CATTLE AND SHEEP.—Yesterday morning, says the Journal, Mr. C. A. Macnutt, of Antigonish, shipped to J. A. Leaman & Co., of Halifax, twenty-one head of cattle, some of which weighed 2000 pounds, and another 1400 pounds. He also shipped fifteen sheep by the same boat.

May offers specially favorable circumstances for driving catarrh out of the system, and every sufferer from this loathsome disease should use Nasal Balm for that purpose. Cures when all other remedies fail if the directions are faithfully adhered to. A single bottle will convince you of its merit. Sold by all druggists.

OVERS NOW.—The schooner L. & S., Captain Walter Rowe, arrived here from Halifax yesterday morning with a full cargo. She will load with produce for St. John's, Nfld., and is expected to leave for that port on Monday. The owner as well as sailing master of the L. & S. His brother William sails with him tomorrow.

PROVINCIAL ASSOCIATION MEETING.—At the annual meeting of the Provincial Rifle Association, held in the Stipendiary Magistrate's Courtroom yesterday afternoon, Lt.-Col. Irving was unanimously re-elected president, and Lt.-Col. Dogberry and Major McLeod were elected vice-presidents for Queen's, King's and Prince Counties respectively. Captains Cooper, Stewart, Weeks, Davison, Longworth and Crockett, Quartermaster Davison, Lieutenant Stewart and Assistant Surgeon were elected members of Council. A resolution was voted by the meeting to send a team to represent the association in the inter-maritime competition to be held at Halifax next month. It was also decided that the council arrange for holding an annual prize meeting of the association on or about the 23rd July next. It was also decided to memorialize the Minister of Militia with a view to securing for this district permanent headquarters for a rifle company. It was agreed that this year citizens should not be called upon to subscribe to rifle companies as heretofore, but an effort will be made to increase the funds of the association by collections from the general public. A hearty vote of thanks was tendered Colonel Dogberry for his very successful services as range officer during the past year. The next annual meeting of the association will be held on the first Wednesday in March next.

Death of Senator Haythorne. OTTAWA, May 7. Senator Haythorne died at seven o'clock this morning.

The Tyler-Tupper Controversy. LONDON, May 7. The controversy between Tyler and Tupper is still raging. Sir Charles has written to the Times a reply to Tyler's last, in which he expressed the confidence that shareholders of the Grand Trunk now realize the necessity of a change of President. The Canadian Gazette says that before polling day promises were made to dissatisfied shareholders that some of them who were really heavy investors should take the place of directors who had been long anxious to resign.

More Trouble for the United States. VIENNA, May 7. Notice has been given by a number of the Austrian Reichsrath of a question as to whether the government is aware that a number of the subjects of Austro-Hungary who are working in the State of Virginia, United States, were treated like slaves, and what measures of redress the government proposed adopting.

A Gladstonian Elected. LONDON, May 7. In an election for the Stowmarket Division of Suffolk, the Gladstonian candidate won by a majority of three hundred. The late Tory member's majority was six hundred. Returns show the Liberal gain to be a thousand votes.

An American Mobbed. NEW YORK, May 7. Professor Jacques, an American, formerly of John Hopkins University, now travelling with his daughter, was mobbed by Italians yesterday at Florence. The failure of the grand jury to indict any of the New Orleans lynchers is causing great excitement among Italian residents. Trouble is feared.

Dominion Parliament. OTTAWA, May 7. The Senate has adjourned until the 20th. In the Commons, yesterday's session was occupied by the introduction of private bills, the presentation of petitions and the answering of questions. The House is adjourned until Monday.

Laurier is laid up with la grippe.

Capt. Verney Imprisoned. LONDON, May 7. Capt. Verney, M. P., has been sentenced to one year's imprisonment for conspiracy to procure young girls for immoral purposes. The sentence is considered light. The judge in giving sentence, said he had no doubt that this was not the only case of Verney's guilt.

Arrests in Warsaw. ST. PETERSBURG, May 7. Three hundred students and four hundred other persons have been arrested in Warsaw for participating in an orderly celebration which was held on the occasion of a Polish festival.

Out of Employment. NEW YORK, May 7. Thousands of workmen are out of employment owing to Pratt's Oil Works at Greenpoint, N. Y., being burnt last night. It is the largest loss yet experienced by oil kings, but no estimate is yet possible.

Father Hyacinthe. NEW YORK, May 7. Father Hyacinthe is anxious to return to the Catholic Church. He recently made a long retreat to the monastery. His wife and family are now the obstacles to his return to the Church.
