

Educate Your Muscles.

Thank God, if you are compelled to walk. Carriage exercises is a mere joke and does the horses more good than the riders. It is one of the penalties entailed upon our present state of civilization, that we have but little exercise; our mechanics, artisans, manufacturers (and teachers) scarcely ever exercise their limbs. A good smart walk of ten, twenty, or thirty miles, this is a blessing; the writer knows it, for there are few counties in England or Wales, where he has not measured some hundreds of miles on foot. The muscles unexercised, acquire lassitude, cariness, and soon give up all exertion. Instead of exulting in a walk of thirty miles, they tremble at the bare idea of walking one. But walking, walking, what pleasure there is in the mere act of walking upon some long pleasant level! it relieved by alternating hill and dale, so much the better. My poor backsliding brethren, I must c'en pity them; and have I not earned the right to do so? for a pedestrian, some of the fairest scenes in all the broad borders of England have unveiled themselves to me. Walk, leap, run, exert arm, leg, body; but, in some way or other exercise!

Educate Your Skin.

The state of the skin exercises no inconsiderable influence over the whole state of the body. Many persons impair the nervous state by never thoroughly cleansing the body, for the sensibility of the skin gives a tone to the temperament. In its healthy state it is capable of exquisite enjoyments, which many never experienced. The wind and the fanning breath of the air, the cold but bracing atmosphere—these are an inspiration and an enjoyment to those whose frames have been rendered sufficiently healthy and hardy to enjoy them.

Educate Your Sleep.

Many persons have habituated themselves to a very sparing allowance of four or five hours on the average. But there are few for whom it is sufficient; from seven to eight hours should be the average of your sleep. Yes! if you would create and make time "educate your sleep."

SOMETHING NEW.—There has always been great difficulty in getting water-proof coats to fit satisfactorily about the neck and shoulders, for stout and round-shouldered men. You can avoid this and have a perfect fit by leaving your measure with us. We have made arrangements with an English firm to have these coats made on our own patterns, so that we are in a position to warrant a good fit. We can show over 100 samples of the goods from which the coats will be made, ranging in price from $5 to $24. Every coat warranted to come the same as sample of goods shown. You can have better material and cheaper than buying ready-made goods.—John McLeod & Co., Merchant Tailors.
