championship of Prince Edward Island. The score was 3-1, and the Charlottetown aggregation will have a 2-goal edge to carry into the second game to be played at the Coliseum in Charlottetown. The game was rugged, but referees Walter Lawlor and Vance Harris kept the boys in hand, passing out four major, eleven minors and a team penalty to Summerside High for playing with too many men on the ice. This latter penalty resulted from confusion stemming from a delayed penalty.

Duffy was the leading sniper of the visitors, getting two of the three goals. Bradley shot the other one. Ulric Gallant got the lone Summerside tally in the final period when the teams were playing four aside.

Red Wings Defeat Leafs 7-4; Habs Blank Bruins 2-0 In N.H.L. Semi-Final Openers

DETROIT, (AP)—Linemates Dutch Reibel and Gordie Howe scored two goals each Tuesday night as the champion Detroit Red Wings defeated Toronto Maple Leafs 7-4 in a loose, undramatic Stanley Cup semi-final opener.

The game, first of a best-of-seven series, was a striking contrast to last Sunday's emotional season's-wind-up when the Red Wings trounced Montreal Canadiens to clinch their seventh straight National Hockey League championship.

A day-long storm, with winds up to 80 miles an hour, cut into the attendance and a crowd of 12,190 saw the game. It seemed like anything but playoff hockey. Both teams played a wide-open game resulting in the high score.

After a 22 first period, the Wings broke it wide-open with a pair of goals by Glen Skov and Reibel in the second period. Howe scored his two goals in the third period, nullifying a Toronto comeback sparked by goals by Sid Smith and Ted Kennedy. Howe's first bounced off the goal post and dribbled into the net and his second came when he took a goal-mouth pass from Alex Devecchio.

MONTREAL, (CP)—With two goalies shutting back and forth in the Montreal nets, the Montreal Canadiens Tuesday night hung a 2-0 shutout on the Boston Bruins in the opening game of the best-of-seven Stanley Cup semi-finals.

Both goals came in the second period while Boston was short-handed and were scored by Bernie (Boom Boom) Geoffrion and Jean Beliveau.

President Clarence Campbell of the National Hockey League, who was attacked last Thursday night by fans enraged over his suspension of Montreal's Maurice Richard, took his regular seat at the game and was the object of mild and sporadic booing. Ten policemen were stationed in front of or near his box seat.

The crowd of 13,547 directed a great outburst of booing, however, at Hal Laycoe of the Bruins. It was Laycoe whom Richard attacked with his stick in a game in Boston March 13th.

Montreal outshot Boston 25-30.
