Address and Presentation
A happy event took place Feb. 26, when the spacious home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bernard, French River, was opened to friends and relatives who came to celebrate with them their golden wedding day. Despite the bad condition of the roads, a large number was present, and when all had assembled, the gathering was called to order by Mr. George F. Ferguson who, in his usual jovial manner, acted the role of chairman.

Strange But True
By F. H. MacArthur
China did not have much regard for its first railway built by British capital and opened for use in 1875. A Chinaman was hit and killed on its first run and believe it or not, the Chinese government bought the railroad, took up the tracks, and sent 'em to the dump.

IN MEMORIAM
In loving memory of my dear Daddy, Donald M. MacLean, who passed away March 4th, 1953.
At night when all is silent And sleep forsakes my eyes My thoughts go to the graveyard Where my dear Daddy lies.
In tears, we watched him sinking, We saw him pass away, We tended him with loving care But could not make him stay.
The rolling stream of life goes on But still the vacant chair Recalls the time, the voice, the smile Of my Daddy who once sat there.
I had a Daddy with a heart of gold Who was worth more to me than wealth untold, Without Farewell he fell asleep Leaving fond memories for me to keep.
There is many a tear clouds my vision, And my heart does not know what to say, God alone only knows how I miss him.
As I travel along life's way, Lovingly Remembered by his Daughter Mary E.

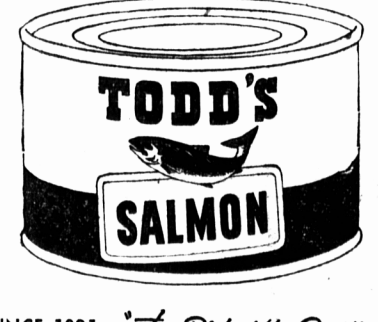

IN MEMORIAM
In loving memory of Mrs. Wallace McKay, who departed this life March 4th, 1942.
Gone from us but leaving memories Death can never take away Memories that will always linger, While upon this earth we stay.
The years will pass dear Mother, But still on memories page, The loving thought you left behind Will never, never fade.
Lovingly Remembered and Sadly Missed by Husband and Family.

IN MEMORIAM
Final plans were being made for the opening of a branch bank of Theodore Theban's banking firm in New York. Mr. Theban was busy in his office when there came an insistent rapping at the door. He opened it to find a woman holding a shopping bag topped by a bunch of lettuce.
Insisting that she wanted to open an account in the branch office, the woman dug under the lettuce and came up with $11,500 in cash. Her wish was granted, and she's believed to be the first woman in the U. S. A. to open her bank account with a bunch of lettuce.
Police had no trouble locating Clement Brousseau to face a reckless driving charge in Campbell
