful surroundings we leap and gather happily, we are
